The History And Sociology Of Genocide Analyses And Case Studies:

The History and Sociology of Genocide Frank Robert Chalk, Kurt Jonassohn, Montreal Institute for Genocide Studies, 1990
Genocide is not an invention of the twentieth century in this absorbing book but has occurred throughout history in all parts of the world This study the first comprehensive survey of the history and sociology of genocide presents over two dozen examples of the one sided mass slaughter of peoples spanning the centuries from antiquity to the present The History and Sociology of Genocide Frank Robert Chalk, Kurt Jonassohn, Montreal Institute for Genocide Studies, 1990-01-01
Genocide is not an invention of the twentieth century in this absorbing book but has occurred throughout history in all parts of the world This study the first comprehensive survey of the history and sociology of genocide presents over two dozen examples of the one sided mass slaughter of peoples spanning the centuries from antiquity to the present The History and Sociology of Genocide ,2000 Genocide Graham Charles Kinloch, Raj P. Mohan, 2005 Twenty authors analyze factors behind genocidal situations worldwide with detailed case studies and an evaluation of attempts to prevent genocide and of the implications for human rights policies with a particular concern to develop new and practical insights Provided by publisher Atrocity Labelling Markus P. Beham, 2022-11-03 Atrocity Genocide War crime Crime Against Humanity Such atrocity labels have been popularized among international lawmakers but with little insight offered into how and when these terms are applied and to what effect What constitutes an event to be termed a genocide or war crime and what role does this play in the application of legal proceedings Markus P Beham through an interdisciplinary and comparative approach unpicks these terms to uncover their historical genesis and their implications for international criminal law initiatives concerned with atrocity The book uniquely compares four specific case studies Belgian colonial exploitation of the Congo atrocities committed against the Herero and Nama in German South West Africa the Armenian genocide and the man made Ukrainian famine of the 1930s Encompassing international law legal history and discourse analysis the concept of atrocity labelling is used to capture the meaning underlying the work of international lawyers and prosecutors historians and sociologists agenda setters and policy makers The Politics of Mass Violence in the Middle East Laura Robson, 2020-09-17 The Middle East today is characterized by an astonishingly bloody civil war in Syria an ever more highly racialized and militarized approach to the concept of a Jewish state in Israel and the Palestinian territories an Iraqi state paralyzed by the emergence of class and region inflected sectarian identifications a Lebanon teetering on the edge of collapse from the pressures of its huge numbers of refugees and its sect bound political system and the rise of a wide variety of Islamist paramilitary organizations seeking to operate outside all these states The region s emergence as a zone of violence characterized by a viciously dystopian politics of identity is a relatively recent phenomenon developing only over the past century but despite these shallow historical roots the mass violence and dispossession now characterizing Syria Lebanon Israel Palestine and Iraq have emerged as some of the twenty first century s most intractable problems In this study Laura Robson uses a framework of mass violence encompassing the concepts of genocide ethnic cleansing forced migration appropriation of resources mass deportation and forcible denationalization to explain the emergence of a dystopian politics of identity across the Eastern Mediterranean in the modern era and to illuminate the contemporary breakdown of the state from Syria to Iraq to Israel

Violence Catherine Besteman,2002-06 This multi disciplinary anthology explores the topic of violence from a wide variety of perspectives It looks at state violence anti state violence and criminal violence such as armed robbery

Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict Karl Cordell,Stefan Wolff,2010-10-18 A definitive global survey of the interaction of race ethnicity nationalism and politics this handbook blends theoretically grounded rigorous analysis with empirical illustrations to provide a state of the art overview of the contemporary debates on one of the most pervasive international security challenges today The contributors to this volume offer a 360 degree perspective on ethnic conflict from the theoretical foundations of nationalism and ethnicity to the causes and consequences of ethnic conflict and to the various strategies adopted in response to it Without privileging any specific explanation of why ethnic conflict happens at a specific place and time or why attempts at preventing or settling it might fail or succeed the Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict enables readers to gain better insights into such defining moments in post Cold War international history as the disintegrations of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia and their respective consequences and the genocide in Rwanda as well as the relative success of conflict settlement efforts in Northern Ireland Macedonia and Aceh By contributing to understanding the varied and multiple causes of ethnic conflicts and to learning from the successes and failures of its prevention and settlement the Handbook makes a powerful case that ethnic conflicts are neither unavoidable nor unresolvable but rather that they require careful analysis and thoughtful and measured responses

