The Home Orphans Home To Family Centre 18731998:

Quiet Reformers Ian Macdonald, Betty O'Keefe, 2010 This lively biography of Bishop Edward Cridge and his wife Mary paints a vivid picture of early Victoria as it developed from an isolated Hudson's Bay Company post into the bustling capital of British Columbia Recruited from England by Governor James Douglas in 1854 to be the Church of England chaplain of Fort Victoria Edward Cridge became an important figure in the spiritual life of the city as the rector of Christ Church The Cridges also became two of Victoria's foremost social reformers leaving an indelible mark on British Columbia's social institutions Living through the terrible smallpox and black measles epidemics the latter taking four of their own children the inseparable pair worked to create the first hospital beginning with a few beds in a rented cottage and living to see it transformed into the Royal Jubilee As the first superintendent of education Cridge played an essential role in B.C.'s early school system When abandoned children were left at the parsonage door Mary created Victoria's first orphanage The biography also tells of Cridge's very public argument with Bishop Hills a dispute that caused him to break with the Church of England to found and build the Church of Our Lord a Reformed Episcopal church which is today an historic Victoria landmark Included also are cameos by many of the notable people of the day such as Emily Carr who as a young girl lived opposite the Cridge family
