

The background of the book cover is a photograph showing a person's silhouette standing in a wooded area. The person is positioned in the lower-left center, looking towards a bright, circular light source (likely the sun or moon) that is partially obscured by the branches of a tree. The scene is bathed in a soft, golden light, creating a contemplative and serene atmosphere. The trees are dark and their branches are silhouetted against the lighter sky.

by St Augustine's Confessions but with a focus on distinctively modern and post modern transformations of the self writing genre The twentieth century context of religious alienation social autonomy identity crises and politics and the search for social justice is examined in each text Journeys Into Emptiness Robert Jingen Gunn,2000 Journeys into Emptiness traces the lives of three famous religious seekers and their quests for personal transcendence Dogen a thirteenth century Japanese Zen master experienced emptiness in wordless meditation the practice of zazen that spread in time from the Eastern world to the West Thomas Merton was a twentieth century Catholic monk whose experience of personal homelessness brought him to explore the tension that lies between solitude and community Carl Jung raised by a pious father and a psychologically unbalanced mother was driven to understand the structure of the psyche including the male and female elements that exist in every human person Robert Jingen Guinn provides wise and compassionate portraits of these emblematic figures Each of them in his own way had to experience emptiness going beyond consciousness to discover his own personal truth whether that was rooted in Buddha nature God or the unconscious This going beyond became a path to encountering their own unique selves and a deeper sense of life BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Rhetoric, Religion and the Civil Rights Movement, 1954-1965 Davis W. Houck,David E. Dixon,2006 V 2 Building upon their critically acclaimed first volume Davis W Houck and David E Dixon's new Rhetoric Religion and the Civil Rights Movement 1954 1965 is a recovery project of enormous proportions Houck and Dixon have again combed church archives government documents university libraries and private collections in pursuit of the civil rights movement's long buried eloquence Their new work presents fifty new speeches and sermons delivered by both famed leaders and little known civil rights activists on national stages and in quiet shacks The speeches carry novel insights into the ways in which individuals and communities utilized religious rhetoric to upset the racial status quo in divided America during the civil rights era Houck and Dixon's work illustrates again how a movement so prominent in historical scholarship still has much to teach us Publisher A New Handbook of Christian Theologians Donald W. Musser,1996 In recent years the flow of Christian theology has been channeled in diverse streams represented by such trends and movements as black theology liberation theology feminist theology and womanist theology To survey this abundance and diversity of current Christian theology this book examines the theologies of representative theologians Particularly to help students navigate the sea of information the editors have identified various routes for reading and have traced several threads or issues common to many of the essays thus demarcating such recurrent concerns as the ways in which the theologians consider the sources and goals for theology their variant assumptions and conclusions about the nature of God their divergent approaches to understanding the person and purpose of the Christ and their distinct expectations for the destiny of history and faith Heretic Blood Michael W. Higgins,2016-10-31 Thirty years after his death we are finally catching up to Thomas Merton as one of the greatest spiritual figures of the twentieth century The genius and spirituality of this unusual man could not be contained in his life as a monk but spilled over richly into his life and work as a poet critic rebel sage and even artist and photographer Merton was aware that he had heretic blood within him and it soon became apparent to the world The balding French English intellectual living as a Trappist monk at Our Lady of Gethsemani Abbey in Kentucky took a vow of silence yet corresponded with and befriended such luminaries as Joan Baez Jacques Maritain John Howard Griffin Martin Luther King Jr Erich Fromm and Boris Pasternak His famous autobiography The Seven Storey Mountain captured the imagination of a generation selling more than six hundred thousand copies in its first year Merton also took a vow of obedience yet feuded constantly with his second abbot As a monk he promised to remain celibate yet he found himself passionately in love with a nurse he met while in hospital in Louisville Kentucky And at the end of his life Merton a monk within the western Roman Catholic tradition was moving closer and closer to Eastern spirituality This brilliant new book is the first to use recently released diary entries and correspondence by Merton and includes new insights about the recently published diary of his episode of the heart Higgins compares Merton with William Blake the monk's intellectual and spiritual hero and comes to startling conclusions about the emotional and intellectual passions that drove Thomas Merton a man and thinker for all seasons Explorations in Spirituality Philip Sheldrake, 2010 A distinctive exposition of the main elements of the study of Christian spirituality that also underlines the essentially socially transformative nature of the Christian spiritual tradition Between the 'Mysticism of Politics' and the 'Politics of Mysticism' David Ranson, 2013-08-31 Between the Politics of Mysticism and the Mysticism of Politics traces the dialectic of the mystical and the political from both a theological and an historical perspective It presents the dialectic as a hermeneutic for the rise of the new ecclesial communities within the Roman Catholic Tradition and suggests it as the framework by which a trajectory for Christian holiness might emerge in the 21st century The Desiring Self Walter E. Conn, 1998 This volume explores the two movements in the journey to transcendence The first is the drive to be an integrated and powerful self The second is to leave that behind and move beyond the self into relationship The two movements are inextricably joined separation and attachment autonomy and relationship Humans are pulled simultaneously by the urge to be and to be for The Desiring Self is an explanation and a practical guide to the process of self transcendence Using case studies as well as insights from psychology and theology it takes readers through the steps of understanding themselves as incarnate integrated and yet transcendent beings bent on discovering their true selves as known by God It is a book to be read and relished by pastoral counselors spiritual directors readers exploring the confluence of psychology and religion and all persons on the journey of self transcendence BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved American Religious Leaders Timothy L. Conn, 2006-07-01 Walter Conn has provided us with something we have needed for a long time a scholarly study of Christian conversion that draws synthetically from present day psychology philosophy and theology and uses these insights to analyze actual Christian religious experience And in doing that Conn has produced what is probably the best treatment to date of foundational moral theology To follow Conn through the pages of this volume is to become acquainted with most of today's important reflection on human moral and personal development But one emerges with much more than relevant information about what is being said Conn's own view of conversion goes beyond the thinkers from whom he draws and provides a basic challenge to and enrichment of our understanding of faith and morality Bernard Cooke Holy Cross College Walter E Conn is Professor of Theology and Religious Studies at Villanova University He is also the editor of Horizons journal of the College Theology Society

