The Holocaust And Catholic Conscience:

The Holocaust and Catholic Conscience Suzanne Brown-Fleming, 1994-02-16 American born Cardinal Aloisius Muench 1889 1962 was a key figure in German and German American Catholic responses to the Holocaust Jews and Judaism between 1946 and 1959 He was arguably the most powerful American Catholic figure and an influential Vatican representative in occupied Germany and in West Germany after the war In this carefully researched book which draws on Muench's collected papers Suzanne Brown Fleming offers the first assessment of Muench's legacy and provides a rare glimpse into his commentary on Nazism the Holocaust and surviving Jews She argues that Muench legitimized the Catholic Church's failure during this period to confront the nature of its own complicity in Nazism's anti Jewish ideology The archival evidence demonstrates that Muench viewed Jews as harmful in a number of very specific ways He regarded German Jews who had immigrated to the United States as aliens he believed Jews to be in control of American policy making in Germany he feared Jews as avengers who wished to harm victimized Germans and he believed Jews to be excessively involved in leftist activities Muench's standing and influence in the United States Germany and the Vatican hierarchies gave sanction to the idea that German Catholics needed no examination of conscience in regard to the Church's actions or inactions during the 1940s and 1950s This fascinating story of Muench's role in German Catholic consideration and ultimate rejection of guilt and responsibility for Nazism in general and the persecution of European Jews in particular will be an important addition to scholarship on the Holocaust and to church history

Vari,2025-01-16T18:05:00+01:00 As a result of the cooperation between the Holy See and Washington in the containment of Communism and the work of charity and assistance at the end of World War II several priests and bishops from the United States assumed quite significant roles in papal diplomacy These included Msgr Walter S Carroll in the Vatican Secretariat of State 1940 1950 Msgr Aloisius Joseph Muench in Germany 1946 1959 Msgr Joseph Patrick Hurley in Yugoslavia 1945 1950 and Rev Edward J Killion in Geneva 1947 1953 This book examines the activity of these actors during the years of Pius XII s pontificate The contributors include historians who have previously addressed the general aspects of the Holy See s diplomatic strategy as well as archivists familiar with Vatican documents relating to Pius XII s pontificate The Global Pontificate of Pius XII Simon Unger-Alvi,Nina Valbousquet,2024-08-01 In 2020 the Vatican opened its archives for the pontificate of Pius XII 1939 1958 the pope that led the Catholic Church during WWII the Holocaust and the beginning of the Cold War The Global Pontificate of Pius XII brings together historians who were among the first to consult the previously unseen Vatican materials These long awaited records allow for an expansion of the current historiography beyond the pope s biography Methodologically the volume works to transcend the rigidity of religious history and engage with new approaches in global transnational and postcolonial history to re introduce questions surrounding religion into modern post war historiography Modernism and Theology Joanna Rzepa,2021-03-16 This is the first book length study to examine the interface between literary and theological modernisms It provides a comprehensive account of literary responses to the modernist crisis in Christian theology from a transnational and interdenominational perspective It offers a cultural history of the period considering a wide range of literary and historical sources including novels drama poetry literary criticism encyclicals theological and philosophical treatises periodical publications and wartime propaganda By contextualising literary modernism within the cultural religious and political landscape the book reveals fundamental yet largely forgotten connections between literary and theological modernisms It shows that early twentieth century authors poets and critics including Rainer Maria Rilke T S Eliot and Czes aw Mi osz actively engaged with the debates between modernist and neo scholastic theologians raging across Europe These debates contributed to developing new ways of thinking about the relationship between religion and literature and informed contemporary critical writings on aesthetics and poetics The Papacy in the Age of Totalitarianism, 1914-1958 John Pollard,2014-10-30 The Papacy in the Age of Totalitarianism 1914 1958 examines the most momentous years in papal history Popes Benedict XV 1914 1922 Pius XI 1922 1939 and Pius XII 1939 1958 faced the challenges of two world wars and the Cold War and threats posed by totalitarian dictatorships like Italian Fascism German National Socialism and Communism in Russia and China The wars imposed enormous strains upon the unity of Catholics and the hostility of the totalitarian regimes to Catholicism lead to the Church facing persecution and martyrdom on a scale similar to that experienced under the Roman Empire and following the French Revolution At the same time these were years of growth development and success for the papacy Benedict healed the wounds left by the modernist witch hunt of his predecessor and re established the papacy as an influence in international affairs through his peace diplomacy during the First World War Pius XI resolved the Roman Question with Italy and put papal finances on a sounder footing He also helped reconcile the Catholic Church and science by establishing the Pontifical Academy of Sciences and took the first steps to move the Church away from entrenched anti-Semitism Pius XI continued his predecessor's policy of the indigenisation of the missionary churches in preparation for decolonisation Pius XII fully embraced the media and other means of publicity and with his infallible promulgation of the Assumption in 1950 he took papal absolutism and centralism to such heights that he has been called the last real pope Ironically he also prepared the way for the Second Vatican Council

