Stop-Motion Puppet Sculpting Tom Brierton, 2015-01-27 Stop motion puppet animation is one of the most unusual and demanding art forms in the world It uses a variety of skills including design sculpting metal work mold making and casting taxidermy filmmaking storytelling and acting and can be seen in the simplest commercial spots on television to more complex animated shorts and science fiction and fantasy feature films This work explains research and design of puppets and details the fabrication of stop motion puppets around a metal armature skeleton using the build up and foam injection processes The former technique uses pre cut blocks of foam formed with a pair of scissors or other instrument into the shape desired and attaching them to the armature In the latter technique the character is sculpted in clay over the armature This clay sculpture is then replaced with foam by using a plaster mold and injection gun techniques Finishing techniques described include the making of hair eyes eyelids teeth horns nails and chitinous insect shell like surfaces The manual also covers the process of creating replacement heads using rubber molds such as RTV and urethane castings A glossary and bibliography complete the extensively illustrated work Stop-Motion Filming and Performance Tom Brierton, 2015-01-27 Stop motion animation has long been perceived as a technical practice rather than a creative demanding art Though stop motion requires considerable technical knowledge it also involves aesthetics and artistry that go beyond the technician's realm Just as important as puppet mechanics are lighting filters lenses camera angle and placement and dramatic pose and movement This manual is a complete guide to the aesthetics of stop motion animation Information is organized in an intuitive easy to use structure following the order an animator uses in setting up and then executing a scene The first half concentrates on the aesthetics of lighting and cameras a primary concern in any shot with details of camera placement various lenses and myriad lighting techniques The second half deals with the process of performance art an oft overlooked aspect of stop motion animation Included is a commentary on body language facial expression gesture movement and emotion key concepts that are exemplified through the acting process The work also offers an introduction to narrative form and a glossary of related terms Stop Motion: Craft Skills for Model Animation Susannah Shaw, 2012-09-10 To make great animation you need to know how to control a whole world how to make a character how to make that character live and be happy or sad You need to create four walls around them a landscape the sun and moon a whole life for them You have to get inside that puppet and first make it live then make it perform Susannah Shaw provides the first truly practical introduction to the craft skills of model animation This is a vital book in the development of model animation which following the success of Aardman's first full length film Chicken Run is now at the forefront of modern animation Illustrated in full colour throughout you are shown step by step how to create successful model animation Starting with some basic exercises readers will learn about developing a story making models creating sets and props the mechanics of movement filming post production and how to set about finding that elusive first job in a modern studio Beyond Books Jenn Carson, 2022-10-28 Beyond Books Adult Library Programs for a New Era takes us out of the stacks and past the traditional walls of the library to reach underserved and overworked adults in our communities adults who might not think they need the library in their lives Readers are introduced to the concept of adult programming through a multifaceted approach based on a solid foundation of behavioral science real life library experience and data on current trends in libraries and other institutions This book posits that offering diverse adult programs is an important catalyst for fostering community connection and individual wellness and that no librarian needs to deliver them alone Partnerships are not only helpful they are essential to preventing librarian burnout Themes of the book center on passive versus active programs the importance of intergenerational involvement and programs that touch a variety of topics divided by the following sections Food Drink Arts Crafts Books Writing Technology Media Health Wellness Business Finance and Nature Gardening This book provides clear step by step models and strategies for delivering adult programs both in person and online including where to find funding getting administrative and municipal buy in creating partnerships in the community addressing possible legal issues marketing tactics training staff and volunteers and how to evaluate programs Whether you re a student a brand new recruit or a seasoned public or academic librarian there will be something in this book to inspire you to move your adult library programs beyond book clubs without losing those too
