The Hope Of Israel:

The Hope of Israel Philip Mauro,1960 The Hope of Israel Menasseh Ben-Israel,1987-09-01 When The Hope of Israel was translated into English in 1652 its argument from Scripture that messianic redemption would not come to the Jewish people until they were scattered in all the corners of the Earth aroused great interest and played an instrumental part in the discussions in the Commonwealth under Cromwell which eventually led to the readmission of the Jews in 1656 This edition of that English text includes an introduction and notes which place the work in the intellectual context of its time The Hope of Israel: Or The Testimony of Scripture to the National Restoration and Conversion of the Jews ... John Conyngham M'Causland (M.A.),1860 The Hope of Israel Francis Henry Woods,1896 The Hope of Israel Manasseh ben Israel,Moses Wall,1652 The Hope of Israel Brandon D. Crowe,2020-02-18 This volume highlights the sustained focus in Acts on the resurrection of Christ bringing clarity to the theology of Acts and its purpose Brandon Crowe explores the historical theological and canonical implications of Jesus s resurrection in early Christianity and helps readers more clearly understand the purpose of Acts in the context of the New Testament canon He also shows how the resurrection is the fulfillment of the Old Testament Scriptures This is the first major book length study on the theological significance of Jesus s resurrection in Acts The Hope of Israel; What Is It?: Old Testament Prophecies Concerning Zionism and the Jewish State Philip Mauro,2018-07-25 This book contains Philip Mauro s detailed examination of scripture in support of an argument against those who believe that Christ s promises are not yet fulfilled and have yet to come The Hope of Israel gains its title from the fact that many dispensationalist Christians believe that some future event or fulfillment of Biblical lore will occur within Israel Seeking to prove such assertions false and wrongheaded Mauro proceeds to methodically and carefully cite passages within the Old and New Testaments which specifically concern the land of Israel Prophecies such as Ezekiel and the warnings of God to humankind through Moses receive much discussion The New Testament figure Paul s interpretation of the Old Testament prophecies on Israel are also cited in support of Mauro s hypothesis which asserts notions of a nation of Israel being a fulfillment of Old Testament lore are ill founded The Hope of Israel Manasseh ben Israel,Moses Wall,1652 The Hope of Israel and Creation Thomas Blackburn Baines, Everybody is aware of the difference prevailing among the Lord s people as to the interpretation of those passages of Scripture which foretell the future in reserve for the Church and the world The ordinary interpretation is that the promises contained in the Psalms and Old Testament prophecies refer to the Church which as the spiritual Israel has taken the place in God s purposes of the literal Israel to whom these promises were given So the fulfillment of the promises is taken to be spiritual rather than literal being brought about by the gradual spread of Christianity and the blessings of peace and prosperity following the universal triumph of the gospel This world wide dominion of truth and happiness is presumed to be the period of a thousand years during which Satan is bound and the saints reign with Christ It is supposed that at the close of this time after another brief outbreak of

