The Home Place A Memory And Celebration:

The Home Place Robert Drake, 1998 In this joyous reminiscence of a small town boyhood in West Tennessee Drake reflects upon his family's origins flowering and eventual decline and ponders the meaning of their lives It is a story with which many a Southerner who has grown up in twentieth century America will readily identify As a chronicle in microcosm of the gradual disintegration of the traditional extended family that has taken place all across the country in this turbulent century it speaks to modern humankind everywhere Drake concludes that the old tales about the home place were what held the family together long after the place itself was gone The Drakes were rooted in the goodness of God and the joy of the Lord The gift they had been given a happiness based ultimately on love and joy in all God's creation they in turn passed on to their family and all who came in contact with them History and geography also helped give the Drakes their identities they knew who they were because they knew where they were and when they were with no alienation from either time or place Their lives were thus whole and full Their home their family their community were all very real entities nourishing and sustaining the individual member while giving him a sense of belonging to something greater than himself They gave order and meaning to his life The times have changed but who can say that the world of the Drakes is any less meaningful to us today Perhaps the memories of that world constitute a rebuke to our frenetic lives But perhaps the legacy of their lives their times and above all their great love can still exert its healing power on modern generations For the Record Robert Drake, 2001 More than just a collection of stories and essays by beloved writer Robert Drake For the Record A Robert Drake Reader is an introduction to the craft and art of short story writing as the stories are accompanied by analyses of Drake as a short story writer and essayist My Sweetheart's House Robert Drake, 1993 Southern Writers at Century's End Jeffrey J. Folks, James A. Perkins, 2021-12-14 Since the end of World War II the South has experienced a greater awareness of growth and of its accompanying tensions than other regions of the United States The rapid change that climaxed with the war in Vietnam the Cold War civil rights demonstrations and Watergate has forced the traditional South to come to terms with social upheaval As the essays collected in Southern Writers at Century's End point out southern writing since 1975 reflects the confusion and violence that have characterized late twentieth century public culture These essays consider the work of twenty one of the foremost southern writers whose most important fiction has appeared in the last quarter of this century As the region's contemporary writers have begun to gain a wide audience critics have begun to distinguish what Hugh Holman has called the fresh the vital and the new in southern literary culture Southern Writers at Century's End is the first volume to take an extensive look at the current generation of southern writers Authors considered include James Lee Burke Fred Chappell Robert Drake Andre Dubus Clyde Edgerton Richard Ford Kaye Gibbons John Grisham Barry Hannah Mary Hood Josephine Humphreys Randall Kenan Richard Marius Bobbie Ann Mason Cormac McCarthy Tim McLaurin T R Pearson Lee Smith Anne Tyler Alice Walker and James Wilcox Genealogies in the Library of Congress Marion J.

Kaminkow,2012-09 A complement to genealogies in the Library of Congress t p of fifth v The Picture Frame, and Other Stories Robert Drake,2000 In this book of stories most never before published Robert Drake has written his most poignant collection thus far With the theme of the picture frame Drake has included people places and events of a most recent past Crowded in the picture are unforgettable images of memory and grace love and remorse But more than the characters and the subjects of the story the draw of this collection is once again Drake s use of language The language is the language of the South It is the language of humanity While the stories look back they do so without regret They were great times but so is the present From the town of Woodville to St Mark s Square in Venice Drake s powerful language draws the reader not only into the book but also into the photographs Brian Friel Geraldine Higgins,2010 This book offers a critical examination of Friel s dramatic writing both within the context of Irish storytelling and considering his crucial position as a writer from the north of Ireland negotiating between the responsibilities of art and the demands of violent conflict A New Ireland in Brazil,2008 Fresh Tracks Pamela Banting,1998 This is an exceptionally forceful collection substantial evocative and enduring much like the region of Canada the writers are addressing Saskatoon Star PhoenixContributors include Rudy Wiebe Guy Vanderhaeghe Karen Connelly Sharon Butala and others Learning from Memory Bianca Maria Pirani,Ivan Varga,2011-05-25 This challenging book with excellent contributions from international social scientists focuses on the link between body and memory that specifically refers to the use of digital technologies Neuroscientists know very well that human beings automatically and unconsciously organize their experience in their bodies into spatial units whose confines are established by changes in location temporality and the interactive elements that determine it Our memories might be less reliable than those of the average computer but they are just as capacious much more flexible and even more user friendly The aim of the present book is to outline by the body what we know of the sociology of memory The authors and editors believe that an analysis at the sociological level will prove valuable in throwing light on accounts of human behavior at the interpersonal and social level and will play an important role in our capacity to understand the neurobiological factors that underpin the various types of memory This book is an ideal resource for advanced and postgraduate students in social sciences as well as practitioners in the field of Information and Communication technologies Scholarly and accessible in tone Learning from Memory Body Memory and Technology in a Globalizing World will be read and enjoyed by members of the general public and the professional audience alike A Guide to Historic Coal Towns of the Big Sandy River Valley George D. Torok,2004 A guide to the historical coal towns of the Big Sandy River Valley that provides brief histories of each town descriptions of the buildings and structures that remain and insight into the town s residents Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1981 We are what We Celebrate Amitai Etzioni,Jared Bloom,2004-12 How did Martin Luther King Jr s birthday become a national holiday Why do we exchange presents on Christmas and Chanukah What do bunnies have to do with Easter How did Earth Day become a global holiday These questions and more are answered in this fascinating exploration into the history and meaning of holidays and rituals Edited by Amitai Etzioni one of the most influential social and political thinkers of our time this collection provides a compelling overview of the impact that holidays and rituals have on our family and communal life From community solidarity to ethnic relations to religious traditions We Are What We Celebrate argues that holidays such as Halloween Fourth of July Thanksgiving New Year's Eve and Valentine's Day play an important role in reinforcing and sometimes redefining our values as a society The collection brings together classic and original essays that for the first time offer a comprehensive overview and analysis of the important role such celebrations play in maintaining a moral order as well as in cementing family bonds building community relations and creating national identity The essays cover such topics as the creation of Thanksgiving as a national holiday the importance of holidays for children the mainstreaming of Kwanzaa and the controversy over Columbus Day celebrations Compelling and often surprising this look at holidays and rituals brings new meaning to not just the ways we celebrate but to what those celebrations tell us about ourselves and our communities Contributors Theodore Caplow Gary Cross Matthew Dennis Amitai Etzioni John R Gillis Ellen M Litwicky Diana Muir Francesca Polletta Elizabeth H Pleck David E Proctor Mary F Whiteside and Anna Day Wilde
