Filipino Studies Martin F. Manalansan, Augusto Espiritu, 2016-05-10 After years of occupying a vexed position in the American academy Philippine studies has come into its own emerging as a trenchant and dynamic space of inquiry Filipino Studies is a field defining collection of vibrant voices critical perspectives and provocative ideas about the cultural political and economic state of the Philippines and its diaspora Traversing issues of colonialism neoliberalism globalization and nationalism this volume examines not only the past and present position of the Philippines and its people but also advances new frameworks for re conceptualizing this growing field Written by a prestigious lineup of international scholars grappling with the legacies of colonialism and imperial power the essays examine both the genealogy of the Philippines hyphenated identity as well as the future trajectory of the field Hailing from multiple disciplines in the humanities and social sciences the contributors revisit and contest traditional renditions of Philippine colonial histories from racial formations and the Japanese occupation to the Cold War and independence from the United States Whether addressing the contested memories of World War II the voyage of Filipino men and women into the U S metropole or migrant labor and the notion of home the assembled essays tease out the links between the past and present with a hopeful longing for various futures Filipino Studies makes bold declarations about the productive frameworks that open up new archives and innovative landscapes of knowledge for Filipino and Filipino American Studies

An Anarchy of Families Alfred W. McCoy, 2009 Winner of the Philippine National Book Award this pioneering volume reveals how the power of the country's family based oligarchy both derives from and contributes to a weak Philippine state From provincial warlords to modern managers prominent Filipino leaders have fused family politics and business to compromise public institutions and amass private wealth a historic pattern that persists to the present day Edited by Alfred W. McCoy An Anarchy of Families explores the pervasive influence of the modern dynasties that have led the Philippines during the past century Exemplified by the Osmeñas and Lópezes elite Filipino families have formed a powerful oligarchy controlling capital dominating national politics and often owning the media Beyond Manila strong men such as Ramon Durano Ali Dimaporo and Justiniano Montano have used guns goons and gold to accumulate wealth and power in far flung islands and provinces In a new preface for this revised edition the editor shows how this pattern of oligarchic control has continued into the twenty first century despite dramatic socio economic change that has supplanted the classic three g's of Philippine politics with the contemporary four c's: continuity, Chinese criminality and celebrity. Crime Fiction and Film in the Southwest Steve Glassman, Maurice J. O'Sullivan, 2001. When Joe Leaphorn and Jim Chee, Tony Hillerman's oddly matched tribal police officers patrol the mesas and canyons of their Navajo reservation, they join a rich tradition of Southwestern detectives. In Crime Fiction and Film in the Southwest, a group of literary critics tracks the mystery and crime novel from the Painted Desert to Death Valley and Salt Lake City. In addition, the book includes the first comprehensive bibliography of mysteries set in the Southwest and a chapter on Southwest film noir from Humphrey Bogart's tough hood in The Petrified Forest to Russell Crowe's hard-nosed cop in L.A. Confidential.

Social Problems Serafin Egmidio Macaraig, 1929. Colonial Pathologies Warwick Anderson, 2006-08-21. A groundbreaking history of the role of science and medicine in the American colonization of the Philippines from 1898 through the 1930s.

Beyond the Borders Deborah L. Madsen, 2003-08-20. This book challenges the boundaries of postcolonial theory. Focusing on American literature, it examines how America's own imperial history has shaped the literature that has emerged from America from Native American, Latino, Black, and Asian American writers. They contrast this with postcolonial literature from countries whose history has been shaped by American colonialism from Canada, Central America, and the Caribbean to Hawaii, Indonesia, and Vietnam. It explores questions about national identity and multiculturalism: why, for instance, is a Native writer categorised within American literature if writing on one side of the border but as Canadian and postcolonial if writing on the other? This is a challenging collection that raises questions not only about the boundaries of postcolonial theory but also about ethnicity and multiculturalism and the impact of immigration and assimilation.

The Saint's Day Deaths Albert Noyer, 2000. Quiet Desperation René Smeraglia, 2000. Ex-D-E-A agent Tuck Matson is drawn into a murder case when an ex-girlfriend calls for advice and is later found dead. The police call it suicide, but Tuck does an unofficial investigation and is shocked when he discovers her involvement with hard drugs, pornography, and blackmail. Totally opposite of the woman he knew.

Supplement to the Official Gazette Philippines, 1941. Crossing Oceans Noella Brada-Williams, Karen Chow, 2004-01-01. With the increasing globalization of culture, American literature has become a significant body of text for classrooms outside of the United States. Bringing together essays from a wide range of scholars in a number of countries, including China, Japan, Korea, Singapore, and the United States, Crossing Oceans focuses on strategies for critically reading and teaching American literature, especially ethnic American literature within the Asia-Pacific region. This book will be an important tool for scholars and teachers from around the globe who desire fresh perspectives on American literature from a variety of national contexts. The contributors use perspectives dealing with race, feminism, cultural geography, and structures of power as lenses through which to interpret texts and engage students' critical thinking. The collection is crossing oceans through the transnational perspectives of the contributors who come from and/or teach at colleges and universities in both Asia and the United States. Many of the essays reveal how narratives of and about ethnic Americans can be used to redefine
