Jewish Responses to Persecution: 1944-1946 Leah Wolfson,2015-08-13 Published in association with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum With its unique combination of primary sources and historical narrative Jewish Responses to Persecution 1944 1946 provides an important new perspective on Holocaust history Covering the final year of Nazi destruction and the immediate postwar years it traces the increasingly urgent Jewish struggle for survival which included armed resistance and organized escape attempts Shedding light on the personal and public lives of Jews this book provides compelling insights into a wide range of Jewish experiences during the Holocaust Jewish individuals and communities suffered through this devastating period and reflected on the Holocaust differently depending on their nationality personal and communal histories and traditions political beliefs economic situations and other life history The rich spectrum of primary source material collected including letters diary entries photographs transcripts of speeches and radio addresses newspaper articles drawings and official government and institutional memos and reports makes this volume an essential research tool and curriculum companion Books Across Borders Miriam Intrator,2019-06-19 Books Across Borders UNESCO and the Politics of Postwar Cultural Reconstruction 1945 1951 is a history of the emotional ideological informational and technical power and meaning of books and libraries in the aftermath of World War II examined through the cultural reconstruction activities undertaken by the Libraries Section of the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization UNESCO The book focuses on the key actors and on the ground work of the Libraries Section in four central areas empowering libraries around the world to acquire the books they wanted and needed facilitating expanded global production of quality translations and affordable books participating in debates over the contested fate of confiscated books and displaced libraries and formulating notions of cultural rights as human rights Through examples from France Poland and surviving Jewish Europe this book provides new insight into the complexities and specificities of UNESCO s role in the realm of books libraries and networks of information exchange during the early postwar post Holocaust Cold War years

Confronting the Yugoslav Controversies Charles W. Ingrao,Thomas Allan Emmert,2013 This collection of essays examines Yugoslavia s dissolution and the subsequent wars Disaster Management in Archives, Libraries and Museums Graham Matthews,Yvonne Smith,2016-12-05 This important book assesses the current state of disaster management in archives libraries and museums in the UK and around the world and provides recommendations for addressing current and future threats Following an introductory outline of the topic and terminology the authors provide a short history of the development of disaster management in the cultural heritage sector They illustrate a basic framework for effective disaster management by reviewing disaster control plan practice from around the world Through examining and identify the key issues affecting disaster management in archives libraries and museums the authors discuss a priority structure for future implementation This book will be key reading for scholars and students of archive studies library and information and museum management It will also be extremely useful for professionals and policy makers involved in disaster management planning at a local and national level

The Demise of the Library School Richard J. Cox, 2010 In The Demise of the Library School Richard J Cox places the present and future of professional education for librarianship in the debate on the modern corporate university The book is a series of meditations on critical themes relating to the education of librarians archivists and other information professionals playing off of other commentators analyzing the nature of higher education and its problems and promises

Stolen Words Mark Glickman, 2016-02 Stolen Words is an epic story about the largest collection of Jewish books in the world tens of millions of books that the Nazis looted from European Jewish families and institutions Nazi soldiers and civilians emptied Jewish communal libraries confiscated volumes from government collections and stole from Jewish individuals schools and synagogues Early in their regime the Nazis burned some books in spectacular bonfires but most they saved stashing the literary loot in castles abandoned mine shafts and warehouses throughout Europe It was the largest and most extensive book looting campaign in history After the war Allied forces discovered these troves of stolen books but quickly found themselves facing a barrage of questions How could the books be identified Where should they go Who had the authority to make such decisions Eventually the military turned the books over to an organization of leading Jewish scholars called Jewish Cultural Reconstruction Inc whose chairman was the acclaimed historian Salo Baron and whose on the ground director was the philosopher Hannah Arendt with the charge of establishing restitution protocols Stolen Words is the story of how a free civilization decides what to do with the material remains of a world torn asunder and how those remains connect survivors with their past It is the story of Jews struggling to understand the new realities of their post Holocaust world and of Western society's gradual realization of the magnitude of devastation wrought by World War II Most of all it is the story of people of Nazi leaders ideologues and Judaica experts of Allied soldiers scholars and scoundrels and of Jewish communities librarians and readers around the world

Harun Farocki Thomas Elsaesser, 2004 Filmmaker film essayist installation artist writer the Berlin artist Harun Farocki has devoted his life to the power of images Over the thirty plus years of his career Farocki has explored not the images of life but rather the life of images that surrounds us in newspapers cinema books television and advertising Harun Farocki examines from different critical perspectives his vast oeuvre which includes three feature films critical media pieces children's television features learning films in the tradition of Brecht and installation pieces Interviews a selection of Farocki's own writings and an annotated filmography complete a valuable biography of this pioneering artist and his legendary career

