Networking for English Majors Paul Pomerleau, 2008-10-28 What can you do with your college education? You can become a well paid computer networking professional. Your major in the liberal arts or social sciences has prepared you for much more than you might imagine. You don't need to struggle to make a living as a writer or a proofreader. You don't have to be a high school teacher if that's not what you want to do. A degree in English, linguistics, psychology, history, political science or any other social science or liberal art enables you to think and learn faster than the graduates of most technical degree programs. The truth is that you can outperform most computer science majors soon after taking a job in computer networking. Networking for English Majors teaches you what you need to know to get your first job and then to move ahead in a career that pays well. The Art of Debate - 14th Edition N.
