contradictions at the convoluted heart of the woman's genre among them the dilemma of the strong and glamorous woman who cedes her power when she feels it threatening her personal happiness and the self-abnegating woman whose selflessness is not always as noble as it appears Basinger looks at the stars who played these women and helps us understand the qualities the right off-screen personae the right on-screen attitudes the right faces that made them personify the woman's film and equipped them to make believable drama or comedy out of the crackpot plots the conflicting ideas and the exaggerations of real behavior that characterize these movies In each of the films the author discusses whether melodrama screwball comedy musical film noir western or biopic a woman occupies the center of her particular universe Her story in its endless variations of rags to riches boy meets girl battle of the sexes mother love doomed romance inevitably sends a highly potent mixed message Yes you women belong in your proper place that is content with the Big Three of the woman's film world men marriage and motherhood but meanwhile and paradoxically see what fun glamour and power you can enjoy along the way A Woman's View deepens our understanding of the times and circumstances and attitudes out of which these movies were created Showmen's Motion Picture Trade Review, 1949 The Forum, 1909 Current political social scientific education and literary news written about by many famous authors and reform movements Billboard, 1946-11-30 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends The Hired Wife/ the Moon in Eclipse Lynna Cooper, Rader, Claudia Slack, 1981-09-01 The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory Arthur Schlesinger Jr I Will Threese Acantha, This is book 2 of I Will Aristotle Napoleon Higgins is one of the most eligible bachelors in the country He promised himself not to marry anyone but his grandfather is not having it He wants him to marry a fine woman and have kids before he reaches 30 and threatens to disown him and remove all of his assets He knew that his grandfather is not kidding at all so he use all of his connections to find a woman of his taste to act as a bride on his wedding day Moving Pictures and Renaissance Art History Patricia Emison, 2025-10-01 Film like the printed imagery inaugurated during the Renaissance spread ideas not least the idea of the power of visual art across not only geographical and political divides but also strata of class and gender Moving Pictures and Renaissance Art History examines the early flourishing of film from the 1920s to the mid 1960s as partly reprising the introduction of mass media in the Renaissance allowing for innovation that reflected an art free of the control of a patron though required to attract a broad public Rivalry between word and image between the demands of narrative and those of visual composition spurred new ways of addressing the compelling nature of the visual. The twentieth century also saw the development of the discipline of art history. Transfusions between cinematic practice and art historical postulates are part of the story told here. Gossip Hot Mom Xin Yue, 2020-01-17. Ray Milland James McKay, 2020-01-31. With no formal training as an actor Welsh born Ray Milland 1907-1986 a former trooper in the British Army's Household Cavalry enjoyed a half century career working alongside some of the great directors and stars from the Golden Age of cinema. He won the Academy Award for Best Actor for his performance as the alcoholic writer in The Lost Weekend 1945 a defining moment that enabled him to break free from romantic leads and explore darker shades of his debonair demeanor such as the veiled menace of his scheming husband in Hitchcock's Dial M For Murder 1954. A consummate professional with wide range Milland took the directorial reins in several of his starring vehicles in the 1950s most notably in the intelligent Western A Man Alone 1955. He comfortably slipped into most genres from romantic comedy to adventure to film noir. Later he turned to science fiction and horror movies including two with cult filmmaker Roger Corman. This first complete filmography covers the actor's screen career with a concise introductory biography and an appendix listing his extensive radio and television credits.
