The Human Factor In Changing Africa:

The Human Factor in Changing Africa Melville J. Herskovits, 2013-11-05 Focussing on the problems of change and resistance to change that mark the African sub continent this book examines Africa s place in the world from earliest times It considers the nature of its peoples in their prehistoric development the ways in which their cultures were oriented and the ways in which these cultures guided their reactions to European ideas It also assesses the human responses to industrial technological and economic changes and the re discovery by the Africans of African culture Originally published in 1962

The Human Factor in Changing Africa Melville Jean Herskovits, 1970 The Human Factor In Changing Africa Melville J Herskovits, 2023-07-22 This groundbreaking work by anthropologist Melville J Herskovits explores the complex interplay of culture society and history in the changing landscape of Africa With a focus on the human factor of social change this book is an essential read for anyone interested in understanding the modern African experience This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Human Factor in Changing Africa - Primary Source Edition Melville J. Herskovits and the Racial Politics of Knowledge* Jerry Gershenhorn, 2004-01-01 Melville J Herskovits and the Racial Politics of Knowledge is the first full scale biography of the trailblazing anthropologist of African and African American cultures Born into a world of racial hierarchy Melville J Herskovits 1895-1963 employed physical anthropology and ethnography to undermine racist and hierarchical ways of thinking about humanity and to underscore the value of cultural diversity His research in West Africa the West Indies and South America documented the far reaching influence of African cultures in the Americas He founded the first major interdisciplinary American program in African studies in 1948 at Northwestern University and his controversial classic The Myth of the Negro Past delineated African cultural influences on American blacks and showcased the vibrancy of African American culture He also helped forge the concept of cultural relativism particularly in his book Man and His Works While Herskovits promoted African and African American studies he criticized some activist black scholars most notably Carter G Woodson and W E B Du Bois whom he considered propagandists because of their social reform orientation After World War II Herskovits became an outspoken public figure advocating African independence and attacking American policymakers who treated Africa as an object of Cold War strategy Drawing extensively on Herskovits's private papers and published works Jerry Gershenhorn's biography recognizes Herskovits's many contributions and discusses the complex consequences of his conclusions methodologies and relations with African American scholars Leopards and Leaders Malcolm Ruel,2020-04-15 This study of politics and government among a West African people the Banyang of the Upper Cross River covers the end of the period of Colonial administration The book Shows the inter relationship between the structure of the small forest communities and the highly autonomous processes by which they were governed Analyses the relationship between residence and common descent as principles of corporate grouping Includes a case study of the political struggle involved in one community's claims to independence Originally published in 1969 Defeating Mau Mau Louis Leakey,2013-11-05 The second of two important books by Louis Leakey the renowned expert on the Kikuyu tribe This book examines the organisation of the Mau Mau movement its propaganda the nature of its religious aspects and its oaths and the mistakes its leaders made as well as covering chapters on necessary reforms to prevent further outbreaks of a similar nature

