The History Of An Islamic School Of Law:

A History of Islamic Law N. J. Coulson, 2011 The classic introduction to Islamic law tracing its development from its origins through the medieval period to its place in modern Islam The History of an Islamic School of Law Nurit Tsafir, 2004 So closely is the early development of the Hanafi school interwoven with non legal spheres the political social and theological that its study is essential to a proper understanding of medieval Islamic history Tsafir offers a thorough examination of the first century and a half of the school s existence the period during which it took shape Islamic Imperial Law Benjamin Jokisch, 2007 Die Studies in the History and Culture of the Middle East erscheinen als Supplement der Zeitschrift Der Islam gegr ndet 1910 von Carl Heinrich Becker einem der V ter der modernen Islamwissenschaft Ziel der Studies ist die Erforschung der vergangenen Gesellschaften des Vorderen Orients ihrer Glaubenssysteme und der zugrundeliegenden sozialen und konomischen Verh ltnisse f r alle historisch arbeitenden Geistes und Sozialwissenschaften

A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus, 2002-08-22 Ira Lapidus classic history of the origins and evolution of Muslim societies revised and updated for this second edition first published in 2002 The Formation of the Sunni Schools of Law Christopher Melchert, 1997 Melchert traces the emergence of jurisprudence by h ad th the personalization of the old regional schools in response and finally the emergence of the classical guild schools with regular means of forming students in the early tenth century Between God and the Sultan Knut S. Vikør, 2005 The contrast between religion and law has been continuous throughout Muslim history Islamic law has always existed in a tension between these two forces God who gave the law and the state the sultan representing society and implementing the law This tension and dynamic have created a very particular history for the law in how it was formulated and by whom in its theoretical basis and its actual rules and in how it was practiced in historical reality from the time of its formation until today That is the main theme of this book Knut S Vikør introduces the development and practice of Islamic law to a wide readership students lawyers and the growing number of those interested in Islamic civilization He summarizes the main concepts of Islamic jurisprudence discusses debates concerning the historicity of Islamic sources of dogma and the dating of early Islamic law describes the classic practice of the law in the formulation and elaboration of legal rules and practice in the courts and sets out various substantive legal rules on such vital matters as the family and economic activity Islamic Law in the Indian Ocean World Mahmood Kooria, Sanne Ravensbergen, 2021-09-23 This book explores the ways in which Muslim communities across the Indian Ocean world produced and shaped Islamic law and its texts ideas and practices in their local regional imperial national and transregional contexts With a focus on the production and transmission of Islamic law in the Indian Ocean the chapters in this book draw from and add to recent discourses on the legal histories and anthropologies of the Indian Ocean rim as well as to the conversations on global Islamic circulations By doing so this book argues for the importance of Islamic legal thoughts and practices of the so called peripheries to the core and kernel of Islamic traditions and the urgency of addressing their long existing role in the making of the historical and human experience of the religion Islamic law was and is not merely brought to but also produced in the Indian Ocean world through constant and critical engagements The book takes a long term and transregional perspective for a better understanding of the ways in which the oceanic Muslims have historically developed their religious juridical and intellectual traditions and continue to shape their lives within the frameworks of their religion Transregional and transdisciplinary in its approach this book will be of interest to scholars of Islamic Studies Indian Ocean Studies Legal History and Legal Anthropology Area Studies of South and Southeast Asia and East Africa The Formation of the Sunni Schools of Law, 9th-10th Centuries C.E. Christopher Melchert, 2024-01-08

The Sunni schools of law are named for jurists of the eighth and ninth centuries but they did not actually function so early The main division at that time was rather between adherents of ra'y and adl No school had a regular means of forming students Relying mainly on biographical dictionaries this study traces the constitutive elements of the classical schools and finds that they first came together in the early tenth century particularly with the work of Ibn Surayj d 306 918 al Khall l d 311 923 and a series of anaf teachers ending with al Karkh d 340 952 Malikism prospered in the West for political reasons while the hir and Jarir schools faded out due to their refusal to adopt the common new teaching methods In this book the author fleshes out these historical developments in a manner that will be extremely useful to the field while at the same time developing some new and highly original perspectives The Oxford Handbook of Legal History Markus D.

