Beginning with an atmospheric account of Tyburn we are set up for a grisly excursion through London as a city of ne'er do wells taking in beheadings and brutality at the Tower Elizabethan street crime cutpurses and con men through to the Gordon Riots and Highway robbery of the 18th century and the rise of prisons the police and the Victorian era of incarceration As well as the crimes Arnold also looks at the grotesque punishments meted out to those who transgressed the law throughout London's history from the hangings drawings and quarterings at Tyburn over 500 years to being boiled in oil at Smithfield This popular historian also investigates the influence of London's criminal classes on the literature of the 19th and 20th centuries and ends up with our old favourites the Krays and Soho gangs of the 50s and 60s London's crimes have changed over the centuries both in method and execution Underworld London traces these developments from the highway robberies of the eighteenth century made possible by the constant traffic of wealthy merchants in and out of the city to the beatings slashings and poisonings of the Victorian era