Hunger and Work in a Savage Tribe Audrey I. Richards,2013-11-05 The force of hunger in shaping human character and social structure has been largely overlooked This omission is a serious one in the study of primitive society in which starvation is a constant menace This work remedies this deficiency and opens up new lines of anthropological inquiry The whole network of social institutions is examined which makes possible the consumption distribution and production of food eating customs as well as the religion and magic of food production Family and Social Change in an African City Peter Marris,2013-11-05 This book is a study of the pattern of social life which developed in the slums of central Lagos and of the effects of a compulsory slum clearance scheme on the lives of those who were removed Both parts of the study are presented clearly and vividly and are enriched with numerous quotations of statements by the people concerned as well as a quantity of information presented in statistical tables Sociological Review East African Societies Aylward Shorter,2013-11-05 Focussing on the mechanics of social change and the interaction between ethnic groups cultures structures and value systems the background questions of ecology demography and history are also examined and the process of urbanization and rural revolution described Trends in marriage and family life education and religious ideas are also discussed and case studies from each country included First published in 1974 Fields of Change among the Iteso of Kenya Ivan Karp,2013-11-05 Fields of Change is a study of the means by which the Iteso adapted to the imposition of colonial rule and the loss of political independence It explores their pacification and incorporation into a colonial state and the effects that these processes have had on Iteso territorial and political systems At the same time it examines the way in which the political system both affected and was affected by other aspects of the Iteso social system most notably in the fields of religion descent and domestic kinship First published in 1978 The Last Trek Sheila Patterson,2013-11-05 This book evaluates the historical factors that produced the Boer people and the political religious and economic forces that maintain modern Afrikaner Nationalism This last trek brings the Afrikaner back into multi racial integrating industrial society Originally published in 1957 Tribes Without Rulers John Middleton,David Tait,2013-11-05 Recent research in Africa has shown a wide range of political systems from small societies of wandering hunters to large states of several million people comparable with mediaeval European feudal kingdoms In between are many societies in which a central government is lacking the political system is based upon a balance of power between many small groups which with their lack of classes or specialized political offices have been called ordered anarchies First published in 1958 Widows and their families Peter Marris,2013-11-05 One of the first books to be published in the UK on bereavement this ground breaking study presents the results of a survey of widows in London Focussing on younger women whose husbands had died the book deals first with grief and mourning then examines the consequences of bereavement through the help of relatives and friends and the changes it brings about to the widow s family life Throughout the book the consequences of widowhood are discussed with relevance to psychological theory and to national policy Originally published in 1958 The Samburu Paul Spencer,2013-11-05 In an era of rapid change for Africa this nomadic tribe clings to its traditional way of life This book examines their society and provides the first full published description of human life in the area The author a social anthropologist spent more than two years among the Samburu as an adopted member of one of their clans he perceived how their values and attitudes are closely interwoven with a social system that resists change Case studies support the general analysis throughout Originally published in 1965 Mau Mau and the Kikuyu Louis Leakey,2013-11-05 This widely acclaimed book on a troubled period of Kenyan history summarizes some of the more important Kikuyu customs and a discussion of their break down under the impact of European civilization This discussion illustrates why and how the Mau Mau came into being and how the situation could be improved so that peace could once again come to Kenya Urban Ethnicity Abner Cohen,2004 This book examines the complex phenomenon of urban ethnicity including Britain the USA Indonesia Israel and East West and Central Africa The Nandi of Kenya G. W. B. Huntingford,2012-12-06 This book examines the political structure of the Nandi tribe in the first half of the twentieth century and contains chapters on the following Land divisions and local authorities Age sets War organisation Administrative changes Law Religion First published in 1953 Neighbours and Nationals in an African City Ward David Parkin,2013-11-05 This study analyses the way in which tribal ties are maintained in the development of a tribally mixed middle class community in Kampala Uganda Political independence in the early nineteen sixties in much of Africa created expectations of increased development education and living standards There was hope that ethnic tensions arising from false colonial boundaries might be transcended by newly emerging socio economic status groups However the new national boundaries suddenly made aliens of peoples who had migrated and settled in towns distant from their home countries The interplay of nationality ethnicity and socio economic status or class was given a new theatre Hope was dramatically tempered by nationalist and ethnic conflicts which cut across ethnically mixed small status groups of neighbours and friends In Kampala Uganda this rapidly unfolding drama resulted in the expulsion of two Kenyan ethnic groups and polarised peoples from northern and southern Uganda The essentialisation of ethnic and national identity imposed by colonialism was thus taken on in this new situation by the people themselves with the result that they became cultural starting points of social and political judgement Originally published in 1969 The Niger Journal of Richard and John Lander Robin Hallett, 2013-11-05 The journal of the Lander brothers provides a narrative of one of the most important missions of exploration in the history of West Africa The editor s introduction contains much new material on the Landers and their journey drawn from hitherto unpublished sources while an epilogue describes Richard Lander s last expedition to the Niger in 1832 4 and his death at Fernando Po Originally published in 1965
