Fast, 2010-11-09 In the months leading up to the outbreak of World War Two Britain rushed to evacuate nearly 10 000 Jewish children from the Nazi occupied territories Through the unprecedented cooperation of religious and governmental organizations the Kindertransport spared thousands of Jewish children from the terror of the Third Reich and provided them with host families in Britain Children s Exodus offers an in depth look at the people and politics behind the various chains of rescue as well as the personal narratives of the children who left everything behind in the hope of finding safety Drawing on unpublished interviews journals and articles Vera K Fast examines the religious and political tensions that emerged throughout the migration and at times threatened to bring operations to a halt Children s Exodus captures the life affirming stories of child refugees with vivid detail and examines the motivations religious or otherwise of the people that orchestrated one of the greatest rescue missions of all time German-Speaking Jewish Refugees in Asia, 1930-1950 Joanne Miyang Cho, Eric Kurlander, Douglas McGetchin, 2025-03-31 Although most perished hundreds of thousands of Central European Jews escaped the Holocaust tens of thousands of these Jewish refugees ended up in East Asia Southeast Asia or South Asia Taking a global and transnational approach this volume examines the cultural political and socioeconomic encounters among and between Asian and European states and empires Central European Jews and Asians between 1930 and 1950 offering important case studies that address the policies toward and experiences of German speaking Jews across East Asia Southeast Asia and South Asia The strength of this volume lies not only in its efforts to include multiple theoretical perspectives which integrate German Jewish Asian and Migration Studies but also in the original empirical research on which it is based Engaging directly with the rich and growing historiography on the origins course and consequences of the Holocaust in East Southeast and South Asia this volume provides a framework in which we can better understand how global traditions of empire and colonialism matter in our efforts to understand the Holocaust while indicating that Asian states and peoples were keenly aware of the so called Jewish Question and made efforts though widely differentiated to provide shelter from the Nazi storm German Speaking Jewish Refugees in Asia 1930 1950 will appeal to students and scholars alike interested in the history of Jewish refugees in the twentieth century as well as all those interested in the modern history of German speaking Central Europe and Asia The Evian Conference of 1938 and the Jewish Refugee Crisis Paul R. Bartrop, 2017-09-17 This book provides the first dedicated study of the Evian Conference of July 1938 an international initiative called by U S President Franklin D Roosevelt While on the surface the conference appeared as an attempt to alleviate the distress faced by Jews being forced out of Germany and Austria in reality it only served to demonstrate that the nations of the world were not willing to accept Jews as refugees Since the Holocaust a generally held assumption has been that the Evian Conference represented a lost opportunity to save Germany s Jews and that the conference failed to rescue the Jews of Europe In this study Paul Bartrop argues that in fact it did not fail when measured against the original reasons for which it was called Exposing many of the myths surrounding the meeting this work addresses a glaring lacuna in the literature of the Holocaust and places the so called failure of the Evian Conference into its proper context Rethinking Jewish Faith Steven L. Jacobs,2012-02-01 This book addresses the faith of a member of the Second Generation the offspring of the original survivors of the Shoah It is a re examination of those categories of faith central to the Jewish Religious Experience in light of the Shoah God Covenant Prayer Halakhah and Mitzvot Life Cycle Festival Cycle Israel and Zionism and Christianity from the perspective of a child of a survivor Encountering Genocide Paul R. Bartrop,2014-06-30 Cutting edge in its scope and approach this unique volume offers first person accounts of modern genocides to enable readers to more fully examine genocidal experiences and better understand the horror of such events From the atrocities of the Holocaust to the ongoing horrors in Darfur genocide has been a gruesome and all too prominent fixture of modern history There is no better way to examine and understand these events than through the accounts of those involved This unique collection of primary sources features 50 documents some of which have never before been made public These firsthand accounts diary entries memoirs oral testimony original interviews and more illuminate 10 genocides of the 20th and 21st centuries as they were experienced by victims perpetrators and bystanders The book begins with the Herero Genocide 1904 1907 and ends with a consideration of the atrocities in Darfur Each of the 50 documents features a brief introduction that provides basic and essential information such as who created it as well as when where and why The work concludes with an analysis comprised of scholarly commentary additional contextual information and a list of questions that will serve as a springboard for student discussion of history and of the nature of survival in the face of evil Defiance Nechama Tec,1993 The prevailing image of European Jews during the Holocaust years is one of helpless victims under a death sentence unable to fight consignment to the ghettos to the camps and to the gas chambers In fact many Jews struggled alone or with others against the terrors of the Third Reich risking their lives against overwhelming odds for the slimmest chance of survival or a mere glimpse of freedom In Defiance Nechama Tec offers a riveting history of one such group a forest community in western Belorussia that would number more than 1 200 Jews by 1944 the largest armed rescue operation of Jews by Jews in World War II Describing the entire partisan movement in the region Tec shows that while most forest fighters in Belorussia were rifle carrying young men the members of this extraordinary community included both men and women some with weapons but mostly unarmed ranging from infants to the elderly She reconstructs for the first time the amazing details of how these partisans and their families hungry exposed to the harsh winter weather always on the lookout for German patrols managed not only to survive but to offer protection to all Jewish fugitives who could find their way to them Driven by courage born out of despair they dug wells set up workshops to repair guns made clothes and resoled shoes supplied services to other guerilla units and even established a makeshift hospital and school in the forest Arguing that this success would have been unthinkable without the vision of one man Tec offers penetrating insight into the group's commander Tuvia Bielski and his journey from his life as the son of the only Jewish peasant family in an isolated rural village to his emergence as a leader possessing the charisma and courage to command under all but impossible circumstances Tec brings to light the untold story of Bielski's struggle as a partisan who lost his parents wife and two brothers to the Nazis yet never wavered in his conviction that it was more important to save one Jew than to kill twenty Germans She shows how under Bielski's guidance the partisans smuggled Jews out of heavily guarded ghettos scouted the roads for fugitives and led retaliatory raids against Belorussian peasants who collaborated with the Nazis against their former Jewish neighbors Refusing to turn away the weak or the old for the sake of the survival of the larger group Bielski would warn new arrivals to the forest Life is difficult we are in danger all the time but if we perish if we die we die like human beings A scholar a writer and herself a Holocaust survivor author Nechama Tec has devoted the last two decades to studying the fate of European Jewry recording rare but vital examples of human compassion resistance altruism and heroism in the face of overwhelming horror and despair Drawing on wide ranging research and never before published interviews with surviving partisans including Tuvia Bielski himself two weeks before his death in 1987 she reconstructs here the poignant and unforgettable story of those who chose to fight
