Tatum New Mexico Story:

The Tatum, New Mexico Story Francis Stanley, 1968 Located in Southwest Collection     A Guide to New Mexico Film Locations Jason Strykowski, 2021-11 A Guide to New Mexico Film Locations offers a call sheet to explore many of the Land of Enchantment's most iconic film locales From alpine forests to sand dunes from spaceports to historic ranches New Mexico's movie backdrops showcase the most dramatic and stunning parts of the state     Journalists in Film Brian McNair, 2009-12-14 A study of the representation of journalists on film and what this tells us about society's relationship with journalism and news media     The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964     The Function of Evil across Disciplinary Contexts Malcah Effron, Brian Johnson, 2017-02-15 The Function of Evil Across Disciplinary Contexts explores answers to two important questions about the age old theme of evil is there any use in using the concept of evil in cultural psychological or other secular evaluations of the world and its productions Most importantly if there is what might these functions be By looking across several disciplines and analyzing evil as it is referenced across a broad spectrum of phenomena this work demonstrates the varying ways that we interact with the ethical dilemma as academics as citizens and as people The work draws from authors in different fields including history literary and film studies philosophy and psychology and from around the world to provide an analysis of evil in such topics as deeply canonical as Beowulf and Shakespeare to subjects as culturally resonant as Stephen King Captain America or the War on Terror By bringing together this otherwise disparate collection of scholarship this collection reveals that discussions of evil across disciplines have always been questions of how cultures represent that which they find socially abhorrent This work thus opens the conversation about evil outside of field specific limitations simultaneously demonstrating the assumptions that undergird the manner by which such a conversation proceeds     Animal Stories Max Evans, 2013-08-26 Legendary western author Max Evans has spent his entire life working with cows and horses These rangeland animals and other creatures both domestic and wild play pivotal roles in his stories This magnificent collection beautifully illustrated by cowboy artist Keith Walters showcases twenty six animal tales penned by Evans during his long and celebrated career Both fiction and nonfiction the stories in this collection get us inside the heads and hearts of numerous four legged critters dogs horses burros goats cattle deer coyotes and more The Old One for example shows us the world through the eyes of a prairie dog as she watches her latest litter of pups rolling and tumbling around the mound and thinks of all the things she will need to teach them And in The One Eyed Sky an aging cow with a new calf and an old coyote with a litter to feed circle each other warily trying to protect their young until a rancher intervenes Not one to shy away from difficult subjects Evans also delves into the animal nature of human beings as in The Heart of the Matter where two Vietnam vets and friends kill a deer and then turn their rifles on each other These captivating tales display Evans's trademark mix of raucous humor and vivid poetic descriptions of the high plains of West Texas and his beloved Hi Lo Country in northeastern New Mexico He reminds his readers of simpler times and more honorable people even as he evokes the merciless environment in which his characters both animal and human struggle to survive      A Man Absolutely Sure of Himself David B. Gracy, 2019-11-07 This is the first full biography of George Washington Littlefield the Texas and New Mexico rancher Austin banker and businessman University of Texas regent and philanthropist In just two decades Littlefield's business acumen vaulted him from debt to inclusion in 1892 on the first list of American millionaires A Man Absolutely Sure of Himself is a grand retelling of the life of a highly successful entrepreneur and Austin civic leader whose work affected spheres from ranching and banking to civic development and academia Littlefield's cattle operations during the open range and early ranching periods spanned a domain in New Mexico and Texas larger than the states of Delaware and Connecticut combined In a unique contribution to ranching art Littlefield commissioned murals and bronze doors depicting scenes from his ranches to decorate Austin's American National Bank which he led for its first twenty eight years Gracy provides new information about Littlefield's term as University of Texas regent and the necessity of choosing between friendship and duty during the university's confrontation with Gov James E Ferguson Proud of his Civil War service in Terry's Texas Rangers Littlefield funded one of the nation's first centers for Southern history He also underwrote the school's purchase of its first rare book library and its training programs preparing troops for World War I's new combat roles Littlefield played a central role in advancing Austin from a cattleman's town into the business center it wanted to become His Littlefield Building the tallest office building between New Orleans and San Francisco when it was built served for a generation as the prime location of the town's business community Author David B Gracy II a relative of Littlefield grounds his vivid prose in a lifetime of research into archival and family sources His comprehensive biography illuminates an exceptional figure whose life singularly illustrates the evolution of Texas from Southern to Western to American      Writing Diaspora in the West P. McCarthy, 2009-02-17 In this bold intervention into the understanding of the diasporic experience within cultural studies McCarthy challenges a critical position emergent over the last thirty years what he calls the new marginalism He confronts the liberal orthodoxies that prevail in this area exposing contradictions in the thinking of its major theorists      True Crime Horrific Episodes 1 Manuel Coman, 2024-12-13 True Crime Horrific Episodes 1 Dark disturbing stories of murder and Disappearance Every crime holds a story but it is the true crime stories that linger in the depths of our psyche This collection True Crime Horrific Dark and Disturbing Stories of Murder and Disappearance takes you on an unnerving journey through time spanning both ancient civilizations and present day horrors From the blood soaked annals of history to the chilling mysteries that perplex investigators today this book unveils tales of violence manipulation and the haunting mysteries that have eluded justice Brace yourself