The Holocaust As Historical Experience:

The Holocaust as Historical Experience Yehuda Bauer, Nathan Rotenstreich, 1981-01-01 The Historiography of Genocide Anton Weiss-Wendt, Robert Krieken, Alfred A. Cave, Ben Kiernan, Doris Bergen, David Moshman, Victoria Sanford, John Docker, Robert Hitchcock, 2008-02-13 The Historiography of Genocide is an indispensable guide to the development of the emerging discipline of genocide studies and the only available assessment of the historical literature pertaining to genocides History Jörn Rüsen, 2005 Without denying the importance of the postmodernist approach to the narrative form and rhetorical strategies of historiography the author one of Germany's most prominent cultural historians argues here in favor of reason and methodical rationality in history He presents a broad variety of aspects factors and developments of historical thinking from the 18th century to the present thus continuing in exemplary fashion the tradition of critical self reflection in the humanities and looking at historical studies as an important factor of cultural orientation in practical life Approaches to Teaching the Works of Primo Levi Nicholas Patruno, Roberta Ricci, 2014-11-01 Primo Levi Holocaust survivor and renowned memoirist is one of the most widely read writers of post World War II Italy His works are characterized by the lean dispassionate eloquence with which he approaches his experience of incarceration in Auschwitz His memoirs as well as his poetry and fiction and his many interviews are often taught in several fields including Jewish studies and Holocaust studies comparative literature and Italian language and literature and can enrich the study of history psychology and philosophy The first part of this volume provides instructors with an overview of the available editions anthologies and translations of Levi's work and identifies other useful classroom aids such as films music and online resources In the second part contributors describe different approaches to teaching Levi's work Some in presenting Survival in Auschwitz The Reawakening and The Drowned and the Saved look at the place of style in Holocaust testimony and the reliability of memory in autobiography Others focus on questions of translation complicated by the untranslatable in the language and experiences of the concentration camps or on how Levi incorporates his background as a chemist into his writing most clearly in The Periodic Table The American Experience in World War II: The atomic bomb in history and memory Walter L. Hixson, 2003 World War II changed the face of the United States catapulting the country out of economic depression political isolation and social conservatism Ultimately the war was a major formative factor in the creation of modern America This unique twelve volume set provides comprehensive coverage of this transformation in its domestic policies diplomatic relations and military strategies as well as the changing cultural and social arenas The collection presents the history of the creation of a super power prior to during and after the war analyzing all major phases of the U S involvement making it a one stop resource that will be essential for all libraries supporting a history curriculum This volume is available on its own or as part of the twelve volume set The American Experience in World War II For a complete list of the volume titles in this set see the listing for The American Experience in World War II ISBN 0 415 94028 1 A Nation Divided by History and Memory Gábor Gyáni, 2020-07-12 During the last few decades there has been a growing recognition of the great role that remembering and collective memory play in forming the historical awareness. In addition, the dominant national form of history writing also met some challenges on the side of a transnational approach to the past. In A Nation Divided by History and Memory, a prominent Hungarian historian sheds light on how Hungary's historical image has become split as a consequence of the differences between the historian's conceptualisation of national history and its diverse representations in personal and collective memory. The book focuses on the shocking experiences and the intense memorial reactions generated by a few key historical events and the way in which they have been interpreted by the historical scholarship. The argument of A Nation Divided by History and Memory is placed into the context of an international historical discourse. This pioneering work is essential and enlightening reading for all historians, many sociologists, political scientists, social psychologists, and university students.

Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama. Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day, including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz, whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate. Additionally, the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national, regional, and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality. In addition to the Western tradition, it includes substantial assessments of African, Asian, and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies.

