Ruth Mellinkoff: The horned Moses in medieval art and thought. 1970. [Review]. Adelheid Heimann, The Monstrous Races in Medieval Art and Thought John Block Friedman, 2020-09-01 Beyond the boundaries of the known Christian world during the Middle Ages there were alien cultures that intrigued puzzled and sometimes frightened the people of Europe The reports of travelers in Africa and Asia revealed that monstrous races of men lived there whose appearance and customs were quite different from the European norm This book examines the impact of these races upon Western art literature and philosophy from their earliest mention until the age of exploration Friedman furnishes a descriptive catalog of the races most of which were real geographically remote peoples some of which were fabled creatures that served as symbols He traces the evolution of European attitudes toward them with particular emphasis on the high Middle Ages when they seem most strongly to have captured the Western imagination Ranging through literature the arts cartography canon law and theology he considers the widely varying ways in which Christians viewed and depicted strange races of men Finally he examines transformations in European consciousness brought about by the discoveries of the exotic peoples of the Americas Whatever their form pygmy giant hirsute cave dweller cyclops or Amazon the monstrous races clearly challenged the traditional concept of man in the Christian world scheme It is the medieval thinking about this challenge that Mr Friedman addresses in this revealing account

Art and Dis-illusion in the Long Sixteenth Century Larry Silver, 2023-04-12 Whereas entire libraries discuss the religious and political history of the sixteenth century in Northern Europe focused on the Reformation and the rise of nation states Larry Silver uniquely traces the dramatic even traumatic changes of the Reformation era discernible in the visual arts especially paintings and the new medium of prints Among the subjects and themes he explores are the destruction of church images witchcraft reactions to new voyages of exploration and issues of vision itself in an age when moral codes and the nature of sin and death were being re examined

Sacred Disobedience Sharon L. Coggan, 2020-07-07 Sacred Disobedience A Jungian Analysis of the Saga of Pan and the Devil traces the ancient Greek God Pan who became distorted into the image of the Devil in early Christianity When Pan was demonized the powerful qualities he represented became repressed as Pan's visage twisted into the model of the Devil This book follows a Jungian analysis of this development In ancient Greek religion Pan was worshipped as an honored deity corresponding to an inner psycho spiritual condition in which the primitive qualities he represented were fully integrated into consciousness and these qualities were valued and affirmed as holy But in the era of early Christianity Pan dies and the Devil is born a twisted inflation possibly due to an underlying repression In the Jungian system repressed psychic contents do not disappear as proponents of the new order tacitly assume but distort and grow more powerful or inflate to cripple the psyche that refuses to incorporate these split off elements Repressed contents will expand to explosive force as the repressed elements eventually return regressively from below It becomes important then to understand what qualities the primitive Goat God carried to appreciate what was repressed in the Western psycho spiritual system and what subsequently needs reintegration

Animals and Hunters in the Late Middle Ages Hannele Klemettilä,2015-03-02 This book explores views of the natural world in the late Middle Ages especially as expressed in Livre de chasse Book of the Hunt the most influential hunting book of the era It shows that killing and maiming suffering and the death of animals were not insignificant topics to late medieval men but constituted a complex set of issues and could provoke very contradictory thoughts and feelings that varied according social and cultural milieus and particular cases and circumstances Handbook to Life in the Medieval World, 3-Volume Set Madeleine Perner Cosman,Linda Gale Jones,2009 Presents a three volume set that examines the medieval civilizations of the Muslims Jews and Christians including history economics medicine technology art literature and clothing The Jewish Persona in the European Imagination Leonid Livak,2010-09-10 This book proposes that the idea of the Jews in European cultures has little to do with actual Jews but rather is derived from the conception of Jews as Christianity s paradigmatic Other eternally reenacting their morally ambiguous New Testament role as the Christ bearing and killing chosen people of God Through new readings of canonical Russian literary texts by Gogol Turgenev Chekhov Babel and others the author argues that these European writers Christian secular and Jewish based their representation of Jews on the Christian exegetical tradition of anti Judaism Indeed Livak disputes the classification of some Jewish writers as belonging to Jewish literature arguing that such an approach obscures these writers debt to European literary traditions and their ambivalence about their Jewishness This work seeks to move the study of Russian literature and Russian Jewish literature in particular down a new path It will stir up controversy around Christian Jewish cultural interaction the representation of otherness in European arts and folklore modern Jewish experience and Russian literature and culture Chaucer and the Jews Sheila Delany,2013-10-11 This edited collection explores the importance of the Jews in the English Christian imagination of the 14th and 15th centuries long after their expulsion from Britain in 1290 Acheloios, Thales, and the Origin of Philosophy Nicholas J. Molinari,2022-05-12 Through careful analysis of the archaeological record close reading of ancient sources and deep investigations into the languages of our past this study demonstrates the importance of the influence of the cult of Acheloios on Thales fundamentally changing our understanding of the origin of the philosophical experience in 6th century Ionia Byzantium, a World Civilization Angeliki E. Laiou, Henry Maguire,1992 These seven chapters originally given as lectures honoring the fiftieth anniversary of Dumbarton Oaks cover a wide range of topics from the relationship of Byzantium with its Islamic Slavic and Western European neighbors to the modern reception of Byzantine art The Arnolfini Betrothal Edwin Hall,1997-01-01 Edwin Hall s accessible study of Jan van Eyck s 1434 painting known as the Arnolfini Wedding makes a unique contribution to the fascinating history of betrothal and marriage custom ritual and ceremony and offers a compelling new interpretation of this wonderful work of art 16 color plates 62 b w illustrations Images of Intolerance Sara Lipton,1999-09-28 Around the year 1225 an illuminated Bible was made for the king of France That work and a companion volume the two earliest surviving manuscripts of the Bible moralis e are remarkable in a number of ways they are massive in scope they combine text and image to an unprecedented extent and their illustrations almost unique among medieval images in depicting contemporary figures and situations comprise a vehement visual polemic against the Jews In Images of Intolerance Sara Lipton offers a nuanced and insightful reading of these extraordinary sources Lipton investigates representations of Jews economic activities the depiction of Jews scriptures in relation to Christian learning the alleged association of Jews with heretics and other malefactors in Christian society and their position in Christian eschatology Jews are portrayed as threatening the purity of the Body of Christ the integrity of the text of scripture the faith mores and study habits of students and the spiritual health of Christendom itself Most interesting however is that the menacing themes in the Bible moralis e are represented in text and images as aspects of Jewish perfidy that are rampant among Christians as well This innovative interdisciplinary study brings new understanding to the nature and development of social intolerance and to the role art can play in that development

