The Hughes Papers:

The Hughes Papers Elaine Davenport, 1976-12-12 The Hughes Papers Elaine Davenport, Mark Hurwitz, 1977 The Hughes Papers: Howard Hughes' Final Years Elaine Davenport, The Hughes papers Thomas Fiott Hughes, 1874

Howard Hughes' final years, based on an examination of the Hughes papers Elaine Davenport, Paul Eddy, Mark Hurwitz, 1977 Shadow Archives Jean-Christophe Cloutier, 2019-09-03 Recasting the history of African American literature Shadow Archives brings to life a slew of newly discovered texts including Claude McKay's Amiable with Big Teeth to tell the stories of black special collections and their struggle for institutional recognition Jean Christophe Cloutier offers revelatory readings of major African American writers including McKay Richard Wright Ann Petry and Ralph Ellison and provides a nuanced view of how archival methodology access and the power dynamics of acquisitions shape literary history Shadow Archives argues that the notion of the archive is crucial to our understanding of postwar African American literary history Cloutier combines his own experiences as a researcher and archivist with a theoretically rich account of the archive to offer a pioneering study of the importance of African American authors archival practices and how these shaped their writing Given the lack of institutions dedicated to the black experience the novel became an alternative site of historical preservation a means to ensure both individual legacy and group survival Such archivism manifests in the work of these authors through evolving lifecycles where documents undergo repurposing revision insertion falsification transformation and fictionalization sometimes across decades An innovative interdisciplinary consideration of literary papers Shadow Archives proposes new ways for literary scholars to engage with the archive Elements of Judicial Strategy Walter F. Murphy, 2016-06-01

Sessional Papers of the Dominion of Canada Canada. Parliament, 1901 Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario 1893 issued as vol 26 no 7 supplement William Howard Hughes Papers William Howard Hughes, 1945 Chiefly papers relating to Hughes's death and burial together with his World War II U S Army military discharge and a marriage certificate 1970 Bankers and Diplomats in China 1917-1925 Roberta Allbert Dayer, 2013-11-05 First Published in 1981 Contrary to Chairman Mao's assertion that political power comes from the barrel of a gun this study contends that political power in China in the early 1920s emanated from the boardrooms of foreign banks The author's interest in the way financial concerns have shaped foreign policy began with the discovery that the Lloyd George government attempted to influence the American government's policy on the British war debts by offering concessions concerning the renewal of the Anglo Japanese Alliance This study should provide understanding concerning the causes of Chinese bitterness as well as suggest the conflicts experienced by diplomats in balancing public and private interests Margaret Bonds John Michael Cooper, 2025 Composer pianist teacher and social justice activist Margaret Bonds fought against racism sexism and economic injustice throughout her career amassing a portfolio of social justice compositions unrivalled in eloquence and originality which challenged longstanding barriers between Black and White male and female popular and classical During her lifetime the political economy of music publishing consigned most of her music to manuscript dissemination and since her death despite the enduring popularity of works such as He's Got the Whole World in His Hand and The Ballad of the Brown King her success in transcending the barriers she faced as an African American and a woman has been obscured by the forces of racism and sexism in concert life which together with White and male dominated music historiography have viewed her life and work through the lens of specious racist and sexist tropes This book draws on an unprecedented mass of archival evidence to set aside those tropes and offer a fresh portrait of Margaret Bonds Examining her published and unpublished music it shows how the child prodigy rose to become the first African American woman whose music was performed widely in Africa one of the first African American women whose music was broadcast on European radio the first African American woman and pianist to perform with a major U S orchestra the second African American woman in classical music to attain full membership in ASCAP the first woman Black or White to win not one or two but three awards from that predominantly White and male organization the lasting musical voice of Langston Hughes and the teacher of other notables including Ned Rorem and Cheryl Wall It thus shows how the confluence of natural genius matrilineal and racial pride faith and support from the community of African American artists intellectuals and institutions enabled Margaret Bonds to become one of the most extraordinary figures in all of twentieth century music In response to the increasing globalization of music the Composers across Cultures series formerly the Master Musicians series seeks to explore the inexhaustible diversity of music and its common links to our shared humanity

