aged themselves are unproductive and dependent Ageing moreover can no longer be considered as simply a national question we also need to consider the implications of its global dimension in terms of issues such as human rights and quality of life Latest Contributions to Cross-cultural Psychology John G. Adair, Kenneth L. Dion, Jean-Claude

Lasry, 2020-07-26 This volume contains 23 articles grouped under six themes values and national identity immigration and acculturation personality and social behaviour across cultures organizational and work psychology educational and developmental psychology and conceptual and methodological ideas Handbook of Aging and Mental Health Jacob

Lomranz, 1998-09-30 This comprehensive resource responds to a growing need for theory and multidisciplinary integrative research in adult and gerontological health Handbook of Aging and Mental Health brings together for the first time diverse strategies and methodologies as well as theoretical formulations involving psychodynamic behavioral psychosocial and biological systems as they relate to aging and health Forward thinking in his approach Lomranz provides the mental health adult developmental and geriatric professions with a single reference source that covers theory construction empirical research treatment and multidisciplinary program development Aging and Loss Jason Danely, 2015-01-02 By 2030 over

30% of the Japanese population will be 65 or older foreshadowing the demographic changes occurring elsewhere in Asia and around the world What can we learn from a study of the aging population of Japan and how can these findings inform a path forward for the elderly their families and for policy makers Based on nearly a decade of research Aging and Loss examines how the landscape of aging is felt understood and embodied by older adults themselves In detailed portraits anthropologist Jason Danely delves into the everyday lives of older Japanese adults as they construct narratives through acts of reminiscence social engagement and ritual practice and reveals the pervasive cultural aesthetic of loss and of being a burden Through first hand accounts of rituals in homes cemeteries and religious centers Danely argues that what he calls the self in suspense can lead to the emergence of creative participation in an economy of care In everyday rituals for the spirits older adults exercise agency and reinterpret concerns of social abandonment within a meaningful cultural narrative and by reimagining themselves and their place in the family through these rituals older adults in Japan challenge popular attitudes about eldercare Danely's discussion of health and long term care policy and community welfare organizations reveal a complex picture of Japan's aging society Ageing In Asia: Contemporary Trends And Policy Issues Kai Hong

Phua, Lee Gan Goh, Mui Teng Yap, 2019-04-26 Ageing in Asia contains a selection of leading social systems and programs with interesting case studies offering innovative and useful lessons The book covers ageing and related developments occurring in the most dynamic industrializing and urbanizing societies of emerging Asia It includes topical issues such public policies and responses to current challenges from the growing needs of an ageing population due to rise of chronic non communicable diseases amidst rapidly changing social cultural economic and political changes in the region The main purpose of the book is to provide useful comparisons of social care systems undergoing rapid transitions and to offer some examples of best practices and lessons to respond to the changing needs due to population ageing Aging in East and West Dr. Vern L. Bengtson, PhD, Kyong-Dong Kim, PhD, George Myers, PhD, Ki-Soo Eun, PhD, 2000-09-20 Widely recognized experts present the first comparative analysis of recent developments among six Eastern and Western nations concerning population aging and its consequences Chapters focus on demographic trends sociocultural contexts and policy implications Nations selected as case studies include the People's Republic of China the Republic of Korea Japan Germany the United Kingdom and the United States The editors and contributors call attention to the varied trajectories and effects of population aging in culturally diverse societies that are often at different stages or on different paths of economic development Such analyses bring into sharper focus those conditions that are unique or similar and emphasize the ways in which cultural stereotypes of aging and the elderly complicate our understanding of the effects of world wide population aging U.S./Japan Foreign Trade Rita E. Neri, 2018-02-21 This bibliography first published in 1988 consists of annotated entries of monographs and journal articles published in English that discuss socio economic aspects of Japanese society as well as the general and economic dynamics of United States Japan trade relations Emphasis is on the Japanese perspective Growing Old in America David Hackett Fischer, 1978 A history of aging in America surveys and compares actualities and attitudes in the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries and suggests practical improvements on the current inadequate system of pensions social security medicare and other programs Time: A Bibliographic Guide Samuel L. Macey, 2018-10-10 Originally published in 1991 A multidisciplinary guide in the form of a bibliography of selected time related books and articles divided into 25 existing academic disciplines and about 100 subdisciplines which have a wide application to time studies Routledge Library Editions: Philosophy of Time Various Authors, 2021-03-05 Reissuing five works originally published between 1937 and 1991 this collection contains books addressing the subject of time from a mostly philosophic point of view but also of interest to those in the science and mathematics worlds These texts are brought back into print in this small set of works addressing how we think about time the history of the philosophy of time the measurement of time theories of relativity and discussions of the wider thinking about time and space among other aspects One volume is a thorough bibliography collating references on the subject of time across many disciplines Intergenerational Communication Across the Life Span Angie Williams, Jon F. Nussbaum, 2013-02-01 Individuals of all ages interact with one another and their interactions have significance throughout their lives This distinctive volume acknowledges the importance of these interactions and provides a life span developmental view of communication and aging attempting to capture the many similarities and changes that occur in people's lives as they age The authors move the study of intergenerational contact closer to the actual participants examining what happens within intergenerational interactions and how people evaluate their intergenerational experiences The volume concentrates on the micro context of the intergenerational interaction and the cognitions language and relationship behaviors related to intergenerational communication across the life span The volume employs the perspective that the understanding of human behavior across the life span is enhanced by studying communicative behavior in intergenerational interaction The authors integrate research from multiple disciplines concerned with intergenerational communication which is framed by several unique theoretical perspectives drawn from the communication discipline As a resource for the study of intergenerational communication across the life span this monograph offers important insights to scholars students and all who are involved in intergenerational communication Successful Aging Sheung-Tak Cheng,Iris Chi,Helene H. Fung,Lydia W. Li,Jean

Woo,2015-01-26 This book brings together state of the art research on successful aging in Asian populations and highlights how the factors that contribute to successful aging differ from those in the West It examines the differences between the Asian and Western contexts in which the aging process unfolds including cultural values lifestyles physical environments and family structures In addition it examines the question of how to add quality to longer years of life Specifically it looks at ways to promote health preserve cognition maximize functioning with social support and maintain emotional well being despite inevitable declines and losses Compared to other parts of the world Asia will age more quickly as a result of the rapid socioeconomic developments leading to rising longevity and historically low fertility rates in some countries These demographic forces in vast populations such as China are expected to make Asia the main driver of global aging in the coming decades As a result researchers professionals policymakers as well as the commercial sector in both East and West are increasingly interested in gaining a deeper understanding of aging in Asia Modern Methods Of Teaching Adult Education Shalini Wadhwa,2000 Japan's Economic Challenge Michael Keresztesi,Gary R. Cocozzoli,2018-10-26 This book first published in 1988 assembles a key pool of references in English to help study the Japanese economic challenge of the 1980s Collectively these writings chronicle the historical social and cultural background of Japan s spectacular industrial take off They describe analyse and interpret the diverse manifestations of Japan s economic growth Connecting
