The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik,2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada s flagship genre It continues to attract the country s most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre s beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre s development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany

Queenstown with his partner Sam Glazebrook and together they run their business Lead the Way Talking Animals in Children's Fiction Catherine Elick,2015-03-25 Talking animal tales have conveyed anticruelty messages since the 18th century beginnings of children's literature Yet only in the modern period have animal characters become true subjects rather than objects of human neglect or benevolence Modern fantasies reflect the shift from animal welfare to animal rights in 20th century public discourse This revolution in literary animal human relations began with Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and continued with the work of Kenneth Grahame Hugh Lofting P L Travers and E B White Beginning with the ideas of literary theorist Mikhail Mikhailovich Bakhtin this book examines ways in which animal characters gain an aura of authority through using language and then participate in reversals of power The author provides a close reading of 10 acclaimed British and American children's fantasies or series published before 1975 Authors whose work has received little scholarly attention are also covered including Robert Lawson George Selden and Robert C O'Brien Life Lessons from a Horse Whisperer Lew Sterrett,2012 A champion trainer and true horse whisperer Dr Lew Sterrett has used patience and a firm but gentle hand to earn the trust of more than 3 500 horses Horse Power and Magic George Ewart Evans,2012-03-15 The pioneering oral historian George Ewart Evans began to record the farming ways of East Anglia in the 1950s by listening to old men and women whose memories went back more than fifty or sixty years Many were agricultural labourers born before the turn of the century who had worked on farms before the arrival of mechanisation It was assumed at that time that horses would soon disappear from the farms and that this was the last chance of recording the part they had played for centuries It later became clear that this forecast was too pessimistic and in Horse Power and Magic Faber 1979 Ewart Evans describes in fascinating detail some important farms where horses continued to be beneficially used more than thirty years later He discovered that the traditions of the older horsemen had not died out but had been passed on in only slightly attenuated form to a younger generation keen to farm with horses proving that the day of the heavy horse was by no means over He also describes vividly the ways of horse tamers whose skills had a touch of magic about them Taking his works a whole there is no doubt that George Ewart Evans will survive as a fascinating pioneer of the extra academic recording of human history he has found a dimension all his own This is indeed the very stuff of history Sunday Times

Talking with Horses Colin Dangaard,2019-12-30 She falls in love with Zehun a lieutenant of Attila the Hun while he saves her from savages who want her dead She returns the favor by saving Zehun seconds before he is sliced to pieces by Roman soldiers who have captured him She places seven arrows into seven soldiers in as many seconds shooting left and right with her bow This happens in an action packed fantasy world Emma Armbrust has created as a refuge from her autism In real life Emma's autism enables her to communicate with her jumping horse Tower as people and horses did millions of years before Emma is eighteen years old tall blonde and beautiful She lives in the hills of Malibu California and she falls in love with Jules a troubled young man who is her age and also a social outcast There is just one problem Zehun and Jules look exactly alike They just live two thousand years apart While Emma tries desperately to resolve her love triangle she survives medication to make her normal and then rides Tower to National Grand Prix victory thus saving the family horse ranch from bankruptcy

St. Clare Grondona,1925 Talking Horse Jacalyn Pierce,2022-07-29

Talking Horse How Equus Taught Me the Language of Hope By Jacalyn Pierce Talking Horse is one woman s journey toward finding fortitude in the face of tragedy and how horses inspired her to seek strength and hope over despair In her memoir Jacalyn Pierce details her experience with the death of her friend who bequeathed her two horses and the subsequent loss of her home from a devastating wildfire in Colorado in 2012 With moments of levity Pierce captures the small joys in a world full of loss and destruction With this personal account she provides hope to readers everywhere to find a little bit of light in the darkness

The Inklings and Culture Monika B. Hilder,Sara L. Pearson,Laura N. Van Dyke,2020-11-24 How did five twentieth century British authors C S Lewis J R R Tolkien Charles Williams Owen Barfield and Dorothy L Sayers along with their mentors George MacDonald and G K Chesterton come to contribute more to the intellect and imagination of millions than many of their literary contemporaries put together How do their achievements continue to inform and potentially transform us in the twenty first century In this first collection of its kind addressing the entire famous group of seven authors the twenty seven chapters in The Inklings and Culture explore the legacy of their diverse literary art inspired by the Christian faith art that continues to speak hope into a hurting and deeply divided world

Horse Elaine Walker,2008-12-15 From Pegasus to Black Beauty horses have held a unique place in human society and imagination Elaine Walker tackles the long and multifaceted history of a creature valued for both beauty and usefulness Spanning the world from the wild steppes of Mongolia to the American plains Horse chronicles the rich and complex natural history of the animal from wild feral horses to the domesticated species that once played a central role in daily life as a means of transportation an instrument of war and a source of labour Elaine Walker charts how the long standing connection between people and horses is reflected in cultures around the world and the implications for both human and animal of such close interaction She also traces the centrality of the horse in art entertainment and literature from the rich global traditions of horse racing and equestrianism to literary classics such as Follyfoot Ultimately Walker contends the continuing role of the horse in the modern world reveals telling changes in human society Observation, Thought and Expression, Or, Seeing, Thinking, Knowledge, Talking and Writing