The Page is Printed Carrie Smith, 2021 This book chronicles the major untold story of Ted Hughes's poetic development by exploring the drafts typescripts source reading letters additions and deletions that form his poetic palimpsests In the process it offers a template for new approaches in authorship studies reframing one of the twentieth century's most iconic literary figures through the unseen histories of his creative processes

The Lyre Book Matthew Kilbane, 2024-02-27 This work explores the lyric poem as an indispensable artifact at the intersection of literary and media studies and a critical index of the social history of technological change

The Royal Army Chaplains' Department, 1796-1953 Michael Francis Snape, 2008 A survey and reassessment of the role of the army chaplain in its first 150 years Few military or ecclesiastical figures are as controversial as the military chaplain routinely attacked by pacifist and anticlerical commentators and too readily dismissed by religious and military historians This highly revisionist study represents a complete reappraisal of the role of the British army chaplain and of the Royal Army Chaplains Department in the first century and a half of its existence Challenging old caricatures and stereotypes and drawing on a wealth of new archival material it surveys the political denominational and organisational development of the R A Ch D analyses the changing role and experience of the British army chaplain across the nineteenth century and the two World Wars and addresses the wider significance of British army chaplaincy for Britain's military religious and cultural history over the period c 1800 1950

MICHAEL SNAPE is Senior Lecturer in Modern History at the University of Birmingham The volume has a Foreword by Richard Holmes Zora and Langston Yuval Taylor, 2019-03-26 Finalist for the 2019 Los Angeles Times Book Prize in Biography A complete pleasure to read Lisa Page Washington Post Novelist Zora Neale Hurston and poet Langston Hughes two of America's greatest writers first met in New York City in 1925 Drawn to each other they helped launch a radical journal Fire Later meeting by accident in Alabama they became close as they traveled together Hurston interviewing African Americans for folk stories Hughes getting his first taste of the deep South By illuminating their lives work competitiveness and ambitions Yuval Taylor savvily details how their friendship and literary collaborations dead ended in acrimonious accusations History Of Australia (Volumes 5 & 6) Manning Clark, 1999-09-13 Manning Clark's six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian writing It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history in which the struggle to realise an Australian nation is played out on an epic scale A History of Australia 1888 1945 covers Federation the Boer War and World War I's Gallipoli It finishes with the story of an emerging Australian identity at the point of its greatest trial the outbreak of World War II This is not a general Australian history it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis It is a work of art a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent history come alive The Black Pacific Narrative Etsuko Taketani, 2014-11-04 The Black Pacific Narrative Geographic Imaginings of Race and Empire between the World Wars chronicles the profound shift in geographic imaginings that occurred in African American culture as the United States evolved into a bioceanic global power The author examines the narrative of the black Pacific _ the literary and cultural production of African American narratives in the face of America's efforts to internationalize the Pacific and to institute a Pacific Community reflecting a vision of a hemispheric regional order initiated and led by the United States The black Pacific was imagined in counterpoint to this regional order in the making which would ultimately be challenged by the Pacific War The principal subjects of study include such literary and cultural figures as James Weldon Johnson George S Schuyler artists of the black Federal Theatre Project Langston Hughes W E B Du Bois and Walter White all of whom afford significant points of entry to a critical understanding of the stakes of the black Pacific narrative Adopting an approach that mixes the archival and the interpretive the author seeks to recover the black Pacific produced by African American narratives narratives that were significant enough in their time to warrant surveillance and suspicion and hence are significant enough in our time to warrant scholarly attention and reappraisal A compelling study that will appeal to a broad international audience of students and scholars of American studies African American studies American literature and imperialism and colonialism A User's Guide to the Millennium J. G. Ballard, 1997-04-15 A collection of novelist's non-fiction writings spanning more than thirty years addresses topics including the arts science literature popular culture and his own life Technical Association Papers Technical Association of the Pulp and Paper Industry, 1929 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