Until the Fires Stopped Burning Charles B. Strozier, 2014-08-05 Charles B. Strozier's college lost sixty-eight alumni in the tragedy of 9/11, and the many courses he has taught on terrorism and related topics since have attracted dozens of survivors and family members. A practicing psychoanalyst in Manhattan, Strozier has also accepted many seared by the disaster into his care. In some ways, the grief he has encountered has felt familiar; in other ways, unprecedented. Compelled to investigate its unique character further, he launched a fascinating study into the conscious and unconscious meaning of the event, both for those who were physically close to the attack and for those who witnessed it beyond the immediate space of Ground Zero. Based on the testimony of survivors, bystanders, spectators, and victims' friends and families, Until the Fires Stopped Burning brings much-needed clarity to the conscious and unconscious meaning of 9/11 and its relationship to historical disaster, apocalyptic experience, unnatural death, and the psychological endurance of trauma. Strozier interprets and contextualizes the memories of witnesses and compares their encounter with 9/11 to the devastation of Hiroshima, Auschwitz, Katrina, and other events. Kai Erikson has called a new species of trouble in the world. Organizing his study around zones of sadness in New York, Strozier powerfully evokes the multiple places in which his respondents confronted 9/11 while remaining sensitive to the personal, social, and cultural differences of these experiences. Most important, he distinguishes between 9 11 as an apocalyptic event which he affirms it is not rather it is a monumental event and 9 11 as an apocalyptic experience which is crucial to understanding the act's affect on American life and a still evolving culture of fear in the world

The Burden of Democracy Geneviève Souillac, 2011-12-16 This book offers an original contribution to the debate on contemporary democratic ethics It argues that public culture provides the mediating spaces required for processes of encounter but should be supplemented with an open dialog on history memory and identity Since democratic modernity is consolidating its new phase characterized by the multiplicity of perspectives the mediation of conflict identity and memory are required to continue fostering mutual understanding and the identification of issues of common concern The historical emergence of a public culture is a democratic gain Recognizing this offers opportunities for ethical transformation that respects diversity but also addresses the realities of conflict under conditions of post modernity Manifestos for History

Sue Morgan, Keith Jenkins, Alun Munslow, 2007-09-12 Manifestos for History is a thought provoking and controversial text that through a star studded collection of essays presents a wide ranging discussion of the nature and future of history in the twenty first century The Transformation Of Israeli Society S. N. Eisenstadt, S N Eisenstadt, 2019-07-09 This book discusses the development and organization of the major spheres of life of Israeli society It analyses major aspects and trends of development of Israeli society which have been taking place continuously since its beginning from the early period of Zionist settlement in Eretz Israel Reflective Teaching of History 11-18 Rob Phillips, 2002-10-11 This series of textbooks is aimed at teacher training students and comprises two concerns the practice of teaching and how to use theory and research findings to improve that practice and how to meet the TTA standards whilst placing them in a wider context This comprehensive textbook is an accessible guide to all those who are new to the profession of teaching history Covering all aspects of the job from planning through to teaching and assessment Rob Phillips provides constructive practical advice to help subject teachers become more effective in their work Frames of Memory after 9/11 L. Bond,2015-02-17 This book examines the commemoration of 9 11 in American memorial culture It argues that the emergence of counter memories of September 11 has been compromised by the dominance of certain narrative paradigms or frames of memory that have mediated the representation of the attacks across cultural critical political and juridical discourses The Wiley

