T-Kit 14 - Value-based learning in mobility projects Snežana Bačlija Knoch,Sérgio

Gonçalves,Susie Nicodemi,2022-05-18 Promote value based education in general and in learning mobility in the youth field in particular Learning mobility in the youth field is increasingly recognised and present in European programmes and in the activities and initiatives supported by the European Union the Council of Europe and other institutions Providing a meeting place for people from different environments and communities learning mobility programmes draw attention to values trigger reflections on them and stimulate questioning and critical examination If prepared and facilitated well these experiences can contribute to preparing and supporting young people and adult learners to be active in society and to be agents of change This T Kit has been written by and is for facilitators of learning to help start their thinking process about an important but also complex topic It aims to promote value based education in general to explain it and with practical examples related to specific values show how it can be used It is framed within the current policy framework of the Council of Europe and the European Union including their youth mobility programmes The T Kit should be understood through a holistic learning and non formal education approach the combination of theory background information examples and some practical ideas should help to initiate reflection from the relatively new angle of value based education in learning mobility in the youth field Value based learning is not neutral and neither is the T Kit Value based learning in mobility projects It is rooted in a set of values that it explores promotes and encourages action based on them To support this process the T Kit is divided into two parts one conceptual and one practical The conceptual part lays the foundation for value based learning in mobility while the practical part encompasses concrete activities and thought provokers which address the dilemmas and questions that can arise when implementing activities

Learning to Change Andy Hargreaves, Lorna Earl, Shawn Moore, Susan Manning, 2002-03-14 The success of school reform measures greatly depends on the support and commitment of teachers This book examines the realities of educational change from the frontline perspective of reform minded teachers It charts the perceptions and experiences of twenty nine teachers in grades 7 and 8 from four school districts showing how they grappled with such initiatives as integrated curriculum common learning standards and alternative modes of assessment This book moves beyond the bandwagons of rhetorical change and examines how these changes work in practice for better and for worse Authors Andy Hargreaves and Lorna Earl focus on how reform proposals have brought new complexities to teaching practice and why major investments of time and support are required if teaching innovations are to become lasting and effective Most importantly they highlight the intense emotional demands that school change imposes on teachers and they outline practical strategies for helping teachers through the difficult transition process thus ensuring that worthwhile reforms flourish and endure