Dubber, Christopher Tomlins, 2018-07-26 Some of the most exciting and innovative legal scholarship has been driven by historical curiosity Legal history today comes in a fascinating array of shapes and sizes from microhistory to global intellectual history Legal history has expanded beyond traditional parochial boundaries to become increasingly international and comparative in scope and orientation Drawing on scholarship from around the world and representing a variety of methodological approaches areas of expertise and research agendas this timely compendium takes stock of legal history and methodology and reflects on the various modes of the historical analysis of law past present and future Part I explores the relationship between legal history and other disciplinary perspectives including economic philosophical comparative literary and rhetorical analysis of law Part II considers various approaches to legal history including legal history as doctrinal intellectual or social history Part III focuses on the interrelation between legal history and jurisprudence by investigating the role and conception of historical inquiry in various models schools and movements of legal thought Part IV traces the place and pursuit of historical analysis in various legal systems and traditions across time cultures and space Finally Part V narrows the Handbooks focus to explore several examples of legal history in action including its use in various legal doctrinal contexts The Beginnings of Islamic Law Lena Salaymeh, 2016-11-14 This is a major and innovative contribution to our understanding of the historical unfolding of Islamic law Scrutinizing its historical contexts Salaymeh proposes that Islamic law is a continuous intermingling of innovation and tradition The book's interdisciplinary approach provides accessible explanations and translations of complex materials and ideas The Ashgate Research Companion to Islamic Law Peri Bearman, 2016-03-16 This unparalleled Companion provides a comprehensive and authoritative guide to Islamic law to all with an interest in this increasingly relevant and developing field The volume presents classical Islamic law through a historiographical introduction to and analysis of Western scholarship while key debates about hot button issues in modern day circumstances are also addressed In twenty one chapters distinguished authors offer an overview of their particular specialty reflect on past and current thinking and point to directions for future research The Companion is divided into four parts The first offers an introduction to the history of Islamic law as well as a discussion of how Western scholarship and historiography have evolved over time The second part delves into the substance of Islamic law Legal rules for the areas of legal status family law socio economic justice penal law constitutional authority and the law of war are all discussed in this section Part three examines the adaptation of Islamic law in light of colonialism and the modern nation state as well as the subsequent re Islamization of national legal systems The final section presents contemporary debates on the role of Islamic law in areas such as finance the diaspora modern governance and medical ethics and the volume concludes by questioning the role of Sharia law as a legal authority in the modern context By outlining the history of Islamic law through a linear study of research this collection is unique in its examination of past and present scholarship and the lessons we can draw from this for the future It introduces scholars and students to the challenges posed in the past to the magnitude of milestones that were achieved in the reinterpretation and revision of established ideas and ultimately to a thorough conceptual understanding of Islamic law The Second Formation of Islamic Law Guy Burak, 2015-01-12 The Second Formation of Islamic Law offers a new periodization of Islamic legal history in the eastern Islamic lands Sexual Violation in Islamic Law Hina Azam, 2015-06-26 Centered on legal discourses of Islam s first six centuries this book analyzes juristic writings on the topic of rape Islamic Societies to the Nineteenth Century Ira M. Lapidus, 2012-10-22 First published in 1988 Ira Lapidus A History of Islamic Societies has become a classic in the field enlightening students scholars and others with a thirst for knowledge about one of the world s great civilizations This book based on fully revised and updated parts one and two of this monumental work describes the transformations of Islamic societies from their beginning in the seventh century through their diffusion across the globe into the challenges of the nineteenth century The story focuses on the organization of families and tribes religious groups and states showing how they were transformed by their interactions with other religious and political communities The book concludes with the European commercial and imperial interventions that initiated a new set of transformations in the Islamic world and the onset of the modern era Organized in narrative sections for the history of each major region with innovative analytic summary introductions and conclusions this book is a unique endeavour Muslim Identities Aaron W. Hughes, 2013-04-09 Rather than focus solely on theological concerns this well rounded introduction takes an expansive view of Islamic ideology culture and tradition sourcing a range of historical sociological and literary perspectives Neither overly critical nor apologetic this book reflects the rich diversity of Muslim identities across the centuries and counters the unflattering superficial portrayals of Islam that are shaping public discourse today Aaron W Hughes uniquely traces the development of Islam in relation to historical intellectual and cultural influences enriching his narrative with the findings debates and methodologies of related disciplines such as archaeology history and Near Eastern studies Hughes s work challenges the dominance of traditional terms and concepts in religious studies recasting religion as a set of social and cultural facts imagined manipulated and contested by various actors and groups over time Making extensive use of contemporary identity theory Hughes rethinks the teaching of Islam and religions in general and helps facilitate a more critical approach to Muslim sources For readers seeking a non theological unbiased and richly human portrait of Islam as well as a strong grasp of Islamic study s major issues and debates this textbook is a productive progressive alternative to more classic surveys

The Grey Falcon: The Life and Teaching of Shaykh ‘Abd al-Qādir al-Jīlānī Hamza Malik,2018-10-02 In The Grey Falcon Hamza Malik offers an account of the life and teaching of the twelfth century scholar and Sufi of Baghdad and eponym of the Qadiri order Shaykh Abd al Q dir al J l n 1077 1166 The question of whether J l n was a Sufi or simply a scholar appropriated by later Sufis as has been sometimes suggested is tackled through an analysis of his three most popular works the Ghunya li lib ar q al aqq the Fut al Ghayb and the Fat al Rabb n Malik identifies and presents J l n s Sufi thought and theological stance and furthermore attempts to paint a picture of the character and personality of J l n as might be ascertained solely from the works analysed

Legal Authority in Premodern Islam Fachrizal A. Halim,2014-11-20 Offering a detailed analysis of the structure of authority in Islamic law this book focuses on the figure of Yahy b Sharaf al Nawaw who is regarded as the chief contributor to the legal tradition known as the Sh fi madhhab in traditional Muslim sources named after Muhammad b Idr s al Sh fi d 204 820 the supposed founder of the school of law Al Nawaw s legal authority is situated in a context where Muslims demanded to stabilize legal disposition that is consistent with the authority of the madhhab since in premodern Islamic society the ruling powers did not produce or promulgate law as was the case in other monarchic civilizations Al Nawaw s place in the long term formation of the madhhab is significant for many reasons but for one in particular his effort in reconciling the two major interpretive communities among the Sh fi ites i e the tar qas of the Iraqians and Khurasanians This book revisits the history of the Sh fi school in the pre Nawawic era and explores its later development in the post Nawawic period Presenting a comprehensive picture of the structure of authority in Islamic law specifically within the Shafi ite legal tradition this book is an essential resource for students and scholars of Islamic Studies History and Law
