The Historical Nights Entertainment (Classic Reprint) Rafael Sabatini, 2015-07-02 Excerpt from The Historical Nights Entertainment The kindly reception accorded to the first volume of The Historical Nights Entertainment issued in December of 1917 has encouraged me to prepare the second series here assembled As in the case of the narratives that made up the first volume I set out again with the same ambitious aim of adhering scrupulously in every instance to actual recorded facts and once again I find it desirable at the outset to reveal how far the achievement may have fallen short of the admitted aim On the whole I have to confess to having allowed myself perhaps a wider latitude and to having taken greater liberties than was the case with the essays constituting the previous collection This however applies where applicable to the parts rather than to the whole The only entirely apocryphal narrative here included is the first The Absolution This is one of those stories which if resting upon no sufficient authority to compel its acceptance will nevertheless resist all attempts at final refutation having its roots at least in the soil of fact It is given in the rather discredited Portuguese chronicles of Acenheiro and finds place more or less as related here in Duarte Galvao s Chronicle of Affonso Henriques whence it was taken by the Portuguese historical writer Alexandre Herculano to be included in his Lendas e Narrativas About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