Engaging the Doctrine of Israel Matthew Levering, 2021-09-16 This book is the dogmatic sequel to Levering's Engaging the Doctrine of Marriage in which he argued that God's purpose in creating the cosmos is the eschatological marriage of God and his people God sets this marriage into motion through his covenantal election of a particular people the people of Israel Central to this people's relationship with the Creator God are their Scriptures exodus Torah Temple land and Davidic kingship As a Christian Israelology this book devotes a chapter to each of these topics investigating their theological significance both in light of ongoing Judaism and in light of Christian Scripture Old and New Testaments and Christian theology The book makes a significant contribution to charting a path forward for Jewish Christian dialogue from the perspective of post-Vatican II Catholicism

The Origins of Christian Democracy Maria Mitchell, 2012-10-04 A pioneering exploration of the origins of German Christian Democracy in the context of 19th and 20th century politics and religion

The Crime of My Very Existence Michael Berkowitz, 2007 Christian Human Rights Samuel Moyn, 2015-09-04 In Christian Human Rights Samuel Moyn asserts that the rise of human rights after World War II was prefigured and inspired by a defense of the dignity of the human person that first arose in Christian churches and religious thought in the years just prior to the outbreak of the war The Roman Catholic Church and transatlantic Protestant circles dominated the public discussion of the new principles in what became the last European golden age for the Christian faith At the same time West European governments after World War II particularly in the ascendant Christian Democratic parties became more tolerant of public expressions of religious piety Human rights rose to public prominence in the space opened up by these dual developments of the early Cold War Moyn argues that human dignity became central to Christian political discourse as early as 1937 Pius XII's wartime Christmas addresses announced the basic idea of universal human rights as a principle of world and not merely state order By focusing on the 1930s and 1940s Moyn demonstrates how the language of human rights was separated from the secular heritage of the French Revolution and put to use by postwar democracies governed by Christian parties which reinvented them to impose moral constraints on individuals support conservative family structures and preserve existing social hierarchies The book ends with a provocative chapter that traces contemporary European struggles to assimilate Muslim immigrants to the continent's legacy of Christian human rights

Constantine's Sword James

Carroll, 2002-04-01 The monumental New York Times bestseller in which a Catholic explores the problem of anti-Semitism through Church history The Washington Post A Los Angeles Times Best Book of the Year and a New York Times Notable Book In this masterly history Time National Book Award winning author James Carroll maps the profoundly troubling two thousand year course of the Church's battle against Judaism and faces the crisis of faith it has provoked in his own life as a Catholic More than a chronicle of religion this dark history is the central tragedy of Western civilization its fault lines reaching deep into our culture The Church's failure to protest the Holocaust the infamous silence of Pius XII is only part of the story the death camps Carroll shows are the culmination of a long entrenched tradition of anti-Judaism From Gospel accounts of the death of Jesus on the cross to Constantine's transformation of the cross into a sword to the rise of blood libels scapegoating and modern anti-Semitism Carroll reconstructs the dramatic story of the Church's conflict not only with Jews but with itself Yet in tracing the arc of this narrative he implicitly affirms that it did not necessarily have to be so There were roads not taken heroes forgotten new roads can be taken yet Demanding that the Church finally face this past in full Carroll calls for a fundamental rethinking of the deepest questions of Christian faith Only then can Christians Jews and all who carry the burden of this history begin to forge a new future Carroll discusses the history of Christian Jewish relations honestly touchingly and personally Carroll investigates his own prejudices as a believing Christian a former Catholic priest and a long time civil rights activist As he unearths history using all the best sources he also encounters emotions he didn't realize he had and shows how his historical journey was also a personal pilgrimage of faith Booklist A triumph Atlantic Monthly

Saving Abstraction Ryan Dohoney, 2019 In this book author Ryan Dohoney tells the story of the 1972 premier of Morton Feldman's music for the Rothko Chapel in Houston reconstructing the network of artists and patrons who contributed to the premier and documenting the ways that they questioned the emotional translation of art into religious stimulation

