Islam and China's Hong Kong Wai-Yip Ho,2013-06-07 Hong Kong is a global city state under the sovereignty of the People s Republic of China and is home to around 250 000 Muslims practicing Islam However existing studies of the Muslim majority communities in Asia and the Northwest China largely ignore the Muslim community in Hong Kong Islam and China s Hong Kong skillfully fills this gap and investigates how ethnic and Chinese speaking Muslims negotiate their identities and the increasing public attention to Islam in Hong Kong Examining a range of issues and challenges facing Muslims in Hong Kong this book focuses on the three different diasporic Muslim communities and reveals the city state s triple Islamic heritage and distinctive Islamic culture It begins with the transition from the colonial to the post colonial era and explores how this has impacted on the experiences of the Muslim diaspora and the ways this shift has compelled the community to adapt to Chinese nationalism whilst forging greater links with the Gulf Then with reference to the rise of new media and technology the book examines the heightened presence of Islam in the Chinese public sphere alongside the emergence of Chinese Islamic websites which have sought to balance transnational Muslim solidarity and sensitivity towards Chinese government s concern of external extremism Finally it concludes by investigating Hong Kong s growing awareness of the Muslim minorities demands for Islamic religious education and how this links with the city state s aspiration to become the new gateway for Islamic finance Indeed Wai Yip Ho posits that Hong Kong is now shifting from its role as the broker that bridged East and West during the Cold War to that of a new mediator between China and the Middle East Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book thoughtfully charts a new area of inquiry and as such will be welcomed by students and scholars of Chinese studies Islamic studies Asian studies and ethnicity studies iMuslims Gary R. Bunt,2009-04-30 Exploring the increasing impact of the Internet on Muslims around the world this book sheds new light on the nature of contemporary Islamic discourse identity and community The Internet has profoundly shaped how both Muslims and non Muslims perceive Islam and how Islamic societies and networks are evolving and shifting in the twenty first century says Gary Bunt While Islamic society has deep historical patterns of global exchange the Internet has transformed how many Muslims practice the duties and rituals of Islam A place of religious instruction may exist solely in the virtual world for example or a community may gather only online Drawing on more than a decade of online research Bunt shows how social networking sites blogs and other cyber Islamic environments have exposed Muslims to new influences outside the traditional spheres of Islamic knowledge and authority Furthermore the Internet has dramatically influenced forms of Islamic activism and radicalization including jihad oriented campaigns by networks such as al Qaeda By surveying the broad spectrum of approaches used to present dimensions of Islamic social spiritual and political life on the Internet iMuslims encourages diverse understandings of online Islam and of Islam generally

Tittensor,2014-02-28 David Tittensor offers a groundbreaking new perspective on the G len movement a Turkish Muslim educational activist network that emerged in the 1960s and has grown into a global empire with an estimated worth of 25 billion Named after its leader Fethullah G len the movement has established more than 1 000 secular educational institutions in over 140 countries aiming to provide holistic education that incorporates both spirituality and the secular sciences Despite the movement s success little is known about how its schools are run or how Islam is operationalized Drawing on thirteen months of ethnographic fieldwork in Turkey Tittensor explores the movement s ideo theology and how it is practiced in the schools His interviews with both teachers and graduates from Africa Indonesia Central Asia and Turkey show that the movement is a missionary organization but of a singular kind its goal is not simply widespread religious conversion but a quest to recoup those Muslims who have apparently lost their way and to show non Muslims that Muslims can embrace modernity and integrate into the wider community Tittensor also examines the movement s operational side and shows how the schools represent an example of Mohammad Yunus s social business model a business with a social cause at its heart The House of Service is an insightful exploration of one of the world s largest transnational Muslim associations and will be invaluable for those seeking to understand how Islam will be perceived and practiced in the future Islamic Heritage
