Ruth Fielding Down East Alice B. Emerson, 2014-04-04 Across the now placidly flowing Lumano where it widened into almost the proportions of a lake just below the picturesque Red Mill a bank of tempestuous clouds was shouldering into view above the sky line of the rugged and wooded hills These slate colored clouds edged with pallid light foredoomed the continuance of the peaceful summer afternoon Not a breath of air stirred on the near side of the river The huge old elms shading the Red Mill and the farmhouse connected with it belonging to Mr Jabez Potter the miller were like painted trees so still were they The brooding heat of midday however had presaged the coming storm and it had been prepared for at mill and farmhouse The tempest was due soon The backyard of the farmhouse a beautiful lawn of short grass sloped down to the river On the bank and over the stream itself was set a summer house of fair proportions covered with vines a cool and shady retreat on the very hottest day of midsummer A big robin redbreast had been calling his raucous weather warning from the top of one of the trees near the house but with her back to the river and the coming storm the girl in the pavilion gave little heed to this good intentioned weather prophet

Packard Packard Motor Car Company, 1910      Virgil's Story Virgil D. Mochel, 2013-08-31 The first part of the story explains how Virgil's ancestors from Europe all arrived at that small region called Woodland, Indiana. Emphasis is on what was going on in that part of each one's world to cause them to migrate to this country and eventually to that spot in Indiana. Wars, religious intolerance, and decisions by the various kings or queens were the driving forces that caused so many to leave their homelands and look for better conditions. Life on a farm during the Great Depression and World War II is described in some detail. The emotional devastation upon learning of the deaths of two brothers in that war took a heavy toll on the Mochel family. The second part deals with the many varied experiences of Virgil and Marian as they traveled their life journey together up to the present time.      It Started With A Kiss Stanley Sipka, 2021-12-12 The 63-year journey for Joanne and Stan was written because everyone should have the opportunity to see how Joanne spent her life helping everyone. I surprised her with an ever-so-gentle kiss on our blind date. She said she doesn't let guys kiss her on the first date. I replied, "there is always a first time for everything." We were married on June 28, 1958, on a beautiful, sunshiny day. As the days turned to weeks, to months, and then years, our love grew. She didn't want the attention; was our cheerleader for all of us and was the center of the family. Together we were a team that lived the American dream. Joanne made me what I am today: a guy who loved her and misses her and will work to be with her in heaven.