Satan's craft and human wickedness the world is destroyed and that there is then a general resurrection of the dead both bad and good to be judged before the great white throne This is interpreted as the event called the coming of the Lord the appearing of the Lord the day of the Lord the end of the age mis translated world and the coming of the Son of man names supposed all to refer to the same period the closing up of the history and indeed of the existence of the habitable globe There is however another interpretation given to the Scriptures describing these events which may be briefly stated as follows The Old Testament prophecies except where manifestly figurative are to receive a literal fulfilment The promises given to Israel are to be made good to Israel not to the Church The Old Testament prophecies being thus taken from the Church the New Testament is found to contain no prediction of the universal spread of Christianity but on the contrary sad forecasts of corruption leading to judgment in the body professing the name of Christ In the midst of this gloom however the prospect of the Lord's coming for His saints shines as a bright hope for the hearts of the faithful This coming the date of which is purposely left undetermined instead of being at the end of the world is preliminary to the judgments awaiting the world and to the reign of Christ with His saints When it occurs the living saints will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air and at the same time will take place in part at least the first resurrection when the dead in Christ will be raised Then follow the woes which usher in the day of the Lord when Israel is restored Old Testament prophecy fulfilled Satan bound and the dominion of Christ established on the earth At its close Satan is loosed the nations rebel the world is consumed and the rest of the dead are raised and judged I propose to inquire which of these interpretations is correct The question is not one of mere curiosity still less an intrusion into regions we are forbidden to tread The distinction which our Lord draws between the servant and the friend is that the servant knoweth not what his Lord doeth while He told His disciples as friends all things that He had heard of His Father John 15 15 In the same discourse He promises to send the Spirit of truth the Comforter to show them things to come John 16 13 Indeed the very thought that the constant references to the future scattered through the sacred writings are not meant to be understood carries its own refutation And as if foreseeing the spirit of unbelief and indifference which characterises the present time the Holy Ghost has in the introduction to the Apocalypse the most distinctively prophetic portion of the New Testament pronounced a special blessing on those that hear the words of this prophecy and keep those things which are written therein Rev 1 3 While moreover it is admitted that the interpretation of prophecy may be attempted in a frivolously inquisitive spirit are not those who turn a deaf ear to its promises and warnings themselves guilty of the same irreverence which they censure in others For the object of prophecy is to unfold God's purposes with respect to the glory of His Son whom man has refused but whom God has exalted and to whom every knee shall bow and every tongue confess In the contemplation of this theme He invites His chosen ones to share And who are these chosen ones Are they mere lookers on No thanks be to God we who believe in Jesus are His fellow heirs all things are ours God invites us to look at the inheritance He has Himself prepared for us in joint possession with the Son of His love And surely as in the enjoyment of that inheritance the first born in whom we have our acceptance will be the one object of our worship and delight so in its contemplation now our brightest thought should be that we are gazing on the portion prepared for Him who alone is worthy to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honour and glory and blessing To study prophecy with any more trivial object is to lose sight of this glorious end It is like studying the movements of the solar system from the orbits of the more distant planets without taking account of the central globe round which the whole revolves But on the other hand to neglect it as unprofitable because it does not contribute to our personal salvation is a piece of selfishness derogatory to the claims of Christ and unworthy of the condescending goodness of God in thus taking us into His own counsels It is a deliberate preference of the position of a servant to that of a friend a declaration that so long as our own interests are secured we are indifferent as to what God has told us concerning the glories of Him who loved us and gave himself for us Nor can we overlook the great practical importance of the inquiry For surely there is a vast moral chasm between the two interpretations of coming events just indicated If God's Word teaches that Christianity instead of overspreading the world will only prove like Judaism the incurable enmity of man to God the jubilant and self congratulatory tone prevalent in Christendom is nothing better than Laodicean self complacency saying I am rich and increased with goods and have need of nothing while really it should be mourning that it is wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked Rev 3 17 It is holding out a false and delusive hope saying peace and safety when sudden destruction is approaching And if the world is hurrying on to judgment Christians who see it will duly estimate the seductive cry of modern progress and beware of entangling themselves in affairs over which such a doom is howling While therefore the deep solemnity of the subject forbids all idle curiosity its importance equally condemns all selfish indifference These things are written for our instruction and it cannot be a matter of little moment whether the instruction which God has given is received or slighted understood or misapprehended Reverence for God's Holy Word regard for the honour and glory of Christ as well as the immense practical questions involved in the different schemes of interpretation all unite in rebuking both the curious spirit in which the subject is too often approached and the careless spirit in which it is too often avoided For the sake of clearness the best mode of looking at the subject will be to inquire First What is the immediate prospect placed before the believer in other words What is the hope of the Church according to the Word of God This will naturally lead us to look Secondly At the promises of blessing and righteousness upon earth contained in the Old Testament Scriptures and the mode in which these promises are to receive their fulfilment Having thus distinguished between the hope of the Church and the prospect of blessing before the world we shall be in a better position to ascertain and understand Thirdly The teaching of the Holy Ghost concerning the position held by the Church in God's dispensational dealings and the moral relationship in which it stands towards the world a matter involving the deepest and most practical lessons us to the walk suited to believers in the present age

The Hope of Israel; What Is It? Philip Mauro, 2018-07-25

This book contains Philip Mauro's detailed examination of scripture in support of an argument against those who believe that Christ's promises are not yet fulfilled and have yet to come. The Hope of Israel gains its title from the fact that many dispensationalist Christians believe that some future event or fulfilment of Biblical lore will occur within Israel. Seeking to prove such assertions false and wrongheaded, Mauro proceeds to methodically and carefully cite passages within the Old and New Testaments which specifically concern the land of Israel. Prophecies such as Ezekiel and the warnings of God to humankind through Moses receive much discussion. The New Testament figure Paul's interpretation of the Old Testament prophecies on Israel are also cited in support of Mauro's hypothesis which asserts notions of a nation of Israel being a fulfilment of Old Testament lore are ill founded.
