Hungarian Religion, Romanian Blood R. Chris Davis, 2019-01-08 Amid the rising nationalism and racial politics that culminated in World War II European countries wishing to purify their nations often forced unwanted populations to migrate The targeted minorities had few options but as R Chris Davis shows they sometimes used creative tactics to fight back redefining their identities to serve their own interests Davis s highly illuminating example is the case of the little known Moldavian Csangos a Hungarian and Romanian speaking community of Roman Catholics in eastern Romania During World War II some in the Romanian government wanted to expel them The Hungarian government saw them as Hungarians and wanted to settle them on lands confiscated from other groups Resisting deportation the clergy of the Csangos enlisted Romania s leading racial anthropologist collected blood samples and rewrote a millennium of history to claim Romanian origins and national belonging thus escaping the discrimination and violence that devastated so many of Europe s Jews Roma

Slavs and other minorities In telling their story Davis offers fresh insight to debates about ethnic allegiances the roles of science and religion in shaping identity and minority politics past and present Proper Peasants E. Fel,

Manufacturing Middle Ages, 2013-08-22 Across the nineteenth century European history philology archaeology art and architecture turned from a common classical vocabulary and ideology to images of pasts and origins drawn primarily from the Middle Ages The result was a paradox as scholars and artists schooled in the same pan European vocabularies and methodologies nevertheless sought to discover through them unique and frequently oppositional national identities These essays edited by Patrick J Geary and G bor Klaniczay focus on this all European phenomenon with a special focus on Scandinavia and East Central Europe bearing witness to the inextricable links between cultural and scientific engagement the search for national identity and political agendas in the long nineteenth century that made the search for archaic origins an entangled history Contributors include Walter Pohl Ian Wood Sverre Bagge Maciej Janowski Sir David Wilson Anders Andr n Ern Marosi Carmen Popescu Ahmet Ersoy Michael Werner Joep Leerssen R Howard Bloch Pavl na Rychterov Tommaso di Carpegna Falconieri Stefan Detchev Florin Curta and P ter Lang Old Thiess, a Livonian Werewolf Carlo Ginzburg, Bruce Lincoln, 2020-03-23 In 1691 a Livonian peasant known as Old Thiess boldly announced before a district court that he was a werewolf Yet far from being a diabolical monster he insisted he was one of the hounds of God fierce guardians who battled sorcerers witches and even Satan to protect the fields flocks and humanity a baffling claim that attracted the notice of the judges then and still commands attention from historians today In this book eminent scholars Carlo Ginzburg and Bruce Lincoln offer a uniquely comparative look at the trial and startling testimony of Old Thiess They present the first English translation of the trial transcript in which the man s own voice can be heard before turning to subsequent analyses of the event which range from efforts to connect Old Thiess to shamanistic practices to the argument that he was reacting against cruel stereotypes of the Livonian werewolf a Germanic elite used to justify their rule over the Baltic peasantry As Ginzburg and Lincoln debate their own and others perspectives they also reflect on broader issues of historical theory method and politics Part source text of the trial part discussion of historians thoughts on the case and part dialogue over the merits and perils of their different methodological approaches Old Thiess a Livonian Werewolf opens up fresh insight into a remarkable historical occurrence and through it the very discipline of history itself
