The Homeless Mother of Two Dieudonné Mayi, 2003      A Mother's Tribute to Two Sons Sangeeta (vainu) Airi, 2023-05-02 When we lose a loved one especially a child the grief can be overwhelming Depression sinks in Without an outlet it can be impossible to climb back to the light For anyone who is grieving A mother's tribute to two sons can be the outlet you need to remember that you are not alone This book of poetry was written in the loving memory of both the author's human son Lakshay and her pet son Milo Though they were lost in an accident their souls continue on and so they are not truly gone This book chronicles the author's journey to that understanding going through depression memories acknowledgement and the loneliness she felt trying to make herself strong All profits from the sales of this poetry collection go to support the Lakshay Foundation which helps animals and supports homeless shelters      Nowhere to Call Home: Volume Two Leah Denbok, Tem Denbok, 2018-08-28 This book continues where my first book left off with forty photographs and stories of people experiencing homelessness It is a part of my ongoing mission begun with volume one to change the general public's perception of those experiencing homelessness So often as I stated in my first book they are viewed as subhuman creatures or a lower order of being than human Through my photographs and stories I am trying to humanize them to help the general public see that apart from the unfortunate circumstances in which these people find themselves they are no different than you and I I am heartened that judging from the comments that my first book has received from people around the world my work seems to be having this effect All royalties from this book will be given to Home Horizon Transitional Support Program      Families in Crisis United States. Congress. House.