Synagogues in the Islamic World Mohammad Gharipour, 2019-07-30 This beautifully illustrated volume looks at the spaces created by and for Jews in areas under the political or religious control of Muslims Covering regions as diverse as Central Asia the Middle East North Africa and Spain it asks how the architecture of synagogues responded to contextual issues and traditions and how these contexts influenced the design and evolution of synagogues As well as revealing how synagogues reflect the culture of the Jewish minority at macro and micro scales from the city to the interior the book also considers patterns of the development of synagogues in urban contexts and in connection with urban elements and monuments The A to Z of Bosnia and Herzegovina Ante Cuvalo, 2010-04-08 Diversity has always been at the heart of Bosnia and Herzegovina's character even its dual name and physical geography display a particular heterogeneity The medieval Bosnian state never enjoyed lasting political and ideological unity as its feudal regional and religious rifts pulled at the country's seams Furthermore because of its location and by a quirk of history three major world religious and cultural traditions Catholicism Islam and Orthodoxy became cohabitants in this small Balkan country Recently the rebirth of its statehood has been exceptionally bloody and its diversity has been shaken Even 11 years after the guns were silenced the country is still under the benevolent protection of the international community whose officials are keeping the state building process in perpetual suspense with no final result in sight The A to Z of Bosnia and Herzegovina sheds light on the uncertain situation Bosnia and Herzegovina faces while providing essential background information This is accomplished through a chronology an introduction a bibliography and more than 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on individual topics spanning Bosnia and Herzegovina's political economic religious and social system along with short biographies on important figures A History of the Laws of War: Volume 3 Alexander Gillespie, 2011-10-07 This unique work of reference traces the origins of the modern laws of warfare from the earliest times to the present day Relying on written records from as far back as 2400 BCE and using sources ranging from the Bible to Security Council Resolutions the author pieces together the history of a subject which is almost as old as civilisation itself The author shows that as long as humanity has been waging wars it has also been trying to find ways of legitimising different forms of combatants and ascribing rules to them protecting civilians who are either inadvertently or intentionally caught up between them and controlling the use of particular classes of weapons that may be used in times of conflict Thus it is that this work is divided into three substantial parts Volume 1 on the laws affecting combatants and captives Volume 2 on civilians and Volume 3 on the law of arms control This third volume deals with the question of the control of weaponry from the Bronze Age to the Nuclear Age In doing so it divides into two parts namely conventional weapons and Weapons of Mass Destruction The examination of the history of arms control of conventional weapons begins with the control of weaponry so that one side could achieve a military advantage over another This pattern which only began to change centuries after the advent of gunpowder was later supplemented by ideals to control types of conventional weapons because their impacts upon opposing combatants were inhumane By the late twentieth century the concerns over inhumane conventional weapons were being supplemented by concerns over indiscriminate conventional weapons The focus on indiscriminate weapons when applied on a mass scale is the core of the second part of the volume Weapons of Mass Destruction are primarily weapons of the latter half of the twentieth century Although both chemical and biological warfare have long historical lineages it was only after the Second World War that technological developments meant that these weapons could be applied to cause large scale damage to non combatants thi is unlike uclear weapons which are a truly modern invention Despite being the newest Weapon of Mass Destruction they are also the weapon of which most international attention has been applied although the frameworks by which they were contained in the last century appear inadequate to address the needs of current times As a work of reference this set of three books is unrivalled and will be of immense benefit to scholars and practitioners researching and advising on the laws of warfare It also tells a story which throws fascinating new light on the history of international law and on the history of warfare itself Slow Fire: Jewish Notes from Berlin Susan Neiman,2010-08-22 BERLIN East and West day and night in the 80s before the Wall fell Through the eyes of a U S philosophy student And Jewish which makes for moments awkward poignant crass funny and always lurking A city was divided America the occupier and the cigarettes not named Salem because it sounds too Jewish The debut memoirs from the author of Moral Clarity a N Y Times 2008 Notable Book Annual Report of the American Scenic and Historic Preservation Society to the Legislature of the State of New York American Scenic and Historic Preservation Society,1915 Portal ,2002 Libri ,2002 Vols 4 24 include Communications of the International Federation of Library Associations IFLA FIAB ICA Newsletter International Communication Association,1995 Spectra ,1996 Antiquarian Book Monthly ,1996 Documents ,1992

Adopting the Beat of Expression: An Psychological Symphony within The Holocaust And The Destruction And Preservation

In a global consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of immediate transmission, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony produced by the written term often disappear in to the background, eclipsed by the relentless sound and disturbances that permeate our lives. However, situated within the pages of The Holocaust And The Destruction And Preservation a stunning literary treasure overflowing with natural feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant musician of language, this charming masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological trip, well unraveling the hidden melodies and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of this touching review, we shall examine the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing design, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
