

The background image is a photograph of a rugged coastline. In the foreground, a narrow, sandy path leads from the bottom center towards a dark, cave-like opening between two large, craggy rock formations. The path is illuminated by a warm, golden light, likely from the setting or rising sun. The ocean is visible beyond the path, with gentle waves lapping at the shore. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds, and the overall atmosphere is serene and contemplative.

The Holy Spirit comes to dwell within us when we believe in Christ and are redeemed. It is through the Spirit that God reveals mysteries to us, for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God.