Reigns of Terror M. Patricia Marchak,2003 She argues that while these variables may be contributing factors states move toward human rights crimes because their governments can no longer sustain a particular social hierarchy Reasons for their paralysis may be economic environmental demographic or purely political In an attempt to re establish the former status quo they turn against groups low on the hierarchical scale some of which may be defined in ethnic terms If governments come into power as revolutionary forces they may commit such crimes in order to establish a new social hierarchy Other necessary but insufficient conditions for state crimes include the military capacity for committing mass murder the creation of ideology that justifies such action and the failure of independent institutions such as the mass media and universities to counter ideological and military forces

The American West and the Nazi East C. Kakel,2011-07-12 By employing new optics and a comparative approach this book helps us recognize the unexpected and unsettling connections between America s western empire and Nazi Germany s eastern empire linking histories previously thought of as totally unrelated and leading readers towards a deep revisioning of the American West and the Nazi East

The Oxford Handbook on Atrocity Crimes Barbora Holá,Hollie Nyseth Nzitatira,Hollie Nyseth Brehm,Maartje Weerdesteijn,2022 The Oxford Handbook on Atrocity Crimes surveys and further develops the evolving field of atrocity crime studies through interdisciplinary research on war crimes crimes against humanity and genocide in one comprehensive volume encompassing contributions of leading scholars

State Identities and the Homogenisation of Peoples Heather Rae, 2002-08-15 Why are forced displacement ethnic cleansing and genocide an enduring feature of state systems In this book Heather Rae locates these practices of pathological homogenisation in the processes of state building Political elites have repeatedly used cultural resources to redefine bounded political communities as exclusive moral communities from which outsiders must be expelled Showing that these practices predate the age of nationalism Rae examines cases from both pre nationalist and nationalist eras the expulsion of the Jews from fifteenth century Spain the persecution of the Huguenots under Louis XIV and in the twentieth century the Armenian genocide and ethnic cleansing in former Yugoslavia She argues that those atrocities prompted the development of international norms of legitimate state behaviour that increasingly define sovereignty as conditional Rae concludes by examining two threshold cases the Czech Republic and Macedonia to identify the factors that may inhibit pathological homogenization as a method of state building

Genocide Adam Jones, 2006 Recent events in the former Yugoslavia Rwanda East Timor and Iraq have demonstrated with appalling clarity that the threat of genocide is still a major issue within world politics

Dimensions of Settler Colonialism in a Transnational Perspective Eva Bischoff, 2018-08-29 As a field of research settler colonial studies has developed dynamically in recent years This volume contributes a set of much needed empirical analyses of the microhistory and practices of settler colonialism Incorporating six case studies from across the Anglo world including the United States Australia and South Africa this book examines the roles different actors played in this process their individual experiences and the social and physical re organization of settler colonial space They reconstruct the complexities of settler responses to Indigenous resistance guided by fear or religious convictions and explore the settlers potential to manoeuvre on higher political levels legitimizing frontier violence as a patriotic duty to the common good In addition they examine the production and circulation of knowledge about land and discuss the ways in which socio ecological systems were manipulated by stock farmers whose success depended upon an effective integration into a world wide economic system Overall the volume presents a unique combination of microhistorical analysis and environmental history This book was originally published as a special issue of Settler Colonial Studies

The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 2020-02-27 This bibliography first published in 1957 provides citations to North American academic literature on Europe Central Europe the Balkans the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union Organised by discipline it covers the arts humanities social sciences life sciences and technology

