Stories To Grow On Demonstrations Of Language Learning In K 8 Classrooms:

Stories to Grow on Julie M. Jensen, 1989 Teaching Literacy for Love and Wisdom Jeffrey D. Wilhelm, Bruce Novak, 2015-04-17 This book lays out a new vision for the teaching of English building on themes central to Wilhelm's influential You Gotta BE The Book With portraits of teachers and students as well as practical strategies and advice they provide a roadmap to educational transformation far beyond the field of English from publisher description Expanding Literacies Mary Sue Garay, Stephen A. Bernhardt, 1998-02-27 1999 Best Collection of Essays in Technical and Scientific Communication presented by the National Council of Teachers of English Expanding Literacies presents eighteen fresh essays that explore how English teaching at both secondary and post secondary levels can be made more work relevant The book shows teachers administrators and workplace trainers how to put aside disabling dichotomies of school versus work in favor of preparing students with new skills for new workplaces Within a theoretical context that encourages development of situated uses of language the volume identifies ways to reshape traditional English classes so that students are prepared to be successful in work environments that demand teamwork problem solving and complex communication skills Some chapters examine the escalating literacy demands of specific workplaces manufacturing health care chemical and nuclear industries and high tech settings Other chapters examine what we currently do in schools and describe new models and theoretical approaches to better equip students for a changing workplace The book has a wealth of practical ideas for structuring classrooms making assignments and choosing materials that will help students make the transition from school to work Contemporary Composition Studies Edith Babin, Kimberly Harrison, 1999-12-30 Composition studies is a rapidly growing and constantly changing field At present however graduate students new to the field and writing teachers who want to make new connections between theory and practice have little choice of current reference works that define key terms in composition studies and provide information about the scholars and researchers who have shaped and are shaping the discipline This book supplies this information in an easily accessible format and places both scholars and terms in the context of the field's development Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 108 individuals who have developed the field and 128 terms central to the discipline The first part of the book provides entries for leaders in composition studies Each entry identifies the areas in which the scholar has contributed most influentially to the field and provides both a chronological overview of the person's contributions and a bibliography of representative works The second part includes entries for terms that are problematic both for newcomers and for those already familiar with the discipline The entries for the terms show how the disciplinary context has shaped the ways in which they have been used The entries also indicate how established thinkers in composition studies and other disciplines have explained or defined the terms provide examples of the terms in context and list scholars often associated with them An appendix includes entries for scholars from other disciplines who have contributed to the field Exploring Language Arts in the Elementary Classroom John W. Stewig, Beverly Nordberg,1995 This text provides information on all the facets of language arts listening speaking writing and reading and the connections among these areas while using childrens literature to facilitate learning Featuring many activities and teaching suggestions this text is a practical resource with solid research and theory Integrating Learning Through Story Carol Lauritzen,Michael J. Jaeger,1997 This book is an excellent reference source for those interested in alternative curriculum designs It offers teachers and curriculum planners a theoretical framework for organizing learning experiences that are consistent with goal based holistic integration and constructivist learning theory Handbook of Research on Teaching the English Language Arts James Flood,1991 Jointly sponsored by the International Reading Assn and the Natl Council of Teachers of English the Handbook contains some 70 original articles by authorities in the field of language arts The articles are organized into five sections theoretical bases for English language arts teaching method An Historical Examination of the Roles of Professional Associations in Developing the Process-oriented Approaches to Writing Instruction Mary Ellen Van Camp,1992 The Practice of Theory Ruth E. Ray,1993 This book offers teachers a convenient means of broadening their understanding of various kinds of composition theory and the steadily emerging field of teacher research by high school and college instructors The book is designed to arouse individual teachers interest in composition theory and encourage them to learn about and participate in teacher research The book covers the various branches of teacher research and the key ideas of its many proponents Individual chapters include 1 The Move toward Theory in Composition 2 Theory and Practice from a Feminist Perspective 3 The Argument for Teacher Research 4 Comprehension from Within K 12 Teacher Research and the Construction of Knowledge 5 Contextual Constraints on Knowledge Making Graduate Student Teacher Research and 6 Toward a Teacher Research Approach to Graduate Studies An interview with National Writing Project Teacher Researchers along with a sample syllabus for a graduate course in composition theory are appended HB The ...
