The Nazi Ghost Train Drac Von Stoller, It was 1944 and it wouldn t be long before World War II was over and the Germans would be defeated by the United States and the help of other allies War is hell and the haunting memory of the atrocities that went on with innocent people in the concentration camps would go unpunished for many SS Nazi soldiers But some of that would not be the case when they boarded a train and headed back to their homes to their families There was laughter smoking and plenty of beer to celebrate even though they lost the war These soldiers were just glad it was over and ready to put this horrid memory behind them all and lead healthy life with their families when they got back home As for this bloodthirsty cold as ice SS soldiers this train ride was bound for hell Somehow ten minutes into the trip the engineer suffered a massive heart attack and didn t have time to slow the train down to a complete stop So the train was running full speed ahead on a course for self destruction None of the soldiers had a clue that moments later they would all be dead The soldiers were too absorbed in the moment of laughter and drunkenness to notice that something went wrong If the engineer were still alive he would have slowed the train down Then quickly made the turn around the curve but since he isn't the train jumped the track and all the rail cars broke apart sending all the SS Nazi soldiers to their deaths When the train never arrived at the train station the families of the soldiers knew something was wrong and notified the police to investigate immediately

Chapter 1 The Descent into Madness The fluorescent lights in Laboratory 7 flickered with an ominous hum as Dr Marcus Frances stared at the rejection letter with trembling hands The paper was crisp clinical just like the words that shattered his life's work into a thousand pieces We regret to inform you that your submission for the Pulitzer Prize in Scientific Achievement has been declined The letter crumpled in his white knuckled fist as a low growl escaped his throat Twenty years Twenty years of sleepless nights failed experiments and social isolation all for nothing The cure for the Marburg Ebola hybrid virus his masterpiece was dismissed as incomplete research by a panel of bureaucrats who wouldn't know groundbreaking science if it bit them in their pompous faces The laboratory around him seemed to pulse with malevolent energy Glass beakers caught the dying light casting twisted shadows across the walls lined with specimen jars Inside those jars suspended in formaldehyde were the remnants of his early test subjects rats then rabbits then other things Things that shouldn't have survived as long as they did Frances stumbled toward the locked cabinet where he kept his most dangerous creations His reflection in the steel surface was gaunt hollow eyed a man consumed by obsession If the world wouldn't recognize his genius then perhaps it was time to show them what true power looked like With shaking hands he withdrew two syringes filled with viscous dark liquid The Necro Pathogen as he'd privately named it was a weaponized combination of the Marburg and Ebola viruses genetically modified to attack the nervous system while keeping the host ambulatory The second syringe contained his enhancement serum a cocktail of stimulants and neural inhibitors designed to suppress higher brain function while amplifying aggressive instincts If I can't be celebrated as a savior he whispered to his reflection then I'll be remembered as a god of destruction The first injection burned like liquid fire as it entered his bloodstream The second followed and immediately his vision began to blur His heartbeat thundered in his ears a drum of war announcing the beginning of the end