The Social Science Encyclopedia Adam Kuper, Jessica Kuper, 2004-10-14 The Social Science Encyclopedia first published in 1985 to acclaim from social scientists librarians and students was thoroughly revised in 1996 when reviewers began to describe it as a classic This third edition has been radically recast Over half the entries are new or have been entirely rewritten and most of the balance have been substantially revised Written by an international team of contributors the Encyclopedia offers a global perspective on key issues within the social sciences Some 500 entries cover a variety of enduring and newly vital areas of study and research methods Experts review theoretical debates from neo evolutionism and rational choice theory to poststructuralism and address the great questions that cut across the social sciences What is the influence of genes on behaviour What is the nature of consciousness and cognition What are the causes of poverty and wealth What are the roots of conflict wars revolutions and genocidal violence This authoritative reference work is aimed at anyone with a serious interest in contemporary academic thinking about the individual in society Armenia Donald E. Miller,Lorna Touryan Miller,2003-09-15 This portrait in words and pictures explores Armenia during the devastating years after the 1988 earthquake the collapse of the Soviet Union and the ensuing violence over boundaries and ethnic differences Hidden Genocides Alexander Laban Hinton,Thomas La Pointe,Douglas Irvin-Erickson,2013-12-18 Why are some genocides prominently remembered while others are ignored hidden or denied Consider the Turkish campaign denying the Armenian genocide followed by the Armenian movement to recognize the violence Similar movements are building to acknowledge other genocides that have long remained out of sight in the media such as those against the Circassians Greeks Assyrians the indigenous peoples in the Americas and Australia and the violence that was the precursor to and the aftermath of the Holocaust The contributors to this collection look at these cases and others from a variety of perspectives These essays cover the extent to which our biases our ways of knowing our patterns of definition our assumptions about truth and our processes of remembering and forgetting as well as the characteristics of generational transmission the structures of power and state ideology and diaspora have played a role in hiding some events and not others Noteworthy among the collection s coverage is whether the trade in African slaves was a form of genocide and a discussion not only of Hutus brutalizing Tutsi victims in Rwanda but of the execution of moderate Hutus as well Hidden Genocides is a significant contribution in terms of both descriptive narratives and interpretations to the emerging subfield of critical genocide studies Contributors Daniel Feierstein Donna Lee Frieze Krista Hegburg Alexander Laban Hinton Adam Jones A Dirk Moses Chris M Nunpa Walter Richmond Hannibal Travis and Elisa von Joeden Forgey Dictionary of Ethics, Theology and Society Paul A. B. Clarke,Andrew Linzey,2013-11-05 This Dictionary provides a unique and groundbreaking survey of both the historical and contemporary interrelations between ethics theology and society In over 250 separately authored entries a selection of the world s leading scholars from many disciplines and many denominations present their own views on a wide range of topics Arranged alphabetically entries cover all aspects of philosophy theology ethics economics politics and government Each entry includes a concise definition of the term a description of the principal ideas behind it analysis of its history development and contemporary relevance a detailed bibliography giving the major sources in the field The entire field is prefaced by an editorial introduction outlining its scope and diversity Selected entries include Animal Rights Capital Punishment

Communism Domestic Violence Ethics Evil Government Homophobia Humanism Liberation Theology Politics Pornography Racism Sexism Society Vivisection Women s Ordination Critical Criminology in Canada Aaron Doyle, Dawn Moore, 2011-01-01 Canada s criminal justice landscape has been shaped by contrary trends in recent years As the crime rate declines policy makers continue to push for tough on crime legislation and university criminology programs continue to expand Given these trends what does the future hold for criminology and criminal justice This book presents the work of a new generation of critical criminologists who explore the geographical institutional and political context of the discipline in Canada Breaking away from mainstream criminology and popular law and order discourses the authors present a spectrum of theoretical approaches to criminal justice from governmentality to feminist criminology from critical realism to anarchism and they propose novel approaches to topics such as genocide white collar crime and the effect of prison sentences on families By posing crucial questions and attempting to define what criminology should be this book will shape debates about crime policing and punishment for years to come
