The Homecoming Saratcandra Cattoṭpādhyāya, 1989 The story is set in a village in the district of Hooghly in West Bengal near the author's birthplace Devanandapur in the early twentieth century when rural life was dominated by social conventions and caste prejudices It deals with the efforts of Ramesh a young Roorkee trained engineer to bring change in the caste ridden village and to elevate the villagers to a better level of existence It is also the story of two childhood friends whose relationship is doomed as social convention decrees that they must not come close to each other Handbook of Twentieth-Century Literatures of India Nalini Natarajan, 1996-09-09 India has a rich literary assemblage produced by its many different regional traditions religious faiths ethnic subcultures and linguistic groups The published literature of the 20th century is a particularly interesting subject and is the focus of this book as it represents the provocative conjuncture of the transitions of Indian modernity This reference book surveys the major regional literatures of contemporary India in the context of the country's diversity and heterogeneity Chapters are devoted to particular regions and the arrangement of the work invites comparisons of literary traditions Chapters provide extensive bibliographies of primary works thus documenting the creative achievement of numerous contemporary Indian authors Some chapters cite secondary works as well and the volume concludes with a list of general works providing further information An introductory essay overviews theoretical concerns ideological and aesthetic considerations developments in various genres and the history of publishing in regional literatures The introduction provides a context for approaching the chapters that follow each of which is devoted to the literature of a particular region Each chapter begins with a concise introductory section The body of each chapter is structured according to social and historical events literary forms or broad descriptive or analytic trends depending on the particular subject matter Each chapter then closes with an extensive bibliography of primary works thus documenting the rich literary tradition of the region Some chapters also cite secondary sources as an aid to the reader The final chapters of the book address special topics such as sub cultural literatures or the interplay between literature and film A list of additional sources of general information concludes the volume Indian Literary Index, 1989 The Village in Indo-Anglian Fiction Anil Kumar Prasad, 1994 Books in Print Supplement, 1994 International Books in Print, 1997 A Love Song to Our Mongrel Selves Nandini Bhattacharya, 2005 This Book Attempts To Relate Rushdie's Fiction To Larger Theoretical Questions Of Identity And Self Construction In A Post Colonial World It Also Attempts To Rebut Charges Of Reactionary Nihilism Hurlled Against Rushdie And Discover His Writings As Joyful Carnavalesque And Superbly Celebratory Indian Books Today, 1989 Accessions List, South Asia Library of Congress. Library of Congress Office, New Delhi, 1990 Contagion Narratives R. Sreejith Varma, Ajanta Sircar, 2022-12-30 This volume is a collection of ten essays that direct their gaze to the unfolding of contagions in the non classical contexts of Asia and Africa Or to borrow from the title of one of Partha Chatterjee's books they are reflections on the pandemic in most of the world Featuring many scholars of the humanities and social sciences in the Global South these chapters take as their intellectual focus the political social as well as the ethical challenges posed by the contagions in the East Through analyses of literary narratives films video games this Contagion Narratives traces the manufactured narratives of victimization by majority communities and the lethal divides consequently being drawn between a reconstituted authentic majority and the more vulnerable minority other in these societies The essays in this collection are animated by imaginations of liveable alternatives on a planet on the brink This volume traces lineages to Buchi Emecheta and Rabindranath Tagore rather than Albert Camus to Satyajit Ray and the indie traditions rather than Hollywood and to Buddhism rather than Christianity to track the historic journeys of modernity Using an eclectic set of analytical tools and strategies of textual criticism this volume argues that ideas of democracy even while they carry echoes of other societies are markedly different as they travel from Gaddafi s Libya to Wuhan under lockdown to colonial Bengal The Right of Way Pather Dabi,1993 Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007 ,2008-02