Interpreting Slavery with Children and Teens at Museums and Historic Sites Kristin L. Gallas,2021-09-26 Interpreting Slavery with Children and Teens offers advice examples and replicable practices for the comprehensive development and implementation of slavery related school and family programs at museums and historic sites Developing successful experiences school programs field trips family tours about slavery is more than just historical research and some hands on activities Interpreting the history of slavery often requires offering students new historical narratives and helping them to navigate the emotions that arise when new narratives conflict with longstanding beliefs We must talk with young people about slavery and race as it is not enough to just talk to them or about the subject By engaging students in dialogue about slavery and race they bring their prior knowledge scaffold new knowledge and create their own relevance all while adults hear them and show respect for what they have to say The book s framework aims to move the field forward in its collective conversation about the interpretation of slavery with young audiences acknowledging the criticism of the past and acting in the present to develop inclusive interpretation of slavery When an organization commits to doing school and family programs on the topic of slavery it makes a promise to past and future generations to keep alive the memory of long silenced millions and to raise awareness of the racist legacies of slavery in our society today Analysing Historical Narratives Stefan Berger,Nicola Brauch,Chris Lorenz,2021-05-14 For all of the recent debates over the methods and theoretical underpinnings of the historical profession scholars and laypeople alike still frequently think of history in terms of storytelling Accordingly historians and theorists have devoted much attention to how historical narratives work illuminating the ways they can bind together events shape an argument and lend support to ideology From ancient Greece to modern day bestsellers the studies gathered here offer a wide ranging analysis of the textual strategies used by historians They show how in spite of the pursuit of truth and objectivity the ways in which historians tell their stories are inevitably conditioned by their discursive contexts Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries Vol 1 Samuel Totten,Jon Pedersen,2012-04-01 Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries A Critical Annotated Bibliography is comprised of critical essays accompanied by annotated bibliographies on a host of programs models strategies and concerns vis vis teaching and learning about social issues facing society The primary goal of the book is to provide undergraduate and graduate students in the field of education professors of education and teachers with a valuable resource as they engage in research and practice in relation to teaching about social issues In the introductory essays authors present an overview of their respective topics e g The Hunt Metcalf Model Science Technology Science Genocide Education In doing so they address among other concerns the following key theories goals objectives and the research base Many also provide a set of recommendations for adapting and or strengthening a particular model program or the study of a specific social issue In the annotated bibliographies accompanying the essays authors include those works that are considered classics and foundational They also include research and practice oriented articles Due to space constraints the annotated bibliographies generally offer a mere sampling of what is available on each approach program model or concern The book is composed of twenty two chapters and addresses an eclectic array of topics including but not limited to the following the history of teaching and learning about social issues George S Counts and social issues propaganda analysis Harold Rugg s textbook program Hunt and Metcalf s Reflective Thinking and Social Understanding Model Donald Oliver James Shaver and Fred Newmann s Public Issues Model Massialas and Cox Inquiry Model the Engle Ochoa Decisionmaking Model human rights education Holocaust education education for sustainability economic education global education multicultural education James Beane s middle level education integrated curriculum model Science Technology Society STS addressing social issues in the English classroom genocide education interdisciplinary approaches to incorporating social issues into the curriculum critical pedagogy academic freedom and teacher education Historical Memory in Africa Mamadou Diawara,Bernard Lategan,Jörn

Rüsen,2010-06-01 A vast amount of literature both scholarly and popular now exists on the subject of historical memory but there is remarkably little available that is written from an African perspective This volume explores the inner dynamics of memory in all its variations from its most destructive and divisive impact to its remarkable potential to heal and reconcile It addresses issues on both the conceptual and the pragmatic level and its theoretical observations and reflections are informed by first hand experiences and comparative reflections from a German Indian and Korean perspective A new insight is the importance of the future dimension of memory and hence the need to develop the ability to remember with the future in mind Historical memory in an African context provides a rich kaleidoscope of the diverse experiences and perspectives and yet there are recurring themes and similar conclusions connecting it to a global dialogue to which it has much to contribute but from which it also has much to receive

Writing Politics Michael J Shapiro,2021-07-01 Writing Politics is a methods book designed to instruct on politically focused literary inquiry Exploring the political sensibilities that arise from the way literary fiction re textualizes historical periods and events the book features a series of violence themed inquiries that emphasize forms of writing as the vehicles for politically attuned historiography Each investigation treats the way the literary genre within historiographic metafiction enables political inquiry It s a form of writing that inter articulates history and fiction to rework a textual past and unsettle dominant understandings of events and situations Central to the diverse chapters are fictional treatments of authoritarian fascist or zealous mentalities Featured for example are Radovan Karadzic the architect of the Bosnian genocide Reinhard Heydrich the architect of the Holocaust s final solution and the Trotsky assassin Ramon Mercader Michael J Shapiro has produced another original and sophisticated bookshelf staple the only contemporary investigation in Political Studies that instructs on method in this way
