Anthropological Perspectives on Education in Nepal Karen Valentin,Uma Pradhan,2023 This volume illuminates educational transformations and avenues of learning in the context of wider social and political changes in Nepal

Anthropological Perspectives On Kinship Ladislav Holy,1996-10-20 This authoritative introductory text takes into account the changes in the conceptualisation of kinship brought about by new reproductive technologies and the growing interest in culturally specific notions of personhood and gender Holy considers the extent to which Western assumptions have guided anthropological study of kinship in the past In the process he reveals a growing sensitivity on the part of anthropologists to individual ideas of personhood and gender and encourages further critical reflection on cultural bias in approaches to the subject Ecology and Man in the Himalayas A. K. Kapoor,Satwanti Kapoor,1994 The present volume emphasizes the importance of studying the structure and functioning of ecological systems and their mode of reaction on exposure to human intervention in the Himalayas It stresses the impact of man on his environment and vice versa considered in the areas of biological and adaptive entity as well as a social cultural and economic being

Contours of South Asian Social Anthropology Swatahsiddha Sarkar,2022-04-28 This book presents a conceptual and methodological framework to understand South Asia by engaging with the practices of sociology and social anthropology in India and Nepal. It provides a new imagination of South Asia by connecting historical political religious and cultural divides of the region. Drawing from the experiences of Indian and Nepali social anthropology, the book discusses the presence of Nepal studies in Indian social anthropology and vice versa. It highlights Nepal or South Asia as a subject for social anthropological research and stresses on pluriversal knowledge production through regional scholarship dialogic social anthropology. South Asian episteme post Western social anthropology and the decolonisation of disciplines. In exploring the themes and problems of doing social anthropology in Nepal by Indian scholars, the book assesses the scope of developing the South Asian social anthropological worldview. It explains why social anthropological and sociological inquiry in India has failed to surpass its focus beyond the territorial limits of the nation state. The book examines the issues of methodological nationalism and social anthropological research tradition in South Asia. By using the Saidian framework of travelling theory and Bhambra's idea of connected sociologies, it shows how social anthropology can develop disciplinary crossroads within South Asia. This book will be of interest to students, teachers and researchers of South Asian studies, anthropology, sociology, social anthropology, South Asian sociology, cultural anthropology, social psychology, area studies, cultural studies, Nepal studies and Global South studies.

Section C: Tribal Media and Market. Discovering the

Himalaya Sharad Singh Negi, 1998. HIMALAYA NATURE Indus. An Anthropology of Indirect Communication Joy Hendry, C.W. Watson, 2003-12-16. Sometimes we convey what we mean not by what we say but by what we do. This type of indirect communication is sometimes called indirection. From patent miscommunication through potent ambiguity to pregnant silence, this incisive collection examines from a rare anthropological perspective the many aspects of indirect communication. From a Mormon Theme Park to carnival time on Montserrat, the contributors analyse indirection by illustrating how food, silence, sunglasses, martial arts and rudeness can constitute powerful ways of conveying meaning. An Anthropology of Indirect Communication is an engaging text which provides a challenging introduction to this subject.

Bio-anthropology of High Altitude People Rikshesh Malhotra, 1989. Special reference to Himalaya Mountains Region.

Encounters with the Invisible Marie Lecomte-Tilouine, Anne de Sales, 2024-06-28. This volume considers spirit possession in the Himalayas and the various ways in which invisible powers are made present. It does so by examining material representations of these powers through artefacts, animals, plants and natural substances while also focusing on narratives of people's encounters with the invisible that may help them to reconfigure reality Through these two approaches the contributions examine new phenomena associated with the concepts of possession and shamanism which otherwise tend to lead research into well worn furrows The book addresses a range of themes including the gods of the Western Himalayas death and ritual dissolution among Hyolmo Buddhists in Nepal gods and rivers as legal persons in India and the problem of conversion disorder in Nepal Rich in ethnography this book will be indispensable for scholars and researchers of anthropology religion spiritualism sociology of religion Himalayan studies sociology and South Asia Environmental Change and Development in Ladakh, Indian Trans-Himalaya Blaise Humbert-Droz,Juliane Dame,Tashi

