

The Story of Joseph

STORY TIME!

The Story of Joseph (Genesis 37–42)

Of Jacob's twelve sons, Joseph was his favorite. To show his love, Jacob gave Joseph a colorful coat. Jacob's other sons were jealous, so they sold Joseph to a merchant who took Joseph to Egypt to become a slave.

Egypt's ruler was called Pharaoh. Pharaoh had a disturbing dream one night and wanted to know its meaning. He asked all his wise men to interpret the dream, but none of them were able to do so. Finally, Joseph helped Pharaoh by telling him what his dream meant. Pharaoh was so happy that he freed Joseph from slavery and put Joseph in charge of all Egypt.

Years later Joseph's brothers came to Egypt to beg for food. They did not recognize Joseph. Joseph tested his brothers and found that they had become honest men. "You are my family," Joseph said as he hugged them. "I love you and forgive you."

But Children Matter Kenneth G. Warren, John S. Knox, 2020-02-14 Often a disconnect exists between the way pastors children s ministry volunteers and churches describe the health and impact of children s ministry volunteers and the overall functioning of an ongoing children s ministry The volunteer dysfunction that is evident in many churches goes beyond the building scenario or the current strategy that leadership is pursuing If one asks the pastor of just about any local church how the children s ministry is going most pastors will respond positively However if speaking with a children s ministry volunteer one is likely to hear I am burned out but I feel obligated to serve here because we have such a shortage of volunteers and I do love these kids Too often there is no program in place to monitor the health of the ministry Official training is lacking church vision is blurred and many children s ministry volunteers feel like they are nothing more than large group unpaid babysitters This book analyzes these problems and provides pragmatic systematic steps to a healthier more robust children s ministry

Drawing & Telling Bible Stories Thomas David Burleigh,2015-06-24 Everyone loves hearing a good story Even better than a told story however is one that unfolds before your eyes I noticed that if I read a story from the Bible the children in my Sunday school class were often not listening However if I told the story while drawing

it out cartoon style on a large sheet of paper taped to the wall the kids were riveted to the story These are the drafts of the Bible stories that I used to teach the children in Sunday school I would start the drawing with the background hills or buildings in the first panel and then I would add the characters in the foreground as they are introduced to the story This idea for drawing the Bible stories while telling them is from a book I read many years ago I have not been able to find that book again Therefore I am providing these sketches in hopes that someone else can use them The stories are listed in the same order as they are in the Bible Kids of all ages benefit by knowing the Bible stories