Marking the Jews in Renaissance Italy Flora Cassen,2017-08-03 It is a little known fact that as early as the thirteenth century Europe s political and religious powers tried to physically mark and distinguish the Jews from the rest of society During the Renaissance Italian Jews first had to wear a yellow round badge on their chest and then later a yellow beret The discriminatory marks were a widespread phenomenon with serious consequences for Jewish communities and their relations with Christians Beginning with a sartorial study how the Jews were marked on their clothing and what these marks meant the book offers an in depth analysis of anti Jewish discrimination across three Italian city states Milan Genoa and Piedmont Moving beyond Italy it also examines the place of Jews and Jewry law in the increasingly interconnected world of Early Modern European politics

Discovering Exodus Ralph K. Hawkins,2021-05-06 This concise introduction to the interpretation of the book of Exodus encourages in depth study of the text and deliberate grappling with related theological and historical questions by providing a critical assessment of key interpreters and interpretative debates It draws on a range of methodological approaches author text and reader centered and reflects the growing scholarly attention to the reception history of biblical texts increasingly viewed as a vital aspect of interpretation rather than an optional extra Throughout Discovering Exodus Ralph Hawkins gives strategies for reading the book of Exodus including archaeological criticism He also reviews key issues raised by Exodus and connects these issues to questions of how this important Old Testament book should be interpreted today

Illuminating the Middle Ages Laura Cleaver,Alix Bovey,Lucy Donkin,2020-03-31 The twenty eight essays in this collection showcase cutting edge research in manuscript studies encompassing material from late antiquity to the Renaissance The volume celebrates the exceptional contribution of John Lowden to the study of medieval books The authors explore some of the themes and questions raised in

John's work tackling issues of meaning making patronage the book as an object relationships between text and image and the transmission of ideas They combine John's commitment to the close scrutiny of manuscripts with an interrogation of what the books meant in their own time and what they mean to us now Texts of the Passion Thomas H. Bestul, 2015-08-05 In this book Thomas H Bestul constructs the literary history of the Latin Passion narratives placing them within their social cultural and historical contexts He examines the ways in which the Passion is narrated and renarrated in devotional treatises paying particular attention to the modifications and enlargements of the narrative of the Passion as it is presented in the canonical gospels Of particular interest to Bestul are the representations of Jews women and the body of the crucified Christ Bestul argues that the greatly enlarged role of the Jews in the Passion narratives of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries is connected to the rising anti Judaism of the period He explores how the representations of women particularly the Virgin Mary express cultural values about the place of women in late medieval society and reveal an increased interest in female subjectivity

Portraying the Land Rehav Rubin, 2018-05-22 The book presents and discusses a large corpus of Jewish maps of the Holy Land that were drawn by Jewish scholars from the 11th to the 20th century and thus fills a significant lacuna both in the history of cartography and in Jewish studies The maps depict the biblical borders of the Holy Land the allotments of the tribes and the forty years of wanderings in the desert Most of these maps are in Hebrew although there are several in Yiddish Ladino and in European languages The book focuses on four aspects it presents an up to date corpus of known maps of various types and genres it suggests a classification of these maps according to their source shape and content it presents and analyses the main topics that were depicted in the maps and it puts the maps in their historical and cultural contexts both within the Jewish world and the sphere of European cartography of their time The book is an innovative contribution to the fields of history of cartography and Jewish studies It is written for both professional readers and the general public The Hebrew edition 2014 won the Izhak Ben Zvi Prize Studies in Manuscript Illumination, 1200-1400 Lucy Freeman Sandler, 2007-12-31 The author is Helen Gould Sheppard Professor of Art History at New York University Institute of Fine Arts and a leading authority on English medieval manuscript illumination This volume brings together twenty six of Professor Sandler's studies focusing on illustrated manuscripts produced in England in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries particularly on the illuminated psalters The marginal illustrations in these psalters are a topic of particular interest and there are a number of iconographic studies derived from this material A separate section deals with the illustrated encyclopedias of the period particularly the Omne bonum
