Te Mauri Pakeaka A Journey Into The Third Space:

Te Mauri Pakeaka Janinka Greenwood,Arnold Wilson,2006      Indigenous Research Ethics Lily George,Juan Tauri,Lindsey Te Ata o Tu MacDonald,2020-10-19 It's important that research with indigenous peoples is ethically and methodologically relevant This volume looks at challenges involved in this research and offers best practice guidelines to research communities exploring how adherence to ethical research principles acknowledges and maintains the integrity of indigenous people and knowledge      Indigenous Education and the Metaphysics of Presence Carl Mika,2017-03-16 Indigenous Education and the Metaphysics of Presence A worlded philosophy explores a notion of education called worldedness that sits at the core of indigenous philosophy This is the idea that any one thing is constituted by all others and is therefore educational to the extent that it is formational A suggested opposite of this indigenous philosophy is the metaphysics of presence which describes the tendency in dominant Western philosophy to privilege presence over absence This book compares these competing philosophies and argues that even though the metaphysics of presence and the formational notion of education are at odds with each other they also constitute each other from an indigenous worlded philosophical viewpoint Drawing on both Maori and Western philosophies this book demonstrates how the metaphysics of presence is both related and opposed to the indigenous notion of worldedness Mika explains that presence seeks to fragment things in the world underpins how indigenous peoples can represent things and prevents indigenous students critics and scholars from reflecting on philosophical colonisation However the metaphysics of presence from an indigenous perspective is constituted by all other things in the world and Mika argues that the indigenous student and critic can re emphasise worldedness and destabilise presence through creative responses humour and speculative thinking This book concludes by positioning well being within education because education comprises acts of worldedness and presence This book will be of key interest to indigenous as well as non indigenous academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of philosophy of education indigenous and Western philosophy political strategy and post colonial studies It will also be relevant for those who are interested in philosophies of language ontology metaphysics and knowledge      Neo-Colonial Injustice and the Mass Imprisonment of Indigenous Women Lily George,Adele N. Norris,Antje Deckert,Juan Tauri,2020-09-26 This book closes a gap in decolonizing intersectional and comparative research by addressing issues around the mass incarceration of Indigenous women in the US Australia Canada and Aotearoa New Zealand This edited collection seeks to add to the criminological discourse by increasing public awareness of the social problem of disproportionate incarceration rates It illuminates how settler colonial societies continue to deny many Indigenous peoples the life relatively free from state interference which most citizens enjoy The authors explore how White settler supremacy is exercised and preserved through neo colonial institutions policies and laws leading to failures in social and criminal justice reform and the impact of women's incarceration on their children partners families and communities It also explores the tools of activism and resistance that Indigenous peoples use to resist neo colonial marginalisation tactics to decolonise their lives and communities With most contributors embedded in their indigenous communities this collection is written from academic as well as community and experiential perspectives It will be a comprehensive resource for academics and students of criminology sociology Indigenous studies women and gender studies and related academic disciplines as well as non academic audiences offering new knowledge and insider insights both nationally and internationally     Key Concepts in Theatre/Drama Education S.

Schonmann,2011-07-22 Key Concepts in Theatre Drama Education provides the first comprehensive survey of contemporary research trends in theatre drama education It is an intriguing rainbow of thought celebrating a journey across three fields of scholarship theatre education and modes of knowing Hitherto no other collection of key concepts has been published in theatre drama education Fifty seven entries written by sixty scholars from across the world aim to convey the zeitgeist of the field The book s key innovation lies in its method of writing through collaborative networking an open peer review process and meaning making involving all contributors Within the framework of key concept entries readers will find valuable judgments and the viewpoints of researchers from North and South America Europe Asia Africa New Zealand and Australia The volume clearly shows that drama theatre educators and researchers have created a language with its own grammar and lucid syntax The concepts outlined convey the current knowledge of scholars highlighting what they consider significant Entries cover interdependent topics on teaching and learning aesthetics and ethics curricula and history culture and community various populations and their needs theatre for young people digital technology narrative and pedagogy research methods Shakespeare and Brecht other various modes of theatre and the education of theatre teachers It aims to serve as the standard reference book for theatre drama education researchers policymakers practitioners and students around the world A basic companion for researchers students and teachers this sourcebook outlines the key concepts that make the field prominent in the sphere of Arts Education     International Yearbook for Research in Arts Education 4/2016 Aud

