Stop Dont Marry That Younger Man:

Stop! Don't Marry That Younger Man Elle Dawn,2003-04 The Booze Route John E. Main,1907 Gogo Breeze Harri Englund,2018-02-08 When Breeze FM a radio station in the provincial Zambian town of Chipata hired an elderly retired schoolteacher in 2003 no one anticipated the skyrocketing success that would follow A self styled grandfather on air Gogo Breeze seeks intimacy over the airwaves and dispenses advice on a wide variety of grievances and transgressions Multiple voices are broadcast and juxtaposed through call ins and dialogue but free speech finds its ally in the radio elder who by allowing people to be heard and supporting their claims reminds authorities of their obligations toward the disaffected Harri Englund provides a masterfully detailed study of this popular radio personality that addresses broad questions of free speech in Zambia and beyond By drawing on ethnographic insights into political communication Englund presents multivocal morality as an alternative to dominant Euro American perspectives displacing the simplistic notion of voice as individual personal property an idea common in both policy and activist rhetoric Instead Englund focuses on the creativity and polyphony of Zambian radio while raising important questions about hierarchy elderhood and ethics in the public sphere A lively engaging portrait of an extraordinary personality Gogo Breeze will interest Africanists scholars of radio and mass media and anyone interested in the history and future of free speech What Are You Doing? Vaughn Ohlman,2011-01-28 There are thousands of Godly young people who want to get married are ready to get married and should be married indeed should have been married long ago who are not married Their church their friends and their families have all prepared them for marriage for early marriage for early fruitful marriage and they are not married There is no persecution no law there are no physical infirmities that prevent them from being married but they are not married This is not a panic it is a crisis We have many of the very best and brightest of our Christian young people who are already well past the flower of their age and they are not married That is beyond a crisis it is a catastrophe Scripture provides clear answers to this crisis which we have ignored because they run counter to our culture It is time that we began to take every thought captive to Christ and throw off the chains of bondage to this world It is time we let them marry Small-Town America Robert Wuthnow,2015-05-26 A revealing examination of small town life More than thirty million Americans live in small out of the way places Many of them could have joined the vast majority of Americans who live in cities and suburbs They could live closer to more lucrative careers and convenient shopping a wider range of educational opportunities and more robust health care But they have opted to live differently In Small Town America we meet factory workers shop owners retirees teachers clergy and mayors residents who show neighborliness in small ways but who also worry about everything from school closings and their children s futures to the ups and downs of the local economy Drawing on more than seven hundred in depth interviews in hundreds of towns across America and three decades of census data Robert Wuthnow shows the fragility of community in small towns He covers a host of topics including the symbols and rituals of small town life the roles of formal and informal leaders the social role of religious congregations the perception of moral and economic decline and the myriad ways residents in small towns make sense of their own lives Wuthnow also tackles difficult issues such as class and race abortion homosexuality and substance abuse Small Town America paints a rich panorama of individuals who reside in small communities finding that for many people living in a small town is an important part of self identity The Delineator R. used as an example of what it means to become inhuman And I can't remove the unholy mark either as no one had been able to do so since the dawn of time But I am my father's daughter and I refuse to go quietly I made a contract with another monster in hopes he'll keep my soul intact and prevent my early demise but in doing so I've sealed my fate If the mark is found out I'll be executed If I do nothing then someday that monster will come back and devour me body and soul But if anyone were to find out that I contracted another fey as my ally then I'll be beheaded for treason to the empire But I refuse to go quietly Even if it breaks my soul bit by bit in the end it's still mine and not in the jaws of the monsters who lurk in the night But in fighting for my life the secrets of my blood are revealed and the true radiance of my soul is blinding everyone around me Even me
