Stories From Three Worlds:

Stories from Three Worlds John A. McKenzie, Judith K. McKenzie, 1978 Stories John A. McKenzie, 1978 History
After the Three Worlds Arif Dirlik, Vinay Bahl, Peter Gran, 2000 History as a discipline faces a crisis of identity as Eurocentrism fades in a world where globalized visions compete to explain historical processes Facing the challenge squarely this volume _comprising specialists on Asia Africa and Latin America_ explores the state of historical analysis in various world regions and appraises current views on what defines and challenges historical knowledge It is widely accepted that Eurocentrism no longer seem acceptable in a world where others are reasserting their own notions of past and future The postDWorld War II spatialities that guided both historical analysis and the division of labor in historical work are in the process of disappearing into more globalized visions Constituencies left out of history in the past are making demands for the recognition of their historical presence History as epistemology is under attack as a marker of Eurocentric modernity from non historical ways of thinking as well as from ideologies of postmodernism that deny to history its claims to truth Indeed the current situation in the field has been described by one distinguished historian as a Ocacophonous confusion O The challenge historians face is how to imagine new ways of writing history that overcome this confusion without falling back upon ideological and methodological prejudices that reproduce the problems of the past in new guises The contributors discuss how these challenges are voiced and met in their different areas of specialization Unsurprising in a volume that addresses a variety of regions and issues that are not only technically historiographical but also deeply cultural and political the authors differ in their appraisal of the challenges presented by globalization postmodernism or postcolonialism Yet they are united in their recognition of the validity of historical ways of knowing and their reaffirmation of the importance of history in grasping contemporary cultural and political problems It is because history is entangled in a Eurocentric modernity that in a postmodern world it provides the medium for articulating alternatives to Eurocentrism _and to history itself Culture in the Age of Three Worlds Michael Denning, 2020-05-05 Over the last half of the twentieth century culture moved to the foreground of political and intellectual life Suddenly everyone discovered that culture had been mass produced like Ford s cars the masses had culture and culture had a mass Culture was everywhere no longer the property of the cultured or the cultivated Radical social movements around the globe invented a politics of culture Culture In the Age of Three Worlds is a reflection on this cultural turn which was a fundamental aspect of the age of three worlds that short half century between 1945 and 1989 when it was imagined that the world was divided into three the capitalist first world the communist second world and the decolonizing third world Recasting the legacies of British cultural studies and the radical traditions of the American studies movement in a global context Michael Denning explores the political and intellectual battles over the meanings of culture addresses the rise of a distinctive American ideology and charts the lineaments of the global cultures that emerged as three worlds gave way to one The Way Between the Worlds Ian Irvine, 1999-09-07 Between

Three Worlds John C. Stephens, 2023-02-10 This book explores the motif of the spiritual journey and its evolution in Western literature A spiritual journey can be broadly defined as a search for the divine Such a search can occur either internally as a psychological process or in some cases may involve an actual geographic journey Spiritual journeys can be conducted by individuals or groups In exploring this topic various kinds of texts will be reviewed including autobiographies novels and short stories as well as myths folktales and mystical writings The book classifies spiritual journey narratives into four categories theological journeys mystical journeys mythopoetic journeys and allegorical journeys Representative texts have been selected in the history of Western religious literature that illustrate the basic features of each of these four categories and Una's magical meeting with Puck the last of the People of the Hills leads to their adventures with Romans and Crusaders Saxons and Vikings And later in Rewards and Fairies the three meet an array of characters ranging from Iron Age warriors to Good Queen Bess and Sir Francis Drake In Kipling's rattling school yarn Stalky Co Stalky M Turk and the Beetle are a trio of scallywags with a keen desire to break the rules their unruly activities give the stories an enduring appeal to all children especially those who have ever wilted beneath the stern glance of a peevish schoolmaster Kipling's wry sometimes tongue in cheek style will delight and entertain young readers while adults throughout the world will remember his stories with affection

Freedom to Live: The Robert Hartman Story, 2022-07-11 This book is both a personal and a philosophical autobiography of Robert S Hartman the creator of formal axiology After experiencing first hand the horrible effects of World War I and the beginnings of Nazism in Germany Hartman wondered what could be done to organize goodness instead of badness for a change First the concept of good must be defined Next different kinds of goodness like intrinsic extrinsic and systemic must be differentiated Then this understanding must be used to comprehend and to change the world including its economic political military religious educational intellectual and psychological dimensions By telling his own story Hartman gives his readers a glimpse of the form of the good and of a much better world

Narrative Theory, Literature, and New Media Mari Hatavara, Matti Hyvärinen, Maria Mäkelä, Frans Mäyrä, 2015-06-19 Offering an interdisciplinary approach to narrative this book investigates storyworlds and minds in narratives across media from literature to digital games and reality TV from online sadomasochism to oral history databases and from horror to hallucinations It addresses two core questions of contemporary narrative theory inspired by recent cognitive scientific developments what kind of a construction is a storyworld and what kind of mental functioning can be embedded in it Minds and worlds become essential facets of making sense and interpreting narratives as the book asks how story internal minds relate to the mind external to the storyworld that is the mind processing the story With essays from social scientists literary scholars linguists and scholars from interactive media studies answering these topical questions the collection brings diverse disciplines into dialogue providing new openings for genuinely transdisciplinary narrative theory The wide ranging selection of materials analyzed in the book promotes knowledge on the latest forms of cultural and social meaning making through narrative necessary for navigating the contemporary mediatized cultural landscape The combination of theoretical reflection and empirical analysis makes this book an invaluable resource for scholars and advanced students in fields including literary studies social sciences art media and communication

Narrative Worlds and the Texture of Time Rosemary Huisman, 2022-09-30 This book brings together a model of time and a model of language to generate a new model of narrative where different stories with different temporalities and non chronological modes of sequence can tell of different worlds of human and non human experience woven together the texture of time in the one narrative The work of Gerald Edelman on consciousness J T Fraser on time and M A K Halliday on language is introduced the categories of systemic functional linguistics are used for detailed analysis of English narrative texts from different literary periods A summary chapter gives an overview of previous narrative studies and theories with extensive references Chapters on temporalization and spatialization of language contrast the importance of time in narrative texts with the effect of grammatical metaphor as described by M A K Halliday for scientific discourse Chapters on prose fiction poetry and the texts of digital culture chart changes in the texture of time with changes in the social context narrative as social semiotic
