Slow Cooking Not So Fast Food:

Not So Fast Ann Kroeker, 2010-01-01 We're raising our kids in a high speed high pressured 24/7 world. Pushing children to get ahead we cram everything possible into our days to maximize their chance at success. We're overloaded, overextended, overcommitted and overcaffeinated. And we're paying a price. Our relationships are anemic, our health in jeopardy. Half awake and half hearted we can't sustain this pace. But how can we possibly downshift without missing out? Not So Fast: Slow Down Solutions for Frenzied Families explores the jarring effects of our over-committed culture and offers refreshing alternatives. Author Ann Kroeker relates her own story of how embracing a slower everyday pace resulted in a more meaningful family and spiritual life. Practical ideas and insight will spark creativity and personal reflection. Plus ponder real life stories from parents who chucked the high speed lifestyle and reaped the rewards of richer relationships. Not So Fast offers hope that families struggling with hurried hearts and frantic souls can discover the rejuvenating power of an unrushed life.

The Oxford Companion to Food Alan Davidson, 2014 Twenty years in the making, the first edition of this bestselling reference work appeared in 1999 to worldwide acclaim. Combining serious and meticulously researched facts with entertaining and witty commentary, it has been deemed unique by chefs and reviewers around the globe. It contains both a comprehensive catalog of foodstuffs (crackers and cookies named for battles and divas, body parts from toe to cerebellum, breads from Asia to the Mediterranean) and a richly allusive account of the culture of food, whether expressed in literature and cook books or as dishes special to a country or community. Retaining Alan Davidson's wisdom and wit, this new edition also covers the latest developments across the whole spectrum of this subject. Tom Jaine has taken the opportunity to update the text and alert readers to new perspectives in food studies. There is new coverage on attitudes towards food consumption, production, and perception, such as food and genetics, food and sociology, and obesity. New entries include terms such as convenience foods, gastronomy, fusion food, leftovers, obesity, local food, and many more. There are also new entries on important personalities who are of special significance within the world of food, among them Clarence Birdseye, Henri Nestle, and Louis Pasteur. Now in its third edition, the Companion maintains its place as the foremost food reference resource for study and home use.
