The Return of the Storyteller in Contemporary Fiction Areti Dragas,2014-08-31 Focusing on the figure of the storyteller this study breaks new ground in the approach to reading contemporary literature by identifying a growing interest in storytelling For the last thirty years contemporary fiction has been influenced by theoretical discourses textuality and writing Only since the rise of postcolonialism have academic critics been more overtly interested in stories where high theory frameworks are less applicable However as we move through various contemporary contexts engaging with postcolonial identities and hybridity to narratives of disability and evolutionary accounts of group and individual survival a common feature of all is the centrality of story which posits both the idea of survival and the passing on of traditions The Return of the Storyteller in Contemporary Fiction closely examines this preoccupation with story and storytelling through a close reading of six contemporary international novelists that are either about actual storytellers or engage with the figure of the storyteller revealing how death of the author has given birth to the storyteller

The Eternal Storyteller Vibeke Boerdahl,2013-01-11 Chinese storytelling has survived through more than a millennium into our own time while similar oral arts have fallen into oblivion in the West Under the main heading of The Eternal Storyteller in August 1996 the Nordic Institute of Asian Studies hosted an International Workshop on Oral Literature in Modern China To this meeting the first of its kind in Europe five special guests were invited master tellers from Yangzhou Wang Xizotang Li Xintang Fei Zhengliang Dai Buzhang and Hui Zhaolong The volume derived from this meeting includes an introductory article written by John Miles Foley entitled A Comparative View on Oral Traditions Thereafter a wide range of topics relating to Chinese oral literature is covered under the headings Historical Lines A Spectrum of Genres Studies of Yangzhou and Suzhou Story telling and Performances of Yangzhou Storytelling However the present volume does more than include papers derived from the meeting It is also lavishly illustrated in word and picture from performances by the guest storytellers In so doing the world of Chinese story telling is not just described and analysed it is also brought to life

The Storyteller's Secret Carmine Gallo,2016-02-23 Internationally bestselling author Carmine Gallo reveals the secrets to telling powerful inspiring and game changing stories that will help you achieve any goal

The Way of the Storyteller Ruth Sawyer,1962 As interest in the art of storytelling continues to grow many books have appeared on the subject but none have matched the scope and charm of The Way of the Storyteller First published in 1942 this classic work is unique in its blend of literary history criticism analysis personal anecdote and how to instructions Sawyer examines storytelling as a folk art and a still living art tracing its evolution from the earliest narrative impulses that developed as stories were written down With simple suggestions she instructs the reader in the art of storytelling and freeing the creative imagination by disciplining the mind Sawyer s guide also includes an engaging selection of international stories sure to enchant both children and adults The Way of the Storyteller also is an invaluable resource with a comprehensive reading and story list

The Book of Stories for the Storyteller Fanny E. Coe,1929      Jump into the Story Ray R. Friesen,2019-02-27
 Preaching is a challenging privileged and awesome responsibility As important as mining the text for its meaning and message and making connections to our twenty first century world is the responsibility to engage the imaginations of the people in the pews or chairs In this book Ray Friesen life long preacher and retired pastor has provided twenty examples of how to be creative and engage those imaginations Most were written under the pressures of bi vocational ministry preaching forty times a year as half time pastor and operating a mediation practice They are offered to you not as sermons for you to preach but as examples of what is possible even with all the other responsibilities you may have Each sermon and type of creativity will create an opportunity to set your imagination and creativity free to engage the imaginations hearts and dreams of your parishioners      Sending My Heart Back Across the Years Hertha Dawn Wong,1992-03-12 Using contemporary autobiography theory and literary historical and ethnographic approaches Wong explores the transformation of Native American autobiography from pre contact oral and pictographic personal narratives through late nineteenth early twentieth century life histories to written contemporary autobiographies This book expands the definition of autobiography to include non written forms of personal narrative and non Western concepts of self highlighting the incorporation of traditional tribal modes of self narration with Western forms of autobiography and charting the historical transition from orality to literacy

Jesus the Storyteller Stephen I. Wright,2015-11-17 While it is widely acknowledged that Jesus told stories there has not been much focus on why he did so and how these stories contributed to his ministry Stephen Wright approaches this topic afresh to analyze how considering the parables as stories can help our understanding of Jesus and his mission Wright begins by looking for insights in scholarship from recent decades on the parables and the historical Jesus He goes on to imagine how these stories would have resonated with hearers in each of the Synoptic Gospels and considers the dynamics between Jesus and his hearers in different locations like Galilee and Jerusalem Finally Wright considers the purpose of these parables as an element of Jesus ministry and looks at Jesus himself as a storyteller This book will provide a solid basis for understanding why Jesus spoke in parables and how this distinctive style of speech functioned in his ministry      Storytelling Josepha Sherman,2015-03-26 Storytelling is an ancient practice known in all civilizations throughout history Characters tales techniques oral traditions motifs and tale types transcend individual cultures elements and names change but the stories are remarkably similar with each rendition highlighting the values and concerns of the host culture Examining the stories and the oral traditions associated with different cultures offers a unique view of practices and traditions Storytelling An Encyclopedia of Mythology and Folklore brings past and present cultures of the world to life through their stories oral traditions and performance styles It combines folklore and mythology traditional arts history literature and festivals to present an overview of world cultures through their liveliest and most fascinating mode of expression This appealing resource includes specific storytelling techniques as well as retellings of stories from various cultures and traditions
