God's only daughter Kathryn Walls, 2016-05-16 In this study Kathryn Walls challenges the standard identification of Una with the post Reformation English Church arguing that she is rather Augustine's City of God the invisible Church whose membership is known only to God Una's story its Tudor resonances notwithstanding therefore embraces that of the Synagogue before the Incarnation as well as that of the Church in the time of Christ and thereafter It also allegorises the redemptive process that sustains the true Church Una is fallible in canto I Subsequently however she comes to embody divine perfection Her transformation depends upon the intervention of the lion as Christ Convinced of the consistency and coherence of Spenser's allegory Walls offers fresh interpretations of Abessa as Synagoga of the fauns and satyrs the Gentiles and of Una's dwarf adaphoric forms of worship She also reinterprets Spenser's marriage metaphor clarifying the significance of Red Cross as Una's spouse in the final canto Spenser Newsletter, 1998 American Book Publishing
