knowledge We can learn about ourselves as human beings and as individuals by reading thinking through and arguing about this distinctive kind of text Reasoning with Edmund Gosse s Father and Son is a way of learning about the nature of the good life and the roles that pleasure and self expression can play in it Reasoning with Siegfried Sassoon s Memoirs is a way of learning about transformative experience self alienation and therefore the nature of the self Good Lives Autobiography Self Knowledge Narrative and Self Realization develops this claim by answering a series of questions What is an autobiography How can we learn about ourselves from reading one On what subjects does autobiography teach What should we learn about them In particular given that autobiographies are narratives should we learn something about the importance of narrative in human life Could our storytelling about our own lives make sense of them as wholes unify them over time or make them good for us Could storytelling make the self Samuel Clark provides an authoritative critique of narrative and a defence of a self realization account of the self and its good He investigates the wide range of extant accounts of the self and of the good life and defends pluralist realism about self knowledge by reading and reasoning with autobiographies of self discovery martial life and solitude The volume concludes by showing that autobiography can be reasoning in pursuit of self knowledge each of us is an unchosen initially opaque seedlike self our good is the development and expression of our latent capacities which is our individual self realization and self narration plays much less role in our lives than some thinkers have supposed and the development and expression of potential much more Science and the World's Religions Patrick McNamara

Cultural Methods in Psychology Kate C. McLean, 2022 As I sat down to write this chapter about the use of life story methods for capturing cultural historical aspects of LGBTQ identity development I was transported back in time It was a hot summer day in 2004 I had travelled back from the big city where I was attending university to visit my family This was my first summer away from home At that moment my family and I sat in the parking lot of a diner having just finished breakfast at a local greasy spoon a ritualistic send off before I started my four hour return drive In those moments our car felt unusually cramped My dad was in the back seat with me my mom and brother in the front I didn't have much of an appetite that morning knowing that in mere minutes I would come out to my family as gay On our way out of the restaurant walking to our separate cars I somehow managed to muster up the courage to tell my family there was something important I wanted them to know So there I was in the backseat of the car with a message for my family Looking back on it the message was more like an ultimatum They could learn to love this new version of me as I had done or our routine see you later might be a goodbye This is the beginning of my story both my coming out story and in some ways my life story Thankfully my family is still an important part of this story
