The Highway and the City Lewis Mumford, 1963 The Highway and the City Lewis Mumford, 1953 The Highway and the City L. Mumford, 1953 The Highway and the City Eric Hoffer, 1963 The Highway and the City Lewis Mumford (Théoricien de l'architecture), 1964 101/Oregon Coast Highway Reconstruction, Pacific Way in the City of Gerhart to Dooley Bridge in the City of Seaside, Clatsop County, 2005 Looking Beyond the Highway Claudette Stager, Martha Carver, 2006 Looking beyond the Highway is an examination of road history and roadside attractions specific to the South Focused in part on numerous aspects of the material culture landscape of the Dixie Highway the essays consider the politics of roadbuilding roadside entertainment the buildings and businesses one might encounter along the road and regional adaptations to the needs and desires of northern tourists Following the Dixie Highway from southern Illinois to Florida with sidetrips down other southern roads the essays cover a wide variety of subjects many of which will resonate with anyone who has ever lived in or vacationed in the South Harrison Mayes's Get Right With God signs the park and pray craze of outdoor drive in church services the rise and demise of brick highways the fierce political battle over the route of the Dixie Highway beach music and the evolution of motel architecture in Myrtle Beach Florida's early tourist towers and the commercial development of Tennessee caves as tourist attractions Covering a landscape that includes Tennessee Georgia North Carolina Florida Mississippi Indiana Virginia Arkansas Ohio Kentucky Alabama and Illinois the anthology shows that there was and still is a distinctive southern culture and how roads have influenced that culture As lively as they are diverse the articles provide a solid background for understanding roadside ephemera that have disappeared or are quickly disappearing Ranging from the serious to the light hearted and including descriptions of American road and roadside icons to kitsch the book will appeal to anyone with an interest in road history and roadside architecture Journal of the Common Council of the City of Detroit, 1913 Annual Report of the Massachusetts Highway Commission Massachusetts. situates citizenship as both a site of resistance and a mode of public engagement that cannot be divorced from race and the effects of racism Through this framework Struggle for the City demonstrates how local organizers leaders and residents used rhetorics of placemaking community organizing and critical memory to resist the bulldozing visions of urban renewal By showing how African American residents built political community at the local level and by centering the residents in their own narratives of displacement Handley recovers strategies of resistance that continue to influence the actions of the Black Freedom Movement including Black Lives Matter

Tiezzi,2010 Addresses the multi disciplinary aspects of urban planning a result of the increasing size of cities the amount of resources and services required and the complexity of modern society Innovative tools are required for identifying the high complexity of contemporary cities It is necessary to provide a more scientific approach to urban studies inspired by Prigogine s theories of dissipative structures and to highlight relations between different systems and between systems and the environment The challenge of placing sustainable contemporary cities lies in considering the dynamics of urban systems exchange of energy and matter and the function and maintenance of ordered structures directly or indirectly supplied and maintained by natural systems The task of researchers aware of the complexity of the contemporary city is to increase the capacity to manage human activities pursuing welfare and prosperity in sustainable cities Reports of Cases Argued and Determined in the Supreme Court of Errors of the State of Connecticut Connecticut.
