Storehouse Of Civilization:

The Storehouse of Civilization C. C. Furnas, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1939 edition The Storehouse of Civilization Clifford Cook Furnas, 1939 Describes briefly the raw materials from which man has to work and what he does with them both technologically and sociologically and offers a few suggestions as to how he can improve some of his processes Introd A Man's Value to Society Newell Dwight Hillis, 2020-07-18 Reproduction of the original A Man's Value to Society by Newell Dwight Hillis Tales of Militant Chemistry Alice Lovejoy, 2025-08-26 The untold story of film as a chemical cousin to poison gas and nuclear weapons shaped by centuries of violent extraction The history of film calls to mind unforgettable photographs famous directors and the glitz and hustle of the media business But there is another tale to tell that connects film as a material to the twentieth century's history of war destruction and cruelty This story comes into focus during World War II at the factories of Tennessee Eastman where photographic giant Kodak produced the rudiments of movie magic Not far away at Oak Ridge Kodak was also enriching uranium for the Manhattan Project uranium mined in the Belgian Congo and destined for the bomb that fell on Hiroshima While the world's largest film manufacturer transformed into a formidable military contractor across the ocean its competitor Agfa grew entangled with Nazi Germany's machinery of war After 1945 Kodak's film factories stood at the front lines of a new colder war as their photosensitive products became harbingers of the dangers of nuclear fallout Following scientists soldiers prisoners and spies through Kodak's and Agfa's global empires Alice Lovejoy links the golden age of cinema and photography to colonialism the military industrial complex radioactive dust and toxic waste Revelatory and chilling Tales of Militant Chemistry shows how film became a weapon whose chemistry irrevocably shaped the world we live in today Joseph Conrad Robert D. Hamner, 1990 Issues of racial discrimination imperialist exploitation and accuracy of observation have long interested Conrad's critics As a European writing about imperialism in exotic lands Conrad offered a vivid but subjective account of the confrontations between the cultures and peoples of East and West Though some in Africa have condemned his novels as racist the books have been used as models for the work of recent generations of native writers This collection of essays places Conrad's work under the scrutiny of an international array of scholars who explore the response to Conrad in contemporary times as well as during his own era Work, the Meaning of Your Life Lester DeKoster, 2010 Where do we find the core of life's meaning Right on the job At whatever work we do with head or hand from kitchen to executive suite from your house to the White House Work is the great equalizer everyone has to come to it in order to find meaning in living no short cuts no detours no bargain rates opening passages of his classic book The Time Falling Bodies Take to Light William Irwin Thompson asks the question But what is myth that it returns to mind even when we would most escape it Acknowledging the pervasive power of myth to create and inform culture Thompson answers this question by weaving descriptions of the human abilities to create life and to communicate through symbolic myths based on male and female forms of power Taking us from the earliest periods of prehistory through the time of female goddess worship to the rise of the male dominated warrior state Thompson shows the passage of humankind s relationship to nature from initial awe to persistent conquest At the end of his journey Thompson finds an answer to his original question myth is the history of the soul its creation is ongoing and its power is never ending This is a beautiful and fascinating book now being reissued for a new generation of readers as well as for those it inspired