Britain and the German Churches, 1945-1950 Peter Howson, 2021 Explores the ways in which the British Religious Affairs Branch aimed to organise religious life in post war Germany Naming Race, Naming Racisms Jonathan Judaken, 2013-09-13 Eschewing social scientific approaches which tend to examine race and racism in terms of quasi static ideal types this book surveys differing historical contexts from the era of scientific racism in the nineteenth century to the post racial racism of the post 9 11 period and from Europe to the United States in order to understand how racism has been articulated in differing situations It is distinguished by the attention it pays to the on going power of racial discourse in the contemporary period as a legitimating factor in oppression It exemplifies methodological openness combining the work of historians philosophers religious scholars and literary critics and includes differing theoretical models in pursuing a critical approach to race cultural studies trauma theory and psychoanalysis critical theory and consideration of the new racism and postcolonialism and the literature on globalization It brings together the work of leading academics with younger practitioners and is capped off by an interview with world renowned intellectual Cornel West on black intellectuals in

America This book was previously published as a special issue of Patterns of Prejudice Jacob's Younger Brother Karma Ben-Johanan, 2022-05-17 At Vatican II the Catholic Church renounced the teaching that Jews had killed Christ and pivoted toward reconciliation Jewish leaders responded in kind Karma Ben Johanan pierces the veil of interfaith dialogue emphasizing rabbinical literature suspicious of the sudden Catholic turn and Catholic theologians struggling to maintain tradition The Betrayal Kim Christian Priemel, 2016 At the end of World War II the Allies faced a threefold challenge how to punish perpetrators of appalling crimes for which the categories of genocide and crimes against humanity had to be coined how to explain that these had been committed by Germany of all nations and how to reform Germans The Allied answer to this conundrum was the application of historical reasoning to legal procedure In the thirteen Nuremberg trials held between 1945 and 1949 and in corresponding cases elsewhere a concerted effort was made to punish key perpetrators while at the same time providing a complex analysis of the Nazi state and German history Building on a long debate about Germany's divergence from a presumed Western path of development Allied prosecutors sketched a historical trajectory which had led Germany to betray the Western model Historical reasoning both accounted for the moral breakdown of a civilised nation and rendered plausible arguments that this had indeed been a collective failure rather than one of a small criminal clique The prosecutors therefore carefully laid out how institutions such as private enterprise academic science the military or bureaucracy which looked ostensibly similar to their opposite numbers in the Allied nations had been corrupted in Germany even before Hitler's rise to power While the argument depending on individual protagonists subject matters and contexts met with uneven success in court it offered a final twist which was of obvious appeal in the Cold War to come if Germany had lost its way it could still be brought back into the Western fold The first comprehensive study of the Nuremberg trials The Betrayal thus also explores how history underpins transitional trials as we encounter them in today's courtrooms from Arusha to The Hague The Truth at the Heart of the Lie James Carroll, 2021-03-23 Courageous and inspiring Karen Armstrong author of The Case for God James Carroll takes us to the heart of one of the great crises of our times Stephen Greenblatt author of The Swerve An eloquent memoir by a former priest and National Book Award winning writer who traces the roots of the Catholic sexual abuse scandal back to the power structure of the Church itself as he explores his own crisis of faith and journey to renewal NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY PUBLISHERS WEEKLY James Carroll weaves together the story of his quest to understand his personal beliefs and his relationship to the Catholic Church with the history of the Church itself From his first awakening of faith as a boy to his gradual disillusionment as a Catholic Carroll offers a razor sharp examination both of himself and of how the Church became an institution that places power and dominance over people through an all male clergy Carroll argues that a male supremacist clericalism is both the root cause and the ongoing enabler of the sexual abuse crisis The power structure of clericalism poses an existential threat to the Church and compromises the ability of even a progressive pope like Pope Francis to advance change in an institution accountable only to itself Carroll traces this dilemma back to the Roman Empire and the Middle Ages when Scripture Jesus Christ and His teachings were reinterpreted as the Church became an empire In a deeply personal re examination of self Carroll grapples with his own feelings of being chosen his experiences as a priest and the moments of doubt that made him leave the priesthood and embark on a long personal journey toward renewal including his tenure as an op ed columnist at The Boston Globe writing about sexual abuse in the Church Ultimately Carroll calls on the Church and all reform minded Catholics to revive the culture from within by embracing anti clerical anti misogynist resistance and staying grounded in the spirit of love that is the essential truth at the heart of Christian belief and Christian life
