Spectacle, and NASCAR Nation J. Newman,M. Giardina,2011-10-10 Sport Spectacle and NASCAR Nation critically

interrogates stockcar racing's ascendance into the upper echelon of the North American sporting popular. While most contributions to the public discourse gloss over NASCAR's exclusively white racial identity politics, its underlying patriarchal gender politics, its overtly conservative political commitment, its hyper-Christian orthodoxy, and its omnipresent commercialism, this book connects the dots and critically analyzes the problematic nature of this non-natural, strategically orchestrated sporting spectacle.

Xerses Franklin Lee J Morrison, 2015-02-04 Xerses Franklin is a happy representative in a large company travelling between London and other European Cities. He maintains contact with a group of University friends who are all successful. However, his life changes dramatically when he tries to reunite two of his best friends, Gabriel and Melona. Gabriel is a well-known Poet and Novelist, and Melona, his estranged wife, is a PR Assistant with the same company. As Xerses's events spiral disastrously and traumatically out of control on THAT Saturday, as their lives converge, Abby, a beautiful Cosmetics Consultant, becomes the loving wife of Xerses, and his alibi as he seeks peace in a Caribbean retreat. Their love for each other grows as they narrowly escape death when trouble follows them in this tale of murder, jealousy, and hate. Passions run high as true natures are exposed alongside an enduring and unrequited love in this new novel by Lee J Morrison, following the success of his previous book The Many Faces of April Jade. Southern California Funny Cars Steve Reyes, 2023. Southern California was the birthplace of organized drag racing, with the first organized race held at the Santa Ana airport in 1949 and the subsequent founding of the National Hot Rod Association in 1950. Over the next decade and a half, the dragster became the king of the quarter mile on Southern California drag strips. In 1964, veteran dragster owner/driver Jack Chrisman had an idea for something different to grace Southern California's drag strips. It was not a dragster but a stock-bodied race car using nitromethane for fuel in a supercharged engine. With the help of Gene Mooneyham, Mercury's Fran Hernandez, and sponsor Helen Sachs, Chrisman put together the world's first nitro-burning funny car. It was a steel stock-bodied Mercury Cyclone with a supercharged 427 Ford engine running on pure nitromethane. Chrisman started the evolution that soon turned stock steel-bodied cars into fiberglass-bodied tube chassis funny cars. Southern California drag racers began to lead the way for racers all over the United States in the
