Poverty and Neoliberalism Ray Bush, 2007-04-20 Why do so many people worldwide suffer hunger and poverty when there is enough food and other resources globally to prevent it This book shows how famine and food insecurity are an essential part of modern capitalism Although trade debt relief and development initiatives are important they do not alter the structure of the global economy and poverty continues to be created by processes like privatisation trade liberalisation and market reform Despite the end poverty rhetoric of the World Bank and the G8 these high levels of poverty sustain Western wealth and power Is there any hope for change Using case studies from Egypt and North Africa Nigeria Sudan and elsewhere in sub Saharan Africa Ray Bush illustrates that there is resistance to neoliberal policies and that struggles over land mining and resources can shape real alternatives to existing globalisation

Phenomenal Women Joyce Louison, 2014-07-16 Life is a creation not a discovery We are creating our reality every minute We are created in the Image and likeness of God And we create as Him through thought word and Deed This book takes me on a journey of creation Where by getting connected to the source of all things I have begun to experience the world as the most magnificent and interesting place to be I was suddenly connected to the source of all things I could see everything clearly My life story kept replaying in my head like a broken record I felt the urge to send out Whatsapp messages to my friends just being open honest and totally liberated I soon realize that I may be writing a book Most of the world is living life in forgetfulness I desire to remind them of who we as human beings are Parts of the Creator And that this give us immense Power This power can be tapped in to recreate your life in any way you wish I set out to Life that truth I am still on the Starting line but from where I stand it is Phenomenal
