The House of the Lord
A Study of Holy Sanctuaries Ancient and Modern by James E Talmage
Among the numerous sects and churches of the present day the Latter day Saints are distinguished as builders of Temples In this respect they resemble Israel of olden time It is not surprising that great and widespread interest is manifest respecting this peculiarity of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints nor that questions are continually arising as to the purpose and motive behind this great labor and the nature of the ordinances administered in these modern Houses of the Lord To answer some of these questions and to place within the reach of earnest inquirers authentic information concerning the doctrine and practise of Temple ministration this book has been written By way of affording means of easy comparison between the Temple building achievements of past and those of current time a brief treatment of the sanctuaries of earlier dispensations has been included While detailed information pertaining to ancient Temples and related sanctuaries is accessible to all through cyclopedias Bible dictionaries and works of more special scope but little concerning the Temples of today and the sacred service therein rendered has been published in separate form The official History of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints contains abundant data on the subject but the information is distributed through many tomes and is of access to comparatively few Among the special publications in this field most of which are primarily devoted to the history and description of the Temple at Salt Lake City are the following Temples Descriptive and historical sketches of ancient and modern sacred edifices a pamphlet of 28 pages by J M Sjodahl Salt Lake City 1892 This covers the history of the Salt Lake City Temple to the time of the laying of the capstone April 1892 The pamphlet contains outline drawings The Salt Lake Temple an article by James H Anderson published in The Contributor Vol XIV No 6 April 1893 60 pages with numerous illustrations of the Temple at different stages together with details of construction and portraits of Church officials and others connected with the erection of the great structure Historical and descriptive sketch of the Salt Lake Temple an illustrated pamphlet of 36 pages published by the Deseret News Salt Lake City April 1893 A Description of the Great Temple Salt Lake City and a statement concerning the purposes for which it has been built a pamphlet of 40 pages by D M McAllister Salt Lake City 1912 This contains half tone engravings of both exterior and interior views In the present undertaking the author has been the recipient of many courtesies and much assistance from the officials of the several Temples the Church Historian and his assistants the general authorities of the Church and many others To all who have assisted in the pleasing labor his obligations are respectfully acknowledged The photographs showing interior views of the Salt Lake City Temple are the work of the C R Savage Company to whom thanks are tendered for liberal courteous and efficient service
