House of Hospitality Dorothy Day, 2015-02-02 A great many of these notes were not written for publication but for my own self in moments of trouble and in moments of peace and joy Dorothy Day's reflections written on the fly over five hectic years reveal not only the beginnings of the Catholic Worker Movement but the mind of a heroic woman as she responds to the demands of faith Now back in print after seventy five years House of Hospitality is packed with stories of sacrifice and kindness strikes and protests hunger and soup lines the rough reality of tenement life and the foul odor of poverty I do penance through my nose continually Dorothy wrote And yet as she said Our lives are made up of little miracles day by day Dorothy Day and her fellow workers were poor for the poor as Pope Francis has exhorted and the early years of this Gospel driven moment have much to teach us about how we can live today with a heart for others Love and ever more love Dorothy said is the only solution to every problem that comes up

The House Church Del Birkey, 2019-04-15 In this book the author proposes the house church structure as a key to continuing renewal in the church today After a biblical and historical look at the significance of the house church the author looks at a model of ministry appropriate to that structure In light of this model the author develops a theology of renewal through the servant leadership of both women and men personal and corporate giftedness participatory worship and community commitment

Hospitality, Volume II Jacques Derrida, 2024-04-05 Jacques Derrida explores the ramifications of what we owe to others Hospitality reproduces a two year seminar series delivered by Jacques Derrida at the cole des hautes tudes en sciences sociales in Paris between 1995 and 1997 In these lectures Derrida asks a series of related questions about responsibility and the foreigner How do we welcome or turn away the foreigner What does the idea of the foreigner reveal about kinship and the state particularly in relation to friendship citizenship migration asylum assimilation and xenophobia Central to his project is a rigorous distinction between conventional finite hospitality with its many conditions and the aspirational idea of hospitality as something offered unconditionally to the stranger This volume collects the second year of the seminar which considers an Islamic problematic of hospitality the relevance of forgiveness and the work of Emmanuel Levinas

Hospitality in American Literature and Culture Ana Maria Manzananas Calvo, Jesús Benito Sanchez, 2016-11-03 This volume examines hospitality in American immigrant literature and culture situating this ancient virtue at the crossroads of space and border theory and exploring the relationship among the intersecting themes of migration citizenship identity formation and spatiality Assessing the conditions duration and shifting roles of hosts and guests in the United States the book concentrates on the ways the US administers protocols of belonging and non belonging and distinguishes between those who can feel at home from those who will always be outside the body politic even if they were the original hosts The volume opens with a genealogy of hospitality through a focus on its sites from its origins in the Bible to its national and post national renditions in contemporary American literature and culture The authors explore recent representations of immigrant spatiality from the space of the body in Spielberg s The Terminal and Frears s Dirty Pretty Things to the different ways in which immigrants are incorporated into the United States in Alex Rivera s Sleep Dealer Karen T Yamashita s I Hotel Junot Diaz s Invierno and Ernesto Qui onez s Chango s Fire concluding with the spectrality of the immigrant body in George Saunders The Semplica Girl Diaries Timely and imperative in light of the legacies of colonialism and the realities of modern day globalization this book will be of value to specialists in post colonialism American Studies immigration diaspora and border studies and critical race and gender studies for its innovative approaches to media and literary texts