Morup,2024-01-01 The Trans Himalayan region of Ladakh has witnessed important changes linked to its geo strategic importance the rapid development of means of communication with other parts of India socio economic transformation processes and the effects of climate change The sixteen chapters document these key changes ranging from melting glaciers and extreme weather events to the exponential increase in infrastructure tourist and military activities The book examines the impact these changes are having on the environment and on the socio economics and identity of Ladakhi communities The book also attempts to evaluate the likely direction of future changes identify some of the main environmental challenges faced by Ladakh in the 21st century and provide perspectives for sustainable development of the high mountain region

Wouters,Michael T. Heneise,2022-08-09 The Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia is the first comprehensive and critical overview of the ethnographic and anthropological work in Highland Asia over the past half a century Opening up a grand new space for critical engagement the handbook presents Highland Asia as a world region that cuts across the traditional divides inherited from colonial and Cold War area divisions the Indian Subcontinent South Asia Southeast Asia China East Asia and Central Asia Thirty two chapters assess the history of research identify ethnographic trends and evaluate a range of analytical themes that developed in particular settings of Highland Asia They cover varied landscapes and communities from Kyrgyzstan to India from Bhutan to Vietnam and bring local voices and narratives relating trade and tribute ritual and resistance pilgrimage and prophecy modernity and marginalization capital and cosmos to the fore The handbook shows that for millennia Highland Asians have connected far flung regions through movements of peoples goods and ideas and at all times have been the enactors repositories and mediators of world historical processes Taken together the contributors and chapters subvert dominant lowland narratives by privileging primarily highland vantages that reveal Highland Asia as an ecumene and prism that refracts and generates global history social theory and human imagination In the currently unfolding Asian Century this compels us to reorient and re envision Highland Asia in ethnography in theory and in the connections between this world region made of hills highlands and mountains and a planetary context The handbook reveals both regional commonalities and diversities generalities and specificities and a broad orientation to key themes in the region An indispensable reference work this handbook fills a significant gap in the literature and will be of interest to academics researchers and students interested in Highland Asia Zomia Studies Anthropology Comparative Politics Conceptual History and Sociology Southeast Asian Studies Central Asian Studies and South Asian Studies as well as Asian Studies in general

Democratisation in the Himalayas Vibha Arora,N. Jayaram,2017-02-03 Democratisation is a formidable task in the Himalayan region owing to its immense cultural heterogeneity The process of democratisation has accentuated ethnic competition assertion of identity and demand for ethnic homelands to protect safeguard and promote political and development interests of various groups This volume discusses competing interests identity politics that permeates political formations the transformations in the traditional forms of governance and their adaption to democratic institutions the genesis and periodic eruptions of ethnic assertions and attempts to resolve ethnic conflict It shows how recent efforts at deepening democratic values and implementing social justice have been resisted and contested The book argues that the play of ethnicity the creation of political parties and interest groups the emergence of social movements and the voice of protest and opposition do not indicate a crisis in democracy but comprise the instruments by which the state is pushed towards reform welfare and inclusive politics and is obliged to listen to the people Rich in ethnographic research this volume will be useful to scholars and researchers of social and political anthropology political studies South Asian studies Nepal and Himalayan studies sociology and development studies

Proceedings of the Tenth Seminar of the IATS, 2003. Volume 12: Buddhism Beyond the Monastery ,2009-09-30 Monasteries have been the locus classicus of the academic investigation of Tibetan religions This volume seeks to balance this emphasis with an exploration of the diverse religious specialists who operate outside of the monastery in Tibet and along the Himalayan belt The articles collected here depict Tantric professionals visionaries village lamas spirit mediums and female religious leaders whose loyalties reside in the noncelibate sphere but whose activities have had a significant impact on Tibetan religion Using methodologies drawn from anthropological and textual scholarship these seven essays bolster our understanding of religious practices and their performers beyond the monasteries of Central and Eastern Tibet Bhutan and India from historical times to the present day

From Triads to Pentads Robert Parkin,2025-03-01 N J Nick Allen had an extensive academic career which for the most part was spent in Oxford He passed away in 2020 This edited volume brings together a selection of his anthropological papers They cover two major fields and a supplementary one Indo European mythical comparison and his own notion of tetradic kinship supplemented by a long term interest in the work of Marcel Mauss and his uncle mile Durkheim It follows key areas of his research in which his contributions were novel innovative stimulating and plausible