as we delve into the minds of killers and the victims who met their tragic fate These stories will disturb shock and challenge your understanding of the human capacity for evil In the annals of true crime there are tales that have endured through the ages leaving an indelible mark on our collective consciousness From the infamous crimes of Jack the Ripper in 19th century London to the enigmatic disappearances of ancient civilizations we explore how the thirst for power revenge and twisted desires can drive individuals to commit unimaginable acts In this episode you ll get to read about The Girl the Con Man and the Massage Parlor King The girl wanted love the men wanted money and when they all got together it was murder Plus more Gruesome Stories So buckle up dear reader Prepare to navigate the treacherous waters of true crime where every page turn holds the promise of an unsettling revelation and where the human capacity for darkness is laid bare Scroll up to get your copy     National Union Catalog ,1978     Catalog of Printed Books. Supplement Bancroft Library,1974     This is What It Looks Like Stephen Taylor,2012-07-26     All Things, All at Once: New and Selected Stories Lee K. Abbott,2011-10-12 The long awaited new collection from Lee K Abbott Cheever s true heir our major American short story writer William Harrison Here are stories about fathers and sons stories about men and women and stories about the relationships between men by one of our most gifted story writers The narrator of The Who the What and the Why begins breaking into his own house as a sort of therapy after his daughter dies In The Human Use of Inhuman Beings the main character realizes that his closest relationship is to an angel who appears to him only to announce the death of loved ones All Things All at Once reminds us why Lee K Abbott is to be treasured his perfect pitch for tales of hapless Southwesterners his way with sympathetic irony his eye that skillfully notes the awkward humiliations common heartbreak fractured families and records it all in lyrical affectionate language In tales new and from previous collections Abbott examines lived life and the lies we necessarily tell about it     Chevato William Chebahtah,Nancy McGown Minor,2007-01-01 Here is the oral history of the Apache warrior Chevato who captured eleven year old Herman Lehmann from his Texas homestead in May 1870 Lehmann called him Bill Chiwat and referred to him as both his captor and his friend Chevato provides a Native American point of view on both the Apache and Comanche capture of children and specifics regarding the captivity of Lehmann known only to the Apache participants Yet the capture of Lehmann was only one episode in Chevato s life Born in Mexico Chevato was a Lipan Apache whose parents had been killed in a massacre by Mexican troops He and his siblings fled across the Rio Grande and were taken in by the Mescalero Apaches of New Mexico Chevato became a shaman and was responsible for introducing the Lipan form of the peyote ritual to both the Mescalero Apaches and later to the Comanches and the Kiowas He went on to become one of the founders of the Native American Church in Oklahoma The story of Chevato reveals important details regarding Lipan Apache shamanism and the origin and spread of the type of peyote rituals practiced today in the Native American community This book also provides a rare glimpse into Lipan and Mescalero Apache life in the late nineteenth century when the Lipans faced annihilation and the Mescaleros faced the reservation     Telling Border Life Stories Donna M Kabalen de Bichara,2013-05-21 Voices from the borderlands push against boundaries in more ways than one as Donna M Kabalen de Bichara ably demonstrates in this investigation into the twentieth century autobiographical writing of four women of Mexican origin who lived in the American Southwest Until recently little attention has been paid to the writing of the women included in this study As Kabalen de Bichara notes it is precisely such historical exclusion of texts written by Mexican American women that gives particular significance to the reexamination of the five autobiographical works that provide the focus for this in depth study Early Life and Education and Dew on the Thorn by Jovita Gonz lez 1904 83 deal with life experiences in Texas and were likely written between 1926 and the 1940s both texts were published in 1997 Romance of a Little Village Girl first published in 1955 focuses on life in New Mexico and was written by Cleofas Jaramillo 1878 1956 when the author was in her seventies A Beautiful Cruel Country by Eva Antonio Wilbur Cruce 1904 98 introduces the reader to history and a way of life that developed in the cultural space of Arizona Created over a ten year period this text was published in 1987 just eleven years before the author s death Hoyt Street by Mary Helen Ponce b 1938 began as a research paper during the period of the autobiographer s undergraduate studies 1974 80 and was published in its present form in 1993 These border autobiographies can be understood as attempts on the part of the Mexican American female autobiographers to put themselves into the text and thus write their experiences into existence

The Search for Social Salvation Gary Scott Smith, 2000-01-01 In their studies of social Christianity scholars of American religion have devoted critical attention to a group of theologically liberal pastors primarily in the Northeast Gary Scott Smith attempts to paint a more complete picture of the movement Smith s ambitious and thorough study amply demonstrates how social Christianity which included blacks women Southerners and Westerners worked to solve industrial political and urban problems reduce racial discrimination increase the status of women curb drunkenness and prostitution strengthen the family upgrade public schools and raise the quality of public health In his analysis of the available scholarship and case studies of individuals organizations and campaigns central to the movement Smith makes a convincing case that social Christianity was the most widespread long lasting and influential religious social reform movement in American history

Dark City Spencer Selby, 1997-11-01 The most complete reference to the dark 40s and 50s stylistic dramas The first section has a lengthy analytical essay as well as detailed plot descriptions and credits for 25 classics such as The Maltese Falcon Laura and Detective Story The second section is an annotated filmography including major credits and short descriptions of nearly 500 films Also included are appendices listing every film noir by both director and chronological order off genre noirs and other films bearing important relationships to the noir cycle
