Testimonios of Care Natalia Deeb-Sossa, Yvette G. Flores, Angie Chabram, 2024 The first English language collection of Latina x caregiving testimonios, this volume gives voice to diverse Chicana x and Latina x caregiving experiences. Bringing together thirteen first person accounts of how Latinx people deal with serious health conditions as caregivers, these testimonies highlight tragic flaws in the health care system: how woefully undervalued caregiving is and how, as care recipients and caregivers, they have been harmed by the for-profit health care system.

Nursing Research Patricia L. Munhall, 2007 Written for nurses and nursing students, Nursing Research: A Qualitative Perspective, Fourth Edition, defines qualitative research and presents information on the current state of this important field. Divided into three sections, Part I provides foundational content for understanding the qualitative research process; Part II presents the more dominant methods, following each with an exemplar method; and Part III, with the contributions of six new authors, discusses considerations essential to conducting qualitative research. Nursing Research: A Qualitative Perspective contains recent qualitative methods and examples, including phenomenology, ethnography, and case study methods. Nine new essential chapters have been added to the Fourth Edition to provide a complete foundation in qualitative research.

Advanced Qualitative Research for Nursing Joanna Latimer, 2009-02-12 This collection presents up-to-the-minute qualitative research methodologies creatively developed by and within nursing. The book is written by authors at the forefront of their fields. It is aimed at enabling people to research critical issues for nursing practice and health care. Nurses face the imperative for practice grounded in research-based evidence. The book demonstrates how qualitative methodologies can produce rigorous and valid research. Drawing on empirical data, each chapter introduces a particular contemporary approach, examines the literature in its field, discusses its relevance for nursing and health care, and explains what claims to knowledge can be made.

Living in the Land of Limbo Carol Levine, 2021-04-30 AAUP Books Committee Outstanding Title of 2015 Living in the Land of Limbo is the first anthology of short stories and poems about family caregivers. These men and women find themselves in limbo as they struggle to take care of a family member or friend in the uncertain world of chronic illness. The authors explore caregivers' experiences as they deal with family conflicts, the complexities of the health care system, and the impact of their choices on their lives and the lives of others. The book includes selections devoted to caregivers of aging parents, husbands and wives, ill children, and relatives, lovers, and friends. A final section is devoted to paid caregivers and their clients. Among the conditions that form the background of the selections are dementia, HIV/AIDS, mental illness, multiple sclerosis, and pediatric cancer. Many of the authors are well-known poets and writers but others have not been published in mainstream media They represent a range of cultural backgrounds Although their works approach caregiving in very different ways the authors share a commitment to emotional truth unvarnished by societal ideals of what caregivers should feel and do These stories and poems paint profoundly moving and revealing portraits of family caregivers
