The House At Harcourt:

The House at Harcourt Anita Burgh, 2003-02-01 It is 1859 Eliza Forester is left motherless at the tender age of three when her father orders his wife from the house accusing her of infidelity He keeps the child not out of love since he is certain she is not his but to spite his wife Her name is never mentioned at Harcourt Barton the beautiful Jacobean house and estate near Exeter owned by Eliza's father Eliza grows up believing her mother is dead Her happiest times are spent with Ruby and Jerome the children of tenant farmers on her father's estate When at sixteen Eliza's innocent friendship with Jerome turns to love Eliza like her mother is banished to London to live with her aunt Her father determined she will make a good match lies to her that Jerome has married and forces her to wed aristocratic dissolute Hedworth Lambton It is the greatest mistake of her life

The House at Harcourt Proof Anita Burgh, 2002-06 The Country Houses of Shropshire Gareth Williams, 2021 A gazetteer of the many fine Shropshire country houses which covers the architecture the owners family history and the social and economic circumstances that affected them Shropshire is the largest English inland county and has a wide variety of important landed country houses with owners from diverse social groups with links to trade in Liverpool Manchester and London as well as the local gentry This book is not simply about the houses they built but also about the people who lived in them and the context in which the houses are set The architecture is of course fully covered What is distinctive about the author's approach is that he treats the histories of the families their artistic tastes and their estates as an integral part of the character of each house Country houses can serve as a barometer of national tastes and of the social and economic times in which they were built The work includes reference to the important sporting associations fine and decorative art collections and to important guests and social networks Unlike most architectural guides this aims at a wider readership and will be an important resource for social historians genealogists and local historians The Country Houses of Shropshire considers the history of 347 identified houses of varying importance those with a significant or influential history are given a main entry of up to 6000 words whilst lesser houses are treated with an entry of less than 1000 words All houses have footnoted entries enabling the reader to refer directly to source and to undertake further research themselves rtant guests and social networks Unlike most architectural guides this aims at a wider readership and will be an important resource for social historians genealogists and local historians The Country Houses of Shropshire considers the history of 347 identified houses of varying importance those with a significant or influential history are given a main entry of up to 6000 words whilst lesser houses are treated with an
