"Twice the Thrills! Twice the Chills!" Bryan Senn, 2019-03-19 In the mid 1950s to combat declining theater attendance film distributors began releasing pre packaged genre double bills including many horror and science fiction double features Though many of these films were low budget and low end others such as Invasion of the Body Snatchers Horror of Dracula and The Fly became bona fide classics Beginning with Universal International's 1955 pairing of Revenge of the Creature and Cult of the Cobra 147 officially sanctioned horror and sci fi double bills were released over a 20 year period This book presents these double features year by year and includes production details historical notes and critical commentary for each film

A Year of Fear Bryan Senn, 2015-03-26 This eclectic overview of horror cinema offers up a collection of horror films for practically any occasion and literally every day of the year For example the author recommends commemorating United Nations Day October 24 with a screening of The Colossus of New York whose startling climax takes place at the U N Building Each day by day entry includes the movie title production year plot summary and critique along with a brief explanation of how the film fits into the history of that particular day and interesting anecdotes on the film's production Hosted Horror on Television Bruce Markusen, 2021-07-27 In October 1957 Screen Gems made numerous horror movies available to local television stations around the country as part of a package of films called Shock Theater. These movies became a huge sensation with TV viewers as did the horror hosts who introduced the films and offered insight, often humorous, into the plots, the actors, and the directors. This history of hosted horror walks readers through the best TV horror films beginning with the 1930s black and white classics from Universal Studios and ending with the grislier color films of the early 1970s. It also covers and explores the horror hosts who presented them, some of whom faded into obscurity while others became iconic within the genre.

Horror Films FAQ John Kenneth Muir, 2013-08-01 Horror Films FAQ explores a century of ghoulish and grand horror cinema, gazing at the different characters, situations, settings, and themes featured in the horror film, from final girls, monstrous bogeymen, giant monsters, and vampires to the recent torture porn and found footage formats. The book remembers the J Horror remake trend of the 2000s and examines the oft-repeated slasher format popularized by John Carpenter's Halloween (1978) and Friday the 13th (1980). After an introduction positioning the horror film as an important and moral voice in the national dialogue, the book explores the history of horror decade by decade, remembering the women's liberation horrors of the 1970s, the rubber reality films of the late 1980s, the serial killers of the 1990s, and the xenophobic terrors of the 9/11 age. Horror Films FAQ also asks what it means when animals attack in such films as The Birds (1963) or Jaws (1975) and considers the moral underpinnings of rape and revenge movies such as I Spit on Your Grave (1978) and Irreversible (2002). The book features numerous photographs from the author's extensive personal archive and also catalogs the genre's most prominent directors.