No Abiding Place Fred

Herron, 2005-02-17 Thomas Merton played a critical role in facilitating and embodying a revolutionary paradigm shift in Catholic life and thought His public grappling with the issues raised by this shift in the life of the Catholic Church provided a vocabulary with which a generation of seekers has attempted to frame an on going discussion regarding the future of the Catholic Church Consequently Merton's life and thought continue to be guideposts for spiritual pilgrims confronting issues of authority in the church a changing moral landscape and the contemporary crisis in the Catholic Church Part One of the book describes this profound paradigm shift and locates Merton's developing thought within that landscape It places Merton's thought within the larger framework of the Catholic imagination as described by David Tracy Andrew Greeley and Thomas Groome The landmark research of Robert Wuthnow of Princeton University concerning the nature of contemporary spiritual seeking provides a framework that helps to identify Merton's continuing relevance for the study of spirituality Parts Two and Three discuss Merton's lasting importance for contemporary spirituality Mysticism, Death and Dying Christopher

Nugent, 1994-01-01 This book charts the borderline between the nocturnal side of mysticism and the luminous side of death and it illuminates their paradoxical affinities Within a culture of both denial and despair it affirms the reality but not the finality of death If what the generations have called the mystery of death is the last enemy a still more mysterious mysticism would anticipate illuminate and disarm it issuing in what eyes have not seen ears have not heard This work is contemporary in that it represents a creative and original appropriation of tradition is spiritually more mystical than devotional and is ecumenically conversant with and sensitive to the great religious traditions Transforming Renewal Andy Lord, 2015-10-29

Pentecostal and charismatic renewal movements have seen great growth over the last century and have engaged with many Christian traditions Yet there are signs that all is not well and there is a need to develop theologies of renewal that engage with practice and across the traditions if the movements are to continue to grow In particular this book seeks an ecumenical engagement between David Watson and Thomas Merton leaders in the charismatic and monastic renewal movements The aim is to reflect on the theological roots of these renewal movements through a study of particular people who lived them in practice and sought to help others understand how the triune God was at work This is done against the wider background of contemporary renewalist theology to develop constructive proposals for renewal theology in the future Receptive ecumenism provides the method for bringing the different voices into conversation in ways that also point forward in approaches to ecumenical dialogue It is thus a studyrelevant to those seeking new ways in theology those involved in renewal and ecumenical movements students of Thomas Merton and all who seek to better understand the Christian renewal movements that have swept the world