Berggraf Sæbø,2016 This yearbook is the fourth in an annual series of publications by the International Network for Research in Arts Education INRAE INRAE aims to disseminate high quality international research in arts education related to the implementation of UNESCO s Seoul Agenda Goals for the development of arts education This yearbook reflects the growing practice around the world of interchanging the terms arts education and cultural education to such an extent that they may eventually be regarded as nearly synonymous We question if there are differences and how arts and cultural education may be interwoven in different regions of the world With this in mind we want to reconsider fundamental questions of what arts education is about Some authors write from a general more global perspective while others are concerned with challenges within one specific art subject or with particular reference to developments in their own country Overall the articles analyse and discuss the possibilities and challenges of arts and cultural education around the world

Hybrid Identities Keri E. Iyall Smith,Patricia Leavy,2008 Combining theoretical and empirical pieces this book explores the emerging theoretical work seeking to describe hybrid identities while also illustrating the application of these theories in empirical research The sociological perspective of this volume sets it apart Hybrid identities continue to be predominant in minority or immigrant communities but these are not the only sites of hybridity in the globalized world Given a compressed world and a constrained state identities for all individuals and collective selves are becoming more complex The hybrid identity allows for the perpetuation of the local in the context of the global This book presents studies of types of hybrid identities transnational double consciousness gender diaspora the third space and the internal colony Contributors include Keri E Iyall Smith Patrick Gun Cuninghame Judith R Blau Eric S Brown Fabienne Darling Wolf Salvador Vidal Ortiz Melissa F Weiner Bedelia Nicola Richards Keith Nurse Roderick Bush Patricia Leavy Trinidad Gonzales Sharlene Hesse Biber Emily Brooke Barko Tess Moeke Maxwell Helen Kim Bedelia Nicola Richards Helene K Lee Alex Frame Paul Meredith David L Brunsma and Daniel J Delgado

Narrative in Performance Barbara Sellers-Young,Jade Rosina McCutcheon,2018-11-15 A far reaching and engaging overview of the role of narrative in dance and theatre performance bringing together chapters written by an international range of scholars and subsequently creating a critical dialogue for approaching this fundamental topic within performance studies Drawing on historical and contemporary examples of a variety of different performance genres the book will provide a method for exploring the context of a particular form or artist and enhance students ability to critically reflect on performance   Intersecting Cultures in Music and Dance Education Linda Ashley,David Lines,2016-05-25 This volume looks forward and re examines present day education and pedagogical practices in music and dance in the diverse cultural environments found in Oceania. The book also identifies a key issue of how teachers face the prospect of taking a reflexive view of their own cultural legacy in music and dance education as they work from and alongside different cultural worldviews. This key issue amongst other debates that arise positions Intersecting Cultures as an innovative text that fills a gap in the current market with highly appropriate and fresh ideas from primary sources. The book offers commentaries that underpin and inform current pedagogy and bigger picture policy for the performing arts in education in Oceania and in parallel ways in other countries.

Drama and Theatre with Children Charru Sharma, 2015-12-14 Drama as a process centred form is a popular and valued methodology used to develop thinking and learning in children while theatre provides a greater focus on the element of performance. In recent years offering drama and theatre as a shared experience is increasingly used to engage children and to facilitate learning in a drama classroom. Using drama and theatre as a central component with children this book is an amalgamation of theory, research and practice from across the globe offering insights into differing educational contexts. Chapters provide an exploration of the methodologies and techniques used to improve drama in the curriculum and highlight the beneficial impact drama has in a variety of classrooms enriching learning and communication. Contributions from 17 authors ranging from teachers in schools or universities to researchers and drama practitioners examine a variety of perspectives related to drama and children in an attempt to bridge gaps and move ahead collectively as educators, practitioners and researchers in drama and theatre. Divided into two parts Part I reflects on the use of drama in its varied forms with children while Part II focuses on projects and experiments with children using theatre in order to draw links between drama, theatre and pedagogy. Drama and Theatre with Children will be key reading for researchers, academics and postgraduate students in the fields of drama education, theatre education, curriculum studies and child development. The book will also be of interest to drama practitioners, school teachers and teacher training leaders.

Tuamaka Joan Metge, Hon Sir Edward Taihakurei Durie, 2013-11-01 From the point of view of a renowned anthropologist this invaluable volume narrates the history of a multicultural New Zealand in which both Maori and non Maori individuals cohabit. Arguing that the Treaty of Waitangi of 1840 signed by the indigenous Maori and the British established a foundation from which New Zealanders could grow and prosper this account demonstrates how two cultures met, disputed and dealt with diversity. In addition this unique record analyzes the country's languages and myths and explores how they have influenced New Zealand society. Moving and engaging this record covers six decades of enlightening field work.
