Containing over 60 000 entries this new edition of the authoritative work on slang details the slang and unconventional English of the English speaking world since 1945 and through the first decade of the new millennium with the same thorough intense and lively scholarship that characterized Partridge's own work. Unique exciting and at times hilariously shocking key features include unprecedented coverage of World English with equal prominence given to American and British English slang and entries included from Australia New Zealand Canada India South Africa Ireland and the Caribbean emphasis on post World War II slang and unconventional English published sources given for each entry often including an early or significant example of the term's use in print hundreds of thousands of citations from popular literature newspapers magazines movies and songs illustrating usage of the headwords dating information for each headword in the tradition of Partridge commentary on the term's origins and meaning New to this edition A new preface noting slang trends of the last five years Over 1 000 new entries from the US UK and Australia New terms from the language of social networking Many entries now revised to include new dating new citations from written sources and new glosses The New Partridge Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English is a spectacular resource infused with humour and learning it's rude it's delightful and it's a prize for anyone with a love of language

New Journalisms Karen Fowler-Watt, Stephen Jukes, 2019-07-03 In this current period of uncertainty and introspection in the media New Journalisms not only focuses on new challenges facing journalism but also seeks to capture a wide range of new practices that are being employed across a diversity of media. This edited collection explores how these new practices can lead to a reimagining of journalism in terms of practice theory and pedagogy bringing together high profile academics emerging researchers and well known journalism practitioners. The book's opening chapters assess the challenges of loss of trust and connectivity shifting professional identity and the demise of local journalism. A section on new practices evaluates algorithms online participatory news websites and verification. Finally the collection explores whether new pedagogies offer potential routes to new journalisms. Representing a timely intervention in the debate and providing sustainable impact through its forward looking focus New Journalisms is essential reading for students of journalism and media studies
